ARTICLE VII

REPEALS

Section 701 All acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Education for further consideration.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I cannot for any good and honest reason object to this motion. This bill touches two very important subjects, and I am not now referring to a possible unconstitutionality question that might be raised.

It touches, first, the subject of raising revenue by a new method in Pennsylvania; and, secondly, the subject of an equitable and fair allocation of that revenue for the purposes intended, namely assistance to school districts.

The question is a very difficult one. It steeps with points subject to honest differences of opinion, and I must admit to this House that as the sponsor of the bill I have some grave doubt that those of you who are in this House representing impoverished school districts will find relief through its provisions.

The tax question was carefully considered by the Ways and Means Committee, but the membership of that Committee is not trained by a concentrated experience on questions involving the educational system of the Commonwealth, and I believe that before this type of revenue could be received in Pennsylvania and the taxpayers burdened with its consequences the Committee on Education is entitled to study the subject.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, confirming what the gentleman from Philadelphia has said, the reason that I moved to send this back is particularly the fact that it changes the yardstick by which money is distributed to the school districts in Pennsylvania. It distributes it equitably as it says on the basis of their assessed valuation. That has not been our system of distribution to the districts. We on the Committee of Education have endeavored for a number of years to close the gap as to educational opportunities between the large district and the small district; in other words, to give a much better opportunity for education in the small district and try to bring it up to the large district.

What this bill would do would be to increase the differences between the educational opportunity in the large district and that in the small district. Very little money would go back to the small district. While this must come, while a new system of taxation must be devised, which will take some of the burden off real estate, this doesn't take the burden off real estate, except that it sends to the large district of Pennsylvania a very large sum of money and practically nothing to the small district, because their valuation is so small, and for this reason I think it should go to the Committee and that some yardstick be worked out for distribution to the districts before this new tax is put on. As it now is it would just be another tax and nothing else.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the "yeas" appear to have it. Whereupon a division was called for, and ninety eight members voting in the affirmative and seventy eight in the negative the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 229 (Senate Bill No. 52), entitled:

An Act to amend the title and sections one, two, and three of the act approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws, one thousand two hundred twenty-nine), entitled, "An act to safeguard human health and life by providing for the licensing and regulation of persons and entities dealing in milk for human consumption, conferring powers and imposing duties on the Secretary of Health, and the Advisory Health Board, and otherwise providing for the administration of the act; and imposing penalties," as amended, by extending its provisions to all milk and by making acceptance of municipal permits optional with the Secretary of Health.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask if there is anyone here to explain the provisions of the bill.

Mr. HAINES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the provisions contained in the proposed amendments to the Milk Control Act are very brief and are as follows:

In section 2, line 9, after the word "milk" the words "for human consumption" are eliminated. At the present time the Milk Control Division of the Department of Health has jurisdiction only over milk used for human consumption, and it is a fact that throughout this Commonwealth there is a practice carried on of selling milk from dairies that are not under the supervision of the Milk Control Division of the Department of Health so far as sanitation is concerned, and it is being sold as what is commonly known as cat and dog milk. It is being advertised in that way. It is being sold at a very low rate and is being bought in considerable quantities and used for human consumption.

Then on page 6, line 26, the word "shall" is taken out and the word "may" inserted which makes the paragraph read as follows:

"The secretary (that is the secretary of Health) may constitute as his agent for the purpose of issuing permits for the sale of milk a department of health, board of health or health officer of any municipality" and the old wording was: "and shall accept permits issued by municipalities" and so forth. Now, the word "may" is included, and the discretion rests with the secretary of health as to whether they shall or may accept the permits. Those are the amendments that are proposed for the bill.

I am advised and correctly so,——and I thank the gentleman for the suggestion,——that the change in inserting "may" in place of "shall" is in accordance with the present interpretation of the present act by the Attorney General's Department, and it does not in any way affect the operation of the act.

On the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

HONORABLE M. A. MUSMANNO INTRODUCED

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, and ladies and gentlemen of the House, pursuant to instructions to deliver the body of my former colleague from Allegheny County, who served in this House in the Sessions of 1929 and 1931, and who was elevated from this House to the Municipal Court of Allegheny County, or the County Court, and who in the recent election received three hundred and twenty-one thousand votes out of three hundred and fifty thousand votes cast, for a higher distinctive place in the judiciary of Allegheny County, to the Bench of the Common Pleas Court; it is with pleasure that I present now, Mr. Speaker, in person, the Honorable Michael A. Musmanno, Judge of Allegheny County.

The SPEAKER. In the name of the House, "Mike," it is a real pleasure to welcome you to the rostrum. The old adage that nothing good could come out of the Legislature is wrong in your case when the people of your County put you on the Municipal Court Bench and rewarded you by placing you on the Common Pleas Bench.

Members of the House, I recall very distinctly in the 1929 Session when "Mike," on the opening night got up and made his maiden speech under the question of personal privilege, and introduced that famous ballplayer, Hans Wagner.

You, during your two sessions here, endeared yourself in the hearts of the rest of the members of the House. We did not always agree, but your spirit of fair play always asserted itself. And so I repeat, I am happy to welcome you here this morning and to present to the members of the House Judge Michael A. Musmanno of the Common Pleas Court of Allegheny County.

REMARKS BY HONORABLE M. A. MUSMANNO

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am very grateful for this most kindly reception which you have given me. I do not recollect that when I was a member of the House that I ever received any applause like that which greeted me today, but many things have occurred since I had the great privilege and pleasure of being one of your colleagues.

I see many innovations here. Firstly, you have a new Speaker, and I want to congratulate the House on the excellence of its choice. In Mr. Talbot you have a man of ability and a perfect gentleman as well as a most charming good fellow.

I make another observation, and this truly is an innovation; my name was pronounced correctly when I was presented by my former colleague, Mr. Steedle. But still I remember with some fondness the pronounciation, the lilting, musical pronounciation, that would be given to my name by the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Williams, who, as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, would recognize me by saying "The Gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Musmannio." Mr. Williams knows that I say this with all respect, because he has my sincere admiration and friendship.

As I look over the House I observe still another innovation. In keeping with the spirit of the Sunday Baseball Bill, and incidentally I have some definite and cogent memories about Sunday legislation—in keeping with the spirit of the Sunday Baseball Bill, which you have passed, I see that you have erected a backstop in the rear of the House. I don't know whether that barrier was erected to keep out the brickbats or the bouquets, but from what I have been reading about the House, I am certain that they are bouquets and not brickbats. In fact, I feel quite proud that I once was a member of this honorable and able body.

There have been some changes in your procedure, from what I have been able to gather. I know that when I would get up to make motions for the discharge of committees my actions were looked upon with horror, but now it seems to have become quite respectable. Well, it frequently happens that the extreme of today becomes the norm of tomorrow.

My friends, it is only two years since I was a member here, but it seems twenty years. Not that time has not passed as swiftly for me as it has for anyone else, but it is a psychological fact that pleasant and delightful experiences when passed, especially without hope of revival, seem further away than events not so pleasant. And my experiences here were delightful——that is, some of them. I didn't get everything I wanted. I suffered some heartaches here. Not all the legislation I was interested in passed, not all the bills that I fought for were placed on the statute books, but I still have hopes.

Perhaps, Mr. Speaker, I am going beyond the parliamentary bounds of a speech on the question of personal privilege, but I do not see my good friend, Mr. Haws, here to interrupt me. He used to be my Nemesis on that subject. I hasten to add that Mr. Haws is a very good friend of mine.

My friends, I again thank you for the marvelous reception you have given me. I want to wish for you a most joyous Christmas and I hope that the New Year will fulfill all of your most earnest desires.

I thank, you, members of the House, and I thank you, Mr Speaker.

The SPEAKER. "Mike", I know that I voice the sentiments of every member of this House when I say you have honored us this morning. I further believe I voice the sentiment of the House when I ask you to produce the newspapers that have given this House the bouquets you speak of.

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker. I will seek them.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendments

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 238 (Senate Bill No. 10), entitled.

An Act for the extension of Capitol Park in the City of Harrisburg and for the acquisition of real estate in connection therewith and for the demolition of the buildings and structures thereon, and making an appropriation.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to

On the question.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill is defective in a number of important particulars. It appropriates two million dollars for park purposes. The bill is defective because the state does not have two milion for park purposes.

It is defective because it appropriates public money for park purposes; it contains no provisions for the assessment of benefits.

The expenditure of one million or two million dollars for park purposes in the city of Harrisburg or in any other city would reflect great benefits, and any measure of this kind should provide for the assessment of benefits.

The measure is put forward on the plea that it will furnish employment. The building of roads will provide employment and we need roads more than we need parks. The building of hospitals will provide employment and we need hospitals more than we need extensions of parks. The state needs sanitariums and we need them more than we need the extension of parks. The state does not have the money. Expenditures for education have already run up decided deficits and so, Mr. Speaker, I desire to read into the record a statement concerning the financial condition of the state, issued by General Edward Martin, Chairman of the Republican State Committee of Pennsylvania, which tells us why this legislature cannot proceed to spend money for projects that are not absolutely essential. With the permission of the Speaker the statement of General Martin will be inserted in the record without being read.

STATEMENT BY GENERAL EDWARD MARTIN, CHAIRMAN OF THE REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE OF PENNSYLVANIA, DECEMBER 18, 1933.

Taxpayers of Pennsylvania should know that at this time, when the State is in strained financial circumstances, the people are being urged to demand legislation which will burden all of us with millions of dollars of expense without any apparent revenue with which to meet such payments. At the beginning of the present Extraordinary Session of the General Assembly I felt it my duty as Republican State Chairman, in view of my experience in handling the fiscal affairs of the State as Auditor General and State Treasurer, to sound a warning that the financial condition of Pennsylvania was serious and could not stand the burdens of expense proposed.

State Treasurer Charles A. Waters and Auditor General Frank E. Baldwin confirmed the warning I gave but the administration, heedless of the danger, has gone ahead urging that the State plunge into even greater obligations. Before it is too late I wish to again warn the General Assembly what will happen if a stop is not made in riotous spending. The expected revenue from liquor taxation has been disappointly small and the judgment of the fiscal officers is that the State will find itself badly in debt no money to meet its obligations. This will be a critical situation for every person in the State.

Notwithstanding non-employment relief received from the United States Government from September 27, 1932 to November 30, 1933, amounting to the startling total of $57,833,979.39, the State appropriated for the same purpose from 1931 to November 30, 1933, including $20,000,000 from a new bond issue, the equally startling total of $67,258,566.66. It is estimated that this stupendous aggregate of $125,000,000 will be completely spent by the end of May next year.

In order that every person may realize what this spending means it is interesting to point out that the total expenditures of Pennsylvania for 60 years between 1791 and 1852 did not exceed this amount of $125,000,000.

As a result of the last general election the State was obligated to enormous interest and carrying charges on $85,000,000 of bonds. These charges on $25,000,000 for hospitals, colleges, and relief, which are to be paid within 10 years, will be $6,000,000 per biennium. On $50,000,000 for bonus the charges will be $4,000,000 per biennium during the 30 years of the life of the bonds. The $10,000,000 for toll bridges is expected to carry itself. Pensions to the blind will cost $2,500,000 each two years. The present legislative plan for old age assistance will cost another $24,000,000 each two years. It is time to stop and think.

Naturally we all are for social legislation but there is a limit to the extent to which the Commonwealth can obligate itself for such purposes.

The people should not forget that when Governor John S. Fisher completed his administration he left a balance in the treasury of more than $38,000,000. In addition approximately $9,000,000 has been received from the Delaware River bridge. All of this has been spent. In addition we have borrowed $25,000,000 and have received from the United States almost $50,000,000. A large part of this must be repaid.

It is important to recognize that already Pennsylvania pays one tenth of the Federal taxes. Regardless of the financial condition of the hospitals and schools it should be thoroughly understood that no further amendments to the Constitution to permit borrowing of money can be voted upon until 1938.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, for a number of years it has been the plan of this State to extend capitol park northwardly. If that plan is carried out, as we hope and expect that it will be, there is no better time to do it than the present. Property can be bought at a lower rate now than it could be bought for many years in the past, and we think at a lower rate now than we would be able to purchase or to acquire it in the future. That is one reason why we think it would be good business to extend the capitol park northwardly at this time.

Another thing to be considered is the amount of employment which will be given by this extension. It is true that a certain amount of money will go to the purchase of real estate, but it is also true that a very large part of this money will go to the tearing down of buildings and the leveling of the ground, which will give employment to a large number of people. If you construct a building a very large proportion of the money will go into materials, but if you tear down a building practically all of the money will go towards the relief of unemployment; it will practically all go to labor, and a very large part of this money will be used in tearing down these buildings and in grading the territory, and practically all of it will be for labor and labor alone. We think for those reasons that it would be well to pass this bill.

There is one other matter which has to be considered at this time. Pennsylvania pays a very large proportion, one-tenth of the Federal taxes, and all of the money that we can get from the Federal Government for the State of Pennsylvania I think we should get, and it will be possible for the State to acquire a certain amount of money from the Federal Government to aid it in this project. This also, it seems to me, is good business for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and I think that the members of this House should vote "aye" on this bill, which I understand passed the Senate unanimously.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, two weeks ago I called to your attention what I considered to be an inadvisable step on the part of the House when there was presented for your consideration a bill which appropriated eight hundred thousand dollars for a tuberculosis sanatorium. At that time I called to your attention the fact that the Public Works program of this Special Session of the Legislature was promulgated in Senate Bill No. 1, which I am advised has now been passed by the Senate. In that bill there was a provision for the erection of a Finance Building in the Capitol comprehensive plan of buildings.

It seems to me that the Commonwealth should not embark on any public works program except such as will contain indispensably necessary buildings and improvements to existing buildings. It seems to me also that this House should not disturb the plan for public works buildings as contemplated in Senate Bill No. 1.

Reference has been made to the great benefit that will come to the unemployed in the Commonwealth if this bill is enacted into law, but it seems to me that we should seek an equal distribution of the relief to the eunemployed, and may I call your attention to the fact that if Senate Bill No. 1 becomes a law the Cumberland Valley State Institution for the mental defective will be erected just across the river from the City of Harrisburg. It seems to me that that project will offer a fair amount of relief to the unemployed concentrated in this locality.

For these reasons and for the reasons so soundly stated by my friend from Cambria, I believe this House should defeat the measure now before it.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker I would like to inquire of the gentleman from Philadelphia whether or not the Finance Building is now a part of Senate Bill No. 1.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker if I ommitted to say to the House that the Finance Building has been eliminated by the Senate, then I now so state.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. DUNMIRE. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

Mr. DUNMIRE. Mr. Speaker, the reason I ask for this roll call to be verified is because the members did not answer to their names, and I request that a new roll call be had before the roll is announced. It is an important bill and the members have not voted.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dunmire, has made the request that a new roll call be had.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill is practically an amendment to House Bill No. 8, which is now a law. The amendment of any consequence is merely this: this act shall cease to be effective upon the effective date of any act of Congress providing for participation by the State or by those states which do not tax distilled spirits in the proceeds of a tax imposed and collected by the United States. In other words, if the Federal Government passed a tax measure and Pennsylvania shall as a result of the tax receive a portion of the tax money, then it abolishes the tax in Pennsylvania and the dollar tax under House Bill No. 8 becomes null and void in accordance with the principles of the national government. So I can see no possible reason for any opposition to this bill, and I will ask you to vote aye on it.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dunmire, that he has requested a verification of the roll. Therefore there is nothing before this body except the verification of the roll.

The roll was verified.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the negative and did not hear my name called.

The SPEAKER. The roll has been verified.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, will state his point of order.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, both the affirmative and the negative rolls have been verified.

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I was on my feet before the result was announced.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion and now rules that it is impossible for the Chair to see two hundred and eight men or any one man unless they address the Chair and attract the chair's attention.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to state for the record that I have voted "no," and I can't understand why the clerk has not read my name.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the gentleman that he is recorded as having voted "no."

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, my name has not been read.

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the gentleman that he is recorded as having voted "no."

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 246, entitled:

An Act to amend act number one approved the twenty-second day of November one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three entitled "An act imposing a State floor tax on alcohol usable for beverage purposes and certain alcoholic liquors in the Commonwealth between the date this act becomes effective and the date the Twenty-first Amendment to the Constitution of the United States is ratified describing the method and manner of collection of such tax conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments and certain individuals firms and corporations and imposing penalties" by providing for an extension of time for payment in certain cases.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is a bill that was introduced by me at the request of the Attorney General. It is practically an amendment to House Bill No. 9, which is now a law. It provides for an extension of time for the payment of the floor tax, and it also provides means by which that extension is procured. The Attorney General's office is of the opinion that this bill is necessary and it will enable the Commonwealth to receive between now and the first of January or the latter part of December, rather, 1934, approximately twelve million dollars. This is merely an amendment to the present law providing for an extension of time for payment and the means by which that extension can be procured, and I would ask you to vote aye on this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILL SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER

Bill numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 169.

An Act authorizing the erection and construction by the Department of Property and Supplies of a State tuberculosis sanatorium placing the sanatorium upon completion under the jurisdiction and control of the Department of Health and making an appropriation

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire whether Senate Bill No. 47 entitled: "A joint resolution approving the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States relative to the labor of persons under eighteen years of age," being commonly known as the Salus labor amendment, is before this House?

The SPEAKER. The bill is not before this House.

Mr. HOOPES. Is it before a committee of this House?

The SPEAKER. No, at this moment the procedure on the bill is as follows:

The bill has just been referred by the Speaker. It goes to the Resident Clerk's Office where the chairman of the various committees proceed to take up the bills and sign for them.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a further point of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HOOPES. Could the Chairman of the Constitutional Amendment Committee obtain this bill if he asked for it at this time at the Resident Clerk's Office?

The SPEAKER. The Chair in answer to the parliamentary inquiry informs the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, that the bills that have just been referred are available in the Resident Clerk's Office.

Mr. HOOPES. I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. King, Chairman of the Constitutional Amendment Committee.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would inquire of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, whether the interrogation will cover Senate Bill No. 47?

Mr. HOOPES. It has to do with Senate Bill No. 47, yes, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Then the Chair is of the opinion, and so rules, that until Senate Bill No. 47 is in the possession of the Chairman of the Constitutional Amendment Committee, interrogation along that line would be out of order.

Mr. HOOPES. I rise to a further question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HOOPES. Will it be in order at this time for the House to take action with regard to placing this bill in the hands of the Chairman of the Constitutional Amendment Committee?

The SPEAKER. It is the opinion of the Chair, in answer to the question of parliamentary inquiry, that courtesy would demand that the Chairman be given ample time to pick up the bill. In the event that that did not happen then it is the opinion of the Chair that this body could decide its future course.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a further question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question.

Mr. HOOPES. If this House failed to pass this bill, Senate Bill No. 47, upon first reading today, is it not dead so far as this session is concerned?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I inquire, what parliamentary procedure would be in order at this time to get this bill before the House so that we may take action upon it today.

The SPEAKER. In response to the parliamentary inquiry of the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, the Chair desires to enlarge upon the statement made on a previous question of parliamentary inquiry.

It is the assumption of the Chair that this bill, Senate Bill No. 47, is now being written into the records of the Resident Clerk's Office, and is also of the opinion that a reasonable time should be allowed in courtesy, to permit the Chairman to pick up the bill.

Mr. HOOPES. I rise to a further question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed with his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, what, in the opinion of the Chair, in view of the exigencies of the situation, namely, that this bill must pass on first reading today or else it cannot be passed at this session, would be a reasonable time to allow the Chairman of this Committee to pick up this bill?

The SPEAKER. In answer to the parliamentary inquiry the Chair first states that this body will decide how long it will remain in session in this legislative day. The Chair would much prefer not to state a given time, in all fairness to the Chairman of the Constitutional Amendment Committee, but it is the belief of the Chair that anywhere from fifteen minutes to half an hour would be fair and give the Chairman of the Constitutional Amendment Committee ample opportunity to procure the bill.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a further question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman tarry a moment?

The Chair desires to ask the Chairman of the Constitutional Amendment Committee a question: Has the Chair stated a fair position for the Chairman of the Constitutional Amendment Committee?

Mr. KING. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, will proceed.

Mr. HOOPES. What assurance can the Chair give me that this House will remain in session during the next fifteen minutes?

The SPEAKER. The will of this body prevails, and the Chair is in no positon to decide what the members intend to do.

MOTION TO REMAIN IN SESSION

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House remain in session this afternoon until we have taken action one way or the other upon Senate Bill No. 47, Printer's No. 68.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Berks, Mr. Hoopes, has offered a motion that this House remain in session until some action is taken upon Senate Bill No. 47.

The Chair is of the opinion that the motion at this time is not in order for the reason, first, that the Chairman of the Constitutional Amendment Committee has not taken up the bill; secondly, there has not been given an opportunity to the Constitutional Amendment Committee to meet and take action upon Senate Bill No. 47, and for those reasons the Chair rules that the motion is out of order.

RECESS

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now recess until 5.10 P. M.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Hoopes and Mrs. Wilson and were as follows:

STATEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to make an announcement:

The Chair cannot help but compliment the members of the House for their perseverance and their patience during the days of extraordinary session. You have worked long hours and have been exceedingly patient with the Chair. The Chair during the recess sent a request to the Senate, hoping that if they had passed all the bills on third reading that we might receive them before we recessed. However, the Senate had not taken up their today's calendar and this jam at the moment is not the fault of the Chair nor of the members of this House, and asks your continued patience while we handle the much delayed business of the Senate.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to announce in connection with the reference of the various bills that have just gone over the desk that it will be necessary, if these bills are to be enacted into legislation, that the Committees get them so that if the House gives its consent the bills may be read for the first time today.

RULES OF HOUSE SUSPENDED

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I move that rules Nos. 14, and 40 be suspended for the specific purpose of considering a resolution to discharge the Committee on Constitutional Amendments from further consideration on Senate Bill No. 47, Printer's No. 68, entitled: "A joint resolution approving the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States relative to the labor of persons under eighteen years of age."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will read the rules that the gentleman from Berks desires to suspend for a specific purpose.

Rule No. 14 sets up the order of business.

Rule No. 40: "When committees may be discharged from consideration of bill. That when a bill or resolution has been ten days in the hands of a committee after having been referred to it, any committee may be discharged from the further consideration of the bill or resolution by a majority vote of all the members elect."

Those are the two rules that are moved to be suspended.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is a motion to suspend rule No. 40 and rule No. 14 of this House for the purpose of considering a resolution to discharge the Committee on Constitutional Amendments from further consideration of a resolution ratifying the Federal Child Labor Amendment.

Rule No. 14 sets forth the order of business, and as we have passed the order of business of resolutions, it is necessary to suspend it.

Rule No. 40 provides that a bill must be in committee for ten days before a motion may be made to discharge that Committee. This bill was just referred to the Committee this afternoon, and we have already adopted a resolution to adjourn finally on Thursday noon of this week, so it is quite obvious that unless we suspend both these rules the Child Labor Amendment will not be acted upon at this session. This motion is to suspend those rules in order that we may take action upon them.

I am informed that the Committee on Constitutional Amendments has killed the Child Labor Amendment, at least that they have refused to report it to this House, and therefore, the only action that this House can now take is to vote to discharge that committee, unless you wish to be on record as not ratifying the Federal Child Labor Amendment. Last week this House by a vote of 174 to 6 passed a resolution identical with this one, as far as the wording is concerned.

The parliamentary situation as far as ratification of the Child Labor Amendment is concerned is as follows: Each House of the General Assembly has passed a resolution ratifying that amendment. This House passed the Craig resolution last week, and the Senate passed a resolution last night. However, in order to ratify the Child Labor Amendment, it is necessary that both Houses pass the same resolution. In order that there may be no slip-up, we are taking these steps to see to it that this resolution is gotten out of committee and passed on third reading here. I understand that the Senate has reported out the Craig Resolution, but I also have received information that there is a move on foot in the Senate to recommit it tomorrow, but be that as it may——

The SPEAKER. The Chair insists that the gentleman confine himself to the subject matter before the House.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I am giving my reason for the suspension of these rules.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is discussing the Senate, which is not within the province of this motion.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I have no desire to discuss the Senate further.

Mr. Speaker and members of this House, we don't want this House to be put in the position of being charged with the responsibility of killing the resolution ratifying the Child Labor Amendment. In order to protect ourselves fully, it is necessary for us to put ourselves in a position where we can pass on this resolution, which has already passed the Senate and which is now before us, so that no matter what may happen across the Hall, we at least will have gone on record clearly as to our attitude. We went on record 174 to 6 last week, but in spite of that action the Committee on Constitutional Amendments has refused to report this resolution to this House. I ask you under those circumstances——

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. HUTTON. The gentleman is not speaking upon the motion.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The gentleman from Berks will confine himself to the motion that is before the House.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, for the reasons which I have already stated, I ask the members of this House to support the motion to suspend the rules, which is now before you, and I ask for a roll call.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to call the attention of the House to the reasonableness of this request. It is really not hostile in any respect, although it takes us a great way from the procedure of this House. Now, insofar as both Houses have already expressed themselves in favor of this legislation, it seems to me that it is only reasonable that the members should agree at this time to do something a little bit out of the ordinary in order that we may pass this bill on to the Governor. If it was during any other time of the session this might be termed unreasonable, but at the present time I don't see that any member can justly refuse to vote for this motion if he is in favor of this legislation.

The SPEAKER. Before the motion is put, the Chair desires to read Rule 88:

"Alteration or suspension of rules. Any rule of the House may be suspended at any time for a specific purpose by a majority vote of the members elect; after the accomplishment of which purpose the rule shall remain in force as before."

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

E Milk sold and distributed outside of this Commonwealth in any state which charges a license fee of milk dealers shall not be included in the determination of the amount of the license fee provided that such milk is actually computed in determining the amount of such license fee in such other state Likewise milk utilized for or sold in the form of manufactured products shall not be included in the determination of the amount of the license fee but the fluid milk equivalent of cream and of condensed or concentrated milk sold within this Commonwealth or in any state in which it is not actually computed in the determination of the license fee of a milk dealer shall be included in computing the license fee to be charged by the Board unless in the case of condensed or concentrated whole or skimmed milk it is sold in hermetically sealed cans

F The licenses required by this act shall be in addition to any other licenses which are now or may hereafter be required by law

The twelfth section was read as follows:

Section 12 Licensee's Bonds or Securities Exemptions A Except as otherwise specifically provided in this act a license shall not be issued to a milk dealer purchasing milk from producers within this Commonwealth unless the milk dealer shall execute and file with the application a bond approved by the Board Such bond shall be upon a form prescribed by the Board shall be in a sum to be fixed by the Board but not exceeding by more than twenty-five per centum the value of the maximum amount of milk purchased from producers in any one month during the preceding year and in any event not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars shall be executed by a surety company authorized to do business in this Commonwealth and shall be conditioned for the faithful compliance by the licensee with the provisions of this act and for the prompt payment of all amounts due to producers for milk sold by them to such licensee subsequent to the posting of such bond

B In lieu of the bond required of a milk dealer by this section the Board may accept a collateral bond of the milk dealer secured by an actual deposit with the Board or with a bank bank and trust company or national bank within the Commonwealth of money to the full amount of the bond or by securities to such amount consisting of interest-bearing obligations of the United States government of this Commonwealth or of any political subdivision of this Commonwealth or by any other security or securities approved by the Board Such collateral bond shall be conditioned upon the same terms and in the same manner as is provided by this section in the case of a bond given by a surety company and the security or securities deposited therewith shall constitute a trust fund for producers from whom the licensee purchases milk

C The Board may likewise grant to any milk dealer the authority to substitute for any bond or any collateral another bond or other collateral provided that such other bond or collateral meets all the requirements of this act

D A license shall from time to time when required by the Board make and file with the Board a verified statement of his disbursements or of any other facts in connection with his business during a period to be prescribed by the Board which statement shall contain the names of the producers from whom milk was purchased the amount due to producers and any other relevant facts required by the Board If it shall appear from such statement or from facts otherwise ascertained by the Board that the security afforded to producers selling milk to such licensees by the surety bond or by the collateral bonds does not adequately protect such producers the Board may require such licensee to give an additional bond in a sum to be determined by the Board or additional security for the collateral bond but not exceeding by more than twenty-five per centum the value of the maximum amount of milk purchased from producers in any one month during the preceding year and in any event not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars

Likewise the Board may grant a reduction of the surety bond or the collateral bond if it shall appear that owing to a decrease in the business of the licensee or to other causes a bond in a lesser amount will protect producers selling milk to such licensee

E All surety bonds and all collateral bonds together with any moneys security or securities given as collateral therefor received by the Board from milk dealers pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be transmitted by the Board to the State Treasurer for safe-keeping subject to withdrawal in whole or in part in any time by the Board

Provided however that such licensee shall not be entitled to such interest or dividends if there is on file with the Board a valid unpaid claim of a producer against such licensee based on milk sold by such producer to such licensee

G The Board may by reasonable rule or regulation provide the procedure for the payment out of the bonds or security or securities required by this section of the valid claims of producers based on sales by them of milk to the licensee who has posted the bonds or security or securities

Provided however that if the bond or security or securities which have been posted by a milk dealer shall be insufficient to pay in full the just claims of producers who have sold milk to such licensee the moneys available shall be divided pro rata among them

The Board shall have the power in its discretion to sue on the bond on behalf of producers

H A co-operative agricultural association organized under the laws of this Commonwealth or a similar association organized under the laws of this or any other state shall be deemed a producer within the provisions of this section and shall be entitled to its benefits Such an association if operated for the benefit of producers under contract with it and not conducted for profit shall not be required to file a bond under the provisions of this section

I If satisfied from an investigation of the financial condition of any applicant for a license under this section that such milk dealer is solvent and possessed of sufficient assets reasonably to assure payment to producers from whom he purchases milk the Board may by official order exempt such applicant from posting the surety bond or bond secured by collateral required by this section In such case the applicant shall post with the Board his personal bond in such form to such amount not greater than the maximum fixed by this section for surety bonds and upon such conditions as shall be prescribed by the Board

The Board may at any time it deems such action advisable rescind any order exempting a milk dealer from posting a surety bond or a bond secured by collateral and may require him to post such bond

J If any milk dealer is financially unable to post such surety bond or bond secured by collateral as may be required by the Board pursuant to the provisions of this act he may file with the Board under oath or affirmation upon a form to be prescribed by the Board an application for exemption from posting such surety bond or bond secured by collateral on the ground of his financial inability to do so Attached to such application shall be the signed statement of the producers from whom the dealer purchases his milk or of any cooperative agricultural association or similar association or corporation representing such producers to the effect that such producers or such association or corporation on their behalf consents to the exemption of such milk dealer from posting such surety bond or bond secured by collateral Such consent may be upon such special terms of payment and such other conditions as shall be agreed upon between such producers or such co-operative agricultural associations or similar association or corporation on their behalf and the milk dealer and approved by the Board

The Board may by official order exempt from posting a surety bond or a bond secured by collateral any dealer who has complied with the provisions of this subsection

On the question,

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendments.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk.

The amendments were read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 19, page 36, line 27 by inserting after the word "association" and before the word "Nothing" the following: "Provided however that such blending or such price shall be subject to disapproval by the Board."

Amend section 19, page 37, line 8 by inserting at the end of the line after the word "consumers" the following: "or from the jurisdiction of the Board to disapprove the price which it pays to producers."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the amendments, which have just been read relate to section 19, and I think they require on my part some explanation to the members of the House.

The import of the amendments as offered to section 19 would be to place all of the cooperatives associations dealing in milk within the Commonwealth under the jurisdiction of the Milk Control Board.

In the deiberations in the committee this was one of the controversial questions and we labored long and seriously over the expediency of placing in the bill the amendments which are now proposed.

The final action of the committee was against the insertion of these amendments, and since coming to the floor of the House, I have learned that there is a considerable sentiment in the House in favor of the amendments as proposed, and in justice to the committee, in justice to myself and in justice to the members of the House, the suggestion was made by me that I offer these amendments upon the floor of the House, submitting therewith a full statement of the facts of the matter on the adoption of these amendments by the House.

I again reiterate that the effect of the amendments as proposed would be to place the cooperatives associations under the control of the board. If the amendments are not adopted, then the board has only control of the cooperatives so far as it concerns the fixing of price for which the cooperatives may sell milk.

I direct your attention particularly on this point to the lines at the top of page 37, and particularly beginning at the middle of line 5 wherein it is said:

"This section shall not however be construed to exempt such association from the jurisdiction of the board over the prices at which it may sell milk to milk dealers or consumers."

The amendment would also insert the word "producers" so that it would give jurisdiction to the board over the price that the cooperative would give to its own producers.

The other amendments refer particularly to the matter of blending, as they call it, and as is described in the body of section 19. Therefore, the matter is left for the determination of the House as to whether it desires to insert these amendments.

Mr. HAINES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my colleague from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, has very well explained to you the situation in which we find ourselves with reference to the proposed amendments to section 19, therefore, I don't care to discuss them with this exception, to say that the main difference of opinion was, and we are all in accord, and when I say we were all in accord, I mean the gentlemen representing the joint committee of State Government and Agriculture, we were all in accord with reference to the fact that some governmental agency should have some supervisory control of the workings of all cooperatives.

I personally, and others believe, that if that is to be the situation ultimately to be adopted that we should have an agency set up here constituted to properly perform that duty. Certain gentlemen on the committees, believed, however, that this control board is to be set up for specific purposes so that they might not be called upon to enter into these practices in the internal workings of any cooperative, as Mr. Hutton said, in the supervision of the marketing of milk or for other purposes.

In justice to the membership of this Joint Committee, who have labored long and diligently, considering all amendments offered, and they extended every courtesy, and every opportunity for hearing and rehearing to all parties interested, in offering amendments to this bill—many of these amendments the committee in their wisdom believed should not be accepted—in justice and fairness to not only the Joint Committee, but the Committee on Agriculture, which committee has had all of the proposed amendments together with the bill before it for consideration, and have acted in accordance with the bill as reported out, the amendments previously offered and those offered by myself to it, I wanted to make this statement, and Mr. Speaker, I move you, sir, that the amendments, the proposed amendments, be considered separately, that is, the amendments offered by myself acted upon in one group, and those offered by my colleague, Mr. Hutton, in another.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Haines, that the amendments offered by him have already been adopted by the House.

The question before the House at this time is on the adoption of the amendments as offered by the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton. Does the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Haines, desire to have the amendments agreed to separately, there are three of them?

Mr. HAINES. No, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I wish to express my appreciation for the fair manner in which the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, and the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. Haines, have handled this matter, and also the manner in which it was handled in the Committee on Agriculture and State Government.

The milk proposition is one that is quite controversial I don't think that everybody understands the entire proposition, and I don't think at this point it is necessary to elucidate. However, we are concerned with an emergency as far as the farmer is concerned, and the amendments offered by the gentleman from Franklin are the solution as far as the farmers are concerned. You will notice in reading Section 19, as it is placed before you on page 36, Printer's No. 81, that the cooperatives are allowed to make certain deductions. Now, these deductions go to the cooperative and are paid for by the farmer. By this bill we attempt to regulate the price that they may sell to the milk dealers or the consumers, and to allow the farmer to remain out in the cold by making them subject to the cooperatives, which are allowed to deduct any price which they see fit from the moneys which he receives from his milk. The amendments as presented by the gentleman from Franklin will remedy that situation. They simply say this, that before any cooperative is allowed to make any deduction, those deductions must be made with the consent and approval of the Board. Now, I cannot see how that impinges upon the rights of any group. If we are willing to allow the Milk Control Board to set the price that will be paid by the milk dealers, if we are willing to allow the Milk Control Board to set the price paid by the consumer, undoubtedly it is quite fair that we should designate just how much these cooperative associations will be able to get from the farmer, and on that sound reasoning, I appeal to the membership of this House that the amendments offered by the gentleman from Franklin should be inserted in the bill.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I know that everybody is almost worked to death here, but unfortunately after sending out this bill in its amended form, notwithstanding that in committee meeting the gentleman from Berks——

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his point of order.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Allegheny should not divulge anything that takes place in committee.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken and the gentleman from Allegheny will confine his remarks to the motion that is before the House.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as one of the members of the Allegheny delegation whom this bill particularly concerns, I wish to say that it only applies to cities of the second class, and therefore, we are asking that this House will vote affirmatively to suspend rules fourteen, forty-one and forty-three so that the bill may be voted upon at this special session of the legislature. If, unfortunately, there should be a sufficient number of members here voting against this motion, this bill will die a natural death, because without first reading here today this bill will absolutely of itself die in this session. Therefore, I am asking you ladies and gentlemen if you won't acceed to the desire of the delegation from Allegheny county and give them an opportunity to vote on this bill. I ask you, therefore, to kindly consider our request and give us an opportunity to vote by suspending rules fourteen, forty-one and forty-three.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I know you want to get away from here, but I am going to talk only a very few moments. I want to thank you for voting down the motion to adjourn.

In order that you may understand what you are voting on this bill is intended to permit a tenant who is threatened with eviction to petition the court of common pleas of his county setting forth the reasons why he can't pay the rent and then the court fixes a hearing, and then after hearing the story of both the tenant and the landlord, if the judge is of the opinion that under all of the circumstances of the particular case the tenant is entitled to have the distraint stayed, then only can there be a stay of eviction. There are some cases of eviction where it is vitally necessary that the courts should have this power, and I ask the members of this House to vote aye on the bill.

The reason I asked to have it reconsidered was because I was requested by a member of the House to take such action, over eighty members having failed to vote when the roll was called this morning.

I ask you to vote aye at this time.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Vol. 16 HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1933. No. 21.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, December 20, 1933.

The Senate met at 10:30 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the Chair.

The PRESIDENT. In the absence of the Chaplain, the Reverend George P. Donehoo, who is ill, the Chair asks the Senator from Cumberland, Dr. Prince, to offer prayer.

PRAYER

The Senator from Cumberland, Dr. Prince, offered the following prayer:

Lord of all being, throned afar yet imminent in all processes of life, "closer to us than breathing, nearer than hands and feet," we invoke Thy guidance in these perplexing problems that engage our thought. As we endeavor, through legislation, to rear the structure of recovery that shall redeem from waste and want, may we remember that "except the Lord build the house they labor in vain that build it."

Purify motive and illuminate understanding, to the end that the solutions here sought shall approximate just settlement and restore sufficiency and contentment to this sorely troubled land.

In the name of Him who took upon Himself the woes of mankind, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. BUCKMAN, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

HOUSE MESSAGES

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR HOUSE BILL No. 41

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows, considered and agreed to:

In the House of Representatives, December 20, 1933.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 41, Printer's No. 23, entitled: "An Act making an appropriation for the payment of the preparation and issue and sale of bonds authorized by the adoption of Constitutional Amendment Number Four at the municipal election held in November one thousand nine hundred thirty-three' be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO THE SALE OF LIQUOR ON JANUARY 1, 1934

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of House Resolution No. 20, reported from the Committee on Law and Order on December 18th.

Mr. KRAUSE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The resolution was twice read, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 18, 1933.

Whereas New Year's Day a legal holiday falls for the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four on Monday and

Whereas New Year's Eve is generally celebrated throughout the State by people awaiting the advent of the New Year and

Whereas The sale of liquors is allowed by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Act only from seven o'clock ante meridian of any week day until two o'clock of the following week day and is prohibited on Sunday therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That it is the sense of the General Assembly that persons licensed to sell liquors for consumption on the premises where sold shall be permitted to sell such liquors between the hours of twelve o'clock midnight and two o'clock ante meridian on Monday January first one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four and that no licensee shall be penalized or his or her license revoked for the sale of liquors on said day between the hours specified in this resolution

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board by the acting Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I move that the resolution be adopted.

Mr. KRAUSE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to register my disapproval of that resolution. If it is illegal to sell liquor between the hours specified, then I do not think that anything we could do would have any effect. If it is not illegal, then our action would be surplussage, and I do not think this resolution should be passed.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, this resolution is to allow hotels to do business on Monday morning between the hours of 12 o'clock midnight and 2 o'clock ante meridian. It does not interfere with the observation of the Sabbath, and it is only an emergency proposition, to permit the people to enjoy New Year's Eve, that is all. There is no harm in it at all.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Aron, the effect of this resolution—whether it is to suspend or nullify the law.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, it is merely to suspend the law for two hours on New Year's Eve.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was not agreed to.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO AGENCIES OF FORD MOTOR COMPANY BIDDING ON MOTOR EQUIPMENT

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of House Resolution relative to agencies of the Ford Motor Company bidding on motor equipment, reported from committee at yesterday's session.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The resolution was twice read, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 18, 1933.

Whereas, The Ford Motor Company is one of the important industries of the State as the following statistics show:

(a) It paid out in wages at its Chester plant alone, $2,394,000 during the year 1933 not including the month of December;

(b) It pays a capital stock tax to the State of approximately $8,500 a year;

(c) It pays a real estate tax to local government in excess of $75,000 a year;

(d) It pays taxes on liquid fuels of about $30,000 a year;

(e) It employs, directly at the present time, approximately 8,000 persons in this State;

(f) It has 500 authorized dealers in the State employing approximately 3 000 employes;

(g) It purchases parts and supplies from 240 different manufacturers in this State; and

Whereas, The Ford Motor Company has complied fully with the National Industrial Recovery Act, as is best evidenced by the recent purchases of its products by agencies of the Federal Government; and

Whereas, The agencies representing the Ford Motor Company have recently been unable to do any business with the Commonwealth, not by reason of inability to meet specifications contained in requests for bids, but for the reason that makes of cars have been specified, and the products of the Ford Motor Company have seemingly been discriminated against by being omitted from said specifications, although the Ford Motor Company products come in the same class as, and in direct competition with, those set forth in the specifications; and

Whereas, The Ford Motor Company is the only industry which maintains and operates plants in this State for the production of certain types of motor vehicles; and

Whereas, The establishment of industry in this State should at all times be encouraged and supported, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That it is the demand of the members of the General Assembly that agencies of the Ford Motor Company should be permitted to become bidders on motor equipment in this State when bids are requested for types of equipment similar to those manufactured by said company, to the end that Pennsylvania industry may be aided and encouraged.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Governor, the purchasing agent of the Commonwealth, i. e., the Department of Property and Supplies and to the Department of Highways by the Acting Chief Clerk of the House.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the resolution be adopted.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR SENATE BILL No. 43

Mr. REED offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, December 20, 1933.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That Senate Bill No. 43, Printer's No. 48, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Department of Military Affairs," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

REPORT OF JOINT LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE CONDITIONS CONCERNING VETERANS RECEIVING FEDERAL AID

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. President, at this time I desire to present a copy of the transcript of testimony taken in pursuance of the resolution passed at the last regular session of the General Assembly, providing for the appointment of a joint legislative committee to investigate conditions concerning veterans receiving Federal aid; and I desire, in connection therewith, to say that the representatives of the various veterans' organizations desire that the committee be continued until the next Regular Session, in order that they may be given the opportunity to present statistics as to the number of veterans in the State of Pennsylvania that would be affected.

It is to be noted, also, that it is the unanimous opinion of the representatives of the various veterans' organizations that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, up to this date, has done everything possible for the aid of the veterans. That will be noted in the testimony.

TRANSCRIPT OF TESTIMONY

In accordance with House Resolution No. 43, Printer's No. 1175, Joint Legislative Committee to investigate conditions concerning veterans receiving Federal Aid, meeting held on Tuesday, November 21, 1933, at 1 o'clock P. M. in Room 249, State Capitol Building, Harrisburg, Pa.

Present:

Senator Staudenmeier presiding.

Senator Ziesenheim;

Representatives Wade, McKay and Frederick H. Myers, members.

A. Boyd Hamilton, Secretary.

William J. Best, Department Commander, Department of Pennsylvania, United Spanish War Veterans.

C. A. Gnau, Adjutant, Department of Pennsylvania, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States.

Walter J. Kress, Chairman of the American Legion Legislative Committee, Department of Pennsylvania.

Joseph J. Feidler, State Adjutant of the Disabled Veterans of America of the World War.

Irvin E. Armstrong (429 Verbeke Street, Harrisburg, Pa.), a veteran of the Spanish-American War.

Byron S. Behney, Disabled Veterans of America of the World War.

The SECRETARY. Shall I read the enacting clause for the benefit of those present?

The CHAIRMAN. Yes.

The SECRETARY. I will read this clause:

"This committee was created whose duty it shall be to inquire into, investigate and compile statistics concerning the number of disabled or partially disabled veterans in this Commonwealth affected by such Federal action and the amounts of money involved and to report during the next session of the General Assembly in order that the additional duty so imposed on this Commonwealth may be assumed by proper legislation."

The CHAIRMAN. Now, Mr. Best, do you have any statistics or figures that you would like to submit to the committee here?

Mr. BEST. No. I understand in reading that bill over, that is what I understand about it, that is something impossible to furnish at the present time due to the fact that bonus reductions and applications have not all been reviewed, and there is no way of finding out just how many have passed their pensions, either completely or partially. There is no way of finding that out. It may be another two or three weeks.

Senator ZIESENHEIM. It is presumed that this would be presented at the next General Session. We did not anticipate this Extraordinary Session and, therefore, we didn't have plans for getting anything together until the 1935 Session, but this resolution says "the next session."

Mr. BEST. I will have to tell you this. There was in the service during these times in the war service seventeen thousand four hundred in the Pennsylvania National Guard, enrolled in the service and about an equal amount of regular army enlistments in this State and at the present time there are about fifty per cent of those people still living and about fifty per cent have passed away. We have in our organization just nine thousand members in this State and there is supposed to be at this time just about an equal number who are not members of our organization. We have about fifty per cent of those eligible in the organization.

The CHAIRMAN. Then, would you say, as far as your body is concerned, there are about eighteen thousand veterans still surviving?

Mr. BEST. About that, and probably that many have passed away; about thirty-five thousand.

The CHAIRMAN. And you feel that inasmuch as there are a number of cases that have not yet been reviewed, there is no way for your organization to advise this committee as to the number of veterans of the Spanish-American War who are affected by this Federal change?

Mr. BEST. There is no way of telling.

The CHAIRMAN. And you think it is your opinion that in approximately two weeks this information may be available?

Mr. BEST. It may take longer than that, because they are pretty slow down there in Washington.

Now, do you want to find out about the number of people that are eligible, or are in need of help?

I would say thirty-five thousand of them in the State. Of course not all of them are going to apply for aid—not all, but many of those who have passed away have left a wife or a sister or daughter and those people, you know, all come in for aid from the Federal Government. They have been cut off, too; a great many of the widows and the orphan children have been cut off.

The CHAIRMAN. Is it your thought that before the next Regular Session, which will take place on the first day of January, 1935, that your organization will have, we may say, complete data as to the number of veterans that have been affected?

Mr. BEST. You see I didn't get this letter until Friday in Pittsburgh, and there has been no way for me to get in touch with our headquarters in Washington, and even if I had gotten in touch with them it would have taken quite a while to get it. It would have had to be worked up.

The CHAIRMAN. The question that comes to my mind: Can we do anything at the present time? This resolution was meant to come up in the 1935 Session. It seems to me that if the other organizations will have a report similar to Mr. Best's, the proper procedure would be to have this committee continued up until the next Regular Session to give these various organizations through their proper officers, an opportunity to compile the necessary data for that session. Don't you think that is correct, Mr. Best?

Mr. BEST. I think that would be correct.

The CHAIRMAN. Does that apply also to your organization?

Mr. GNAU. We have some figures, but of course we haven't compiled any real figures due to several reasons. One of them is that they are still reviewing these presumptive cases. This is just an estimate, which covers disability allowances and claims from March 30 to July 30; it is a comparative statement. Thirty-two thousand four hundred people were removed from the Federal rolls in that time out of the total and on March 30th there was a total of fifty-six thousand one hundred and fifty-five World War Veterans receiving compensation in some form. As of July 30th, there was three —three thousand; in other words, it is greater than half have been stricken from the rolls, and it is continuing at the rate about fifty per cent of these presumptive cases, which are reviewed in Pittsburgh or Philadelphia regional offices.

We don't keep any records at our headquarters, but we do know the number of transient veterans who are desirous of relief is at least five to sixfold than six or eight months ago.

Many of our posts are finding out that their relief funds are entirely exhausted. Many of the posts are not able to take care of the transients; they are not even able to take care of their own members. The loss of the allowance was a serious blow to many of these fellows. As I say, we don't keep records up to date, which would show the number of veterans that are up against it. Of course, it would be absolutely impossible to keep such a record. We keep it pretty close.

Of course, as you know, there is something which will relieve the situation somewhat, and that is the Pennsylvania State Bonus, and that will bring some relief, because the distribution of $50,000,000, or nearly that amount, will help the veterans considerably. Of course, our State Commander just got the notice last week, I believe, and he had to be in Washington today. We realize that the time has been very short, because this Special Session was unthought of,

That is about all I can give you at the present time.

The CHAIRMAN. Isn't it true that there is some likelihood that some legislation may be enacted by the Congress, which will change, we may say, the drastic regulations that were promulgated at the last session?

Mr. GNAU. We are hoping for that.

The CHAIRMAN. Yes. You mentioned the State bonus and changes that may probably be effected by the Federal Government which will tend in all likelihood to greatly reduce the number that would be affected by this particular resolution until the next Regular Session?

Mr. GNAU. Oh, yes; considerably.

The CHAIRMAN. I should think so.

Mr. GNAU. Surely it will. And then unemployment may change sometime in the next year or so; that will help it.

The CHAIRMAN. That is correct. Do you have any questions, Senator?

Mr. ZIESENHEIM. I am just wondering if either of these organizations have any suggestions as to what the Committee might do by way of alleviating this situation. Of course, that is a little bit out of the way, I presume. We are supposed to be a fact finding committee.

The CHAIRMAN. That is correct.

Mr. ZIESENHEIM. I was just wondering, along with the fact fidnings, they had any suggestions.

The SECRETARY. There is another thing, Senator, that I think is in line with this resolution. This committee was organized after the introduction of legislation in the Legislature.

The CHAIRMAN. Before you came in, Representative Wade, we went over this resolution, and it seems to me that the resolution makes us a strictly fact finding body.

Mr. GNAU. We have no recommendations, inasmuch as the voters in the Commonwealth were very generous in the last regular election, and furthermore, I believe in this $20,000,000 relief measure there is $300,000 allotted to the veterans. I believe that is right, isn't it? As much as there is plenty of relief measures in this session, I don't see what we could recommend at this time, so far as State legislation is concerned.

Mr. ZIESENHEIM. That sounds very good then, doesn't it?

The CHAIRMAN. Yes. What do you think of the suggestion that this Committee be continued until the next Regular Session?

Mr. GNAU. That would give us all, including the Committee, ample time.

The CHAIRMAN. Well, Mr. Best, how does that sound to you?

Mr. BEST. That sounds all right to me. I was just wondering when this resolution was presented, it was presented at a time with the thought that perhaps the $50,000,000 would not go over.

Mr. ZIESENHEIM. In other words, you feel that the State putting this up and the Federal Government doing as much, you would not have any trouble?

Mr. GNAU. After the passing of this measure, I don't believe there will be many veterans who will think that the State is not trying to do its best for the veterans. The people have evidenced that by their vote, and the Legislature has also been very generous.

The CHAIRMAN. That is exceedingly helpful.

Mr. ————. I was wondering if the Veterans Bureau couldn't make a provision for these veterans, so that they could get their medicines from the doctor, instead of sending the prescription to Philadelphia, where the prescription is filled, and then they send the medicine back to the disabled man.

The CHAIRMAN. The difficulty with that is that this resolution would not give this committee any such authority, or vest any authority of that kind in this committee to do anything of that type. We are really confined by the very terms of this resolution, and than make an incomplete or hapnazard, you might say, hit or miss report to the Legislature, it seems to me, as Mr. Gnau has stated, that by the time the next Regular Session comes along, which will be in January of 1935, there may be something tangible that the various organizations could present to this Committee, provided the Committee were continued. If I am wrong in that, I would—

Mr. BEST. I think that is about the right thing. You put it very well. I think that would be the proper way to do it.

The CHAIRMAN. Is there anybody here for the American Legion?

Mr. KRESS. Mr. Chairman and gentlemen, the State Commander was unable to come up here, and he asked me to come up in his stead. I am chairman of the American Legion Legislative Committee.

So far as I know, the American Legion didn't introduce this resolution; and I was secretary of the Legislative Committee last year, and of course, our organization would be very much in sympathy with the success back of the introduction of the resolution, but we also realize that it is asking an almost impossible task, and at best the information which a Legislative Committee could obtain on such a matter, merely concerns the Federal Government, would be to a great extent inadequate.

I believe that the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the other organizations, have through their National Conventions, taken action which is going to be translated into real action at the seat of the Government in Washington either in Legislation or Administration, which will cure the reasons for making this request of the Legislature, represented by this resolution.

I know that our own organization very much feels the terrible effects of some of the cuts, particularly to the disabled, and I know that the entire strength, not only of the Department of Pennsylvania of the American Legion, but of the National Organization, will be felt at Washington during the term of Congress about to be convened, and whether our Congress is in session or not until such a time as these great injustices are remedied, insofar as is possible.

I know that I am speaking for the Department of Pennsylvania when I say that our department intends to bend every effort in behalf of the disabled veterans. I believe that the—I want to make myself clear that the concentration of these efforts should be in Washington, and it is my own personal belief that more can be gained through the organized veterans concentrating their efforts in Washington on the Administrative Officers on the one hand and on our Representatives at Washington on the other hand, than through any—and I say with respect, that I believe that you realize that this is a Federal question to be worked out through Federal Officers rather than to be worked out through the State Legislature.

We are asking the State Legislature at the present time, in the present Special Session, for the enabling legislation to the bonus approved by the people on November 7th. We appreciate the great compliment to the Pennsylvania soldiery paid by the electorate on November 7th, and we feel sure that the Legislature will not be hesitant to enact that enabling legislation, and we feel too that in doing so that these deserving disabled, who are temporarily embarrassed by the Federal cuts will be helped over this chasm, until we have had time to make the injustice felt in Washington.

The CHAIRMAN: Is there anybody else present representing any organization of veterans? Is there any ex-soldier who has any thought that he would like to advance to the Committee? Have you anything to say to the Committee?

Mr. IRVIN E. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Chairman and members of the Committee, I am a member of Veterans of the Spanish American War. I was cut in my pension on the first of July from $60 to $15, and I can't work no more. They claim 62 years, and I am 75. I can't work no more. That was my living, and they cut it on me. I am ruptured, and I am all out of shape in my machinery. I understood there was a meeting here today, and I thought I would come and see what it was like. I would like to get this back some way if I could. I haven't worked any for two years, and I am 75 years old.

The CHAIRMAN: Your case, of course, would be comprehended by any report that would be made by this Committee. Of course, I imagine you would come under the report made by Comrade Best of the United Spanish War Veterans. That is correct, is it not?

Mr. ARMSTRONG: Yes sir. That is all I wanted to ask, and if there is any information that I can find out. I don't expect any information until after Congress meets, anyhow, that is all I wanted to know.

The CHAIRMAN: There are representatives of the Disabled Veterans here today, are there?

Mr. JOSEPH J. FEIDLER: (Adjutant of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War) I am sorry, gentlemen. Our State Commander was to appear before this body, and what he has prepared for this hearing, I do not know. I would rather that Comrade Behney address your committee. I have nothing to offer personally.

The CHAIRMAN: If your Commander has a report to make and if through some unforeseen cause he has been unable to be here, he of course, can file that report with the Secretary of this Committee.

Mr. FEIDLER: Yes. Something has probably held him up, and we have been unable to get in touch with him.

Mr. BYRON S. BEHNEY, (The Disabled American Veterans): I have no statement to make. As our adjutant has stated, our Commander had prepared a report, and we do not know what it is . We have waited for him until the last minute. As you stated, he can make his report in writing.

The CHAIRMAN: That will be all right.

Mr. ZIESENHEIM: Doctor, is he going to contact you when he gets in town?

Mr. BEHNEY: Yes; I think so.

The CHAIRMAN: Then he can give it to Mr. Hamilton.

Now, is there any other person here that would like to be heard?

(No response)

The CHAIRMAN: Does any member of the Committee desire to make any statement?

Mr. ZIESENHEIM: I am just wondering of this D.A.V. proposition would not be somewhat like the first two here: Whether this is a State obligation or a Federal obligation in their opinion, and whether the State is doing that which it might be reasonably expected to do.

Do you have any suggestions along that line?

Mr. FEIDLER: Mr. Chairman, this resolution, as I understand, was originally introduced in the House to find out what the burden of the State would be. It seems to be the policy of the administration that the responsibility must go back on the State instead of on the Federal Government. I think it would be better to ascertain just what the responsibility of this State would be in the event it would have to take up the burden where the Federal Government left off. It is our opinion that it will be a State obligation if the policy of the Federal Government is to continue, as it is now under the Economy Act. The purpose of this resolution, as I understand, is to find out what the policy of the State will be.

The CHAIRMAN: The thought was advanced before you came in that the situation may perhaps be considerably alleviated at the next session of Congress.

Mr. FEIDLER: Yes; very true.

The CHAIRMAN: And it was thought advisable that this committee be continued until the next Regular Session, which would be convened on January 1, 1935, and that would give all the veterans organizations an opportunity of ascertaining whether or not the Federal Government has changed its attitude towards these veterans that are effected; and, if that, then they would be in a position to report to this Committee the number of veterans that have been adversely effected by the Federal legislation.

Mr. FEIDLER: I think the idea is very good, and we are satisfied to go along with it.

The CHAIRMAN: Does any other person here have any suggestion, or wish to make a statement? After all, I may say, for the benefit of you veterans, that the personnel of this Committee consists of veterans, and our sympathies are naturally with you folks, because some day, perhaps if we are not directly affected ourselves, we may be in the same position with those that are affected.

Mr. BEST: Would it be possible for us to get a copy of that resolution?

The SECRETARY: Oh, yes; very glad to.

The CHAIRMAN: Mr. Wade, have you any thought that you wish to offer?

Mr. WADE. No, I have nothing to offer. I think everything, as far as we have gone, has been nicely covered in the hearing. I think it would be well for us to ascertain our position: Whether this Committee should be continued or whether we should ask for its continuation.

The CHAIRMAN: Mr. McKay?

Mr. McKay: I have nothing to say, Mr. Chairman, thank you.

The CHAIRMAN: I believe the representatives of the organizations here have already expressed the thought that the Committee should be continued, so that it can report to the next Regular Session of the Legislature, which is to convene on January 1, 1935.

If there is nothing else, I will entertain a motion to adourn.

(Upon motion duly made and seconded, the hearing adjourned to meet at the call of the Chairman)

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 179, (House Bill No. 212), on second reading entitled

An Act to amend section two hundred and four of the act approved the fifteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three, (P. L. 624), entitled "An act relating to the business of banking, and to the exercise of fiduciary powers by corporations; providing for the organization of corporations with fiduciary powers, and of banking corporations, with or without fiduciary powers, including the conversion of national banks into state banks, and for the licensing of private bankers; defining the rights, powers, duties, liabilities, and immunities of such corporations, of existent corporations, authorized to engage in a banking business, with or without fiduciary powers, of private bankers, and of the officers, directors, trustees, shareholders, attorneys, and other employes of all such corporations or private bankers, or of affiliated corporations, associations, or persons; restricting the exercise of banking powers by any other corporation, association, or person, and of fiduciary powers by any other corporation; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the courts, prothontaries, recorders of deeds, and certain State departments, commissions, and officers; imposing penalties; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts;" regulating the establishment and maintenance of branch banks, offices and agencies.

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would suggest to the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, that he withdraw his request to have the bill go over in its order. I was about to make a motion that the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I think that it is going to be amended so that it will meet the objections of us who opposed this bill. I have the consent of the Chairman of the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations that this bill go over in order and it may expedite the matter if my request is agreed to.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I agree with Senator Buckman. This bill has come out of committee and is now on the calendar, with amendments, and the proper action now should be to put it back in committee.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, perhaps it should go back later, but I shall insist on my request that the bill go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair hears objection.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 179 (House Bill No. 212), on second reading, be recommitted to the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, as Chairman of the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations I would suggest that the members of this Senate permit this bill to go over in its order. We have some amendments that we feel will satisfy all the members of the Senate on this matter and that they will withdraw the objections. We cannot do it if we put it back in committee but we can do it by holding a committee meeting informally and discussing it. If the Senator from Huntingdon, Mr. Williamson, will withdraw his motion and permit the bill to go over in its order we would very much appreciate it.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I am not inclined to withdraw the motion for the reason that we have had several spirited meetings in the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations and we were confronted this morning with a bill from the printer that certainly did not measure up with what the members of the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations believed it would contain.

Now there is plenty of time, the day is early. We have been in session scarcely an hour. Send this bill back to committee, with notice to members of that committee that later in the day certain amendments will be submitted by the Chairman of that Committee, or some other person. Certainly this measure has made so much trouble that it ought to be recommitted, where we can deliberate on it and know what the amendments are that will be proposed.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. WILLIAMSON and Mr. REED, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—26

Batchelor,	Graff,	Prince,	Snyder,
Baumer,	Harris,	Reed,	Sones,
Bennett,	Homsher,	Rice,	Sordoni,
Buckman,	Hunsicker,	Roberts,	Staudenmeier,

			Pres. Pro Tem.

So the question was determined in the affirmation.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, if this bill is recommitted without second reading may it be reported out and read the second time today?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair informs the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, that the bill has been recommitted without second reading.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, if the bill is amended in committee and reported out today as amended, can it then be read the second time today?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair informs the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, that it can be read the second time today if printed.

RESOLUTION URGING SUPPORT OF FEDERAL AND LYNCHING LAW

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Federal Relations:

In the House of Representatives, December 19, 1933.

Whereas, A disregard for the proper and orderly procedure of justice appears to be rampant in various parts of our country resulting in unparalleled examples of mob violence

And Whereas such subversion of justice is destructive to the very fabric of our civilization and may be regarded as a sign of ominous portent

And Whereas the Congress of these United States will convene in a few weeks

And Whereas certain members of Congress have declared and stated it to be their intention to sponsor and introduce a Federal Anti-Lynching Law; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Representatives in Congress from Pennsylvania be respectfully urged and requested to actively support such legislation when the same may be introduced

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be furnished each Senator and Representative in Congress from Pennsylvania

RESOLUTION URGING INCREASED APPROPRIATION FOR ACCIDENT PREVENTION ON HIGHWAYS

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Public Roads and Highways:

In the House of Representatives, December 18, 1933.

Whereas, The rapid improvement of the highways of the Commonwealth and the greatly increased traffic thereon has resulted in a deplorable number of accidents and a consequent loss of life and property and

Whereas This loss to the Commonwealth could be made less by a more thorough and continuous supervision of traffic on the highways by the Motor Patrol which within its means has in the past prevented many accidents and afforded valuable aid to those injured in collisions and

Whereas Many members of the Motor Patrol have been assigned to tasks other than those for which they were originally intended thereby reducing the number available for patrol duty on the highways and

Whereas The necessary thorough and continuous patroling of the highways by these capable employes of the Commonwealth can only be secured by increasing the number of men to be assigned to this duty and

Whereas The unprecedented increase in mileage of improved highways during the past few years makes necessary such an increase therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That it is the opinion of this General Assembly that consideration should be given by His Excellency the Governor during the next budget period to allowing a substantial increase in the appropriation to be made by the Commonwealth for this purpose to the end that a suffcient number of men can be assigned for patroling the highways in order to prevent accidents and the loss of life and property attendant thereon and be it further

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 18, 1933.

Whereas, The Federal Civil Works Administration has indicated its willingness to finance such surveys from Federal Civil Works Administration funds;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, If the Senate concur, that it is the sense of the General Assembly that if the making of such survey is financed by the Federal Civil Works Administration, the people of the State should co-operate to the fullest extent to make such surveys or studies complete and accurate; and

Be It Further Resolved, That the Governor of the Commonwealth be requested to issue a proclamation calling upon all citizens to afford to the persons making such surveys or studies all information which may be requested

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I second the motion

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant- Governor Edward C. Shannon) in the chair.

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

When the Senate recessed this morning it was with the understanding that upon reconvening there would be a motion to discharge a committee.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I want to pay a tribute to the Highway Department of Pennsylvania. During the latter part of last week we had a storm consisting of rain, snow and sleet, and in traveling over the highways of this Commonwealth I was impressed with the loyalty, the energy and the work performed by the employes of the State Highway Department in scattering cinders over the icy hills of this Commonwealth. I know a great many of those men stayed out and worked at their job all night, and in so doing no doubt saved the lives of many, many people and prevented hundreds of accidents.

It is a small matter to speak of, but it was very noticeable to me, in traveling over several of the counties of this Commonwealth, to see these men doing their job and doing it well. It was also a noticeable matter to me that the cities through which I passed had not done as the State Highway Department had done, and that as a result there were many more accidents, I think, in proportion to the mileage of roads, in the cities of the Commonwealth than there were in the country districts; and I want to take this opportunity to give a word of encouragement and commendation to those men who did this work,—not only the Secretary of Highways himself, and his engineers, and the other men in the higher positions, but also to the laborers and other toilers who left their homes and firesides and stayed up all night, in many cases, in order to protect the traveling public.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, would it be out of order at this time to move that the President appoint a committee of one for the purpose of having the State Highway Department take over all the streets of the cities and see that they be kept in this condition?

MOTION TO RECESS

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes, in order that there may be a meeting of the Committee on Banks and Building and Loan Associations.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for ten minutes.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. COYNE. Mr. President, I would like to know the purpose of the recess.

The PRESIDENT. There is nothing before the Senate but the calling of the roll.

The roll was called by the Clerk.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified, and was as follows:

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. HARRIS and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—17

Aron,	Harvey,	Pethick,	Sordoni,
Bennett,	Homsher,	Prince,	Thompson,

So the question was determined in the negative.

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE FROM FURTHER CONSIDERATION OF NOMINATION

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move that the Committee on Executive Nominations be discharged from further consideration of the nomination by the Governor of P. Stephen Stahlnecker as a member of The Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which was transmitted to and received by the Senate of Pennsylvania on November 13, 1933, and referred to said committee on November 13, 1933.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, I want to preface my vote on this motion with a statement of my position. In the regular session last spring I voted against discharging the Committee on Pensions and Gratuities which had under consideration an old age pension constitutional amendment. My action was interpreted, as I knew it would be, as a gesture of hostility to old age pensions, though such was not my attitude. If the resolution had been reported out I would have voted "aye," for the people of the State had a constitutional right to decide for themselves whether or not they wished to empower the Legislature to enact an old age pension law. Yesterday I voted "aye" on the Einstein motion to recess for fifteen minutes in order to give the Railroad Committee a chance to report out the full crew bill. After that was defeated I voted "no" on the Harris motion to suspend the rules, which was merely preliminary to discharging the Committee. I presume my action on the Harris motion was construed by the public as a vote against the full crew bill. That is an erroneous inference. I have an open mind on all subjects of legislation except proposed amendments to the Federal Constitution conferring additional powers upon the Federal Government.

As Senators our concern is for the welfare of the people of our respective districts and of the State at large. The Legislature is the agency for transmitting the will of the people as expressed through us into the accompished fact of statutory enactment. The Committee system is the legislative mechanism which simplifies and facilitates our task by selective process. In my judgment it is the most vital element in American government, State or National. The Committee system is absolutely necessary. It is the only way to handle legislation in its preliminary stages. I have heard it charged that the Senate does not represent the people, and that the Committee system is responsible for its alleged failure in that respect. I do not believe this for one moment. The Senate simply refuses to allow itself to be stampeded. I would suggest, however, that bills in which considerable and influential bodies of our citizens are interested ought to be accorded a place on the calendar and a public hearing if desired. But while the Committees may kill some good bills, they kill a far greater number of bad bills. I have a profound respect for Senatorial precedent, and I am not willing to weaken by my vote a system which I believe to be both necessary and wise. For this reason if for no other I would vote "no" on the motion to discharge any committee from the consideration of a legislative bill, even if that bill were my own.

But, Mr. President, in the present instance it is not a legislative bill which the Committee on Executive Nominations has under consideration. This Committee is arresting the processes of administration by withholding legal status from the members of a supremely important division of the State Government. Appointment is an executive function.

The participation of the Senate is incidental and secondary. The Senate would be within its technical right in refusing its assent, but unless it had good and sufficient reason it could hardly escape the opprobrium of deliberate obstruction. If the committee refuses to act and the Senate ignores the issue, it can scarcely fail to be regarded not only as a discourtesy to the Chief Executive but as a mistake in political strategy.

The Governor was elected largely on his promise to protect the public from extortionate utility rates and practices. This he has consistently endeavored to do, both by earnest appeal to the General Assembly for the enactment of adequate control legislation, and by the character of his appointments to the Public Service Commission. These men have rendered just judgment. Neither the public nor the utilities can deny this patent fact.

Because of the non-legislative nature of the subject-matter under discussion; because of the demonstrated fitness and fidelity of the Commissioners in the performance of the duties of their office; because I believe the people of this State desire and demand their confirmation, I shall vote to discharge the Committee on Executive Nominations from further consideration of these appointments.

What I have said implies no personal criticism of those who see this question in a different light, and who will follow an opposite course. They have as good a right to their convictions as I claim for mine.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. SALUS and Mr. MANSFIELD and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—19

Aron,	Homsher,	Prince,	Thompson,
Bennett,	Lanius,	Rice,	Trainer,
Brandt,	Mansfield,	Salus,	Williamson,
Einstein,	Miller,	Shapiro,	Ziesenheim,
Harris.	Pethick,	Sordoni,

NAYS—27

Armstrong,	Clark,	Harvey,	Reed,
Batchelor,	Coyne,	Hunsicker,	Roberts,
Baumer,	Ealy,	Krause,	Scott,
Bell,	Fay,	Norton,	Snyder,
Boyd,	Frazier,	Owlett,	Sones,
Buckman,	Gelder,	Parkinson,	Staudenmeier,
Chapman,	Graff,	Quigley,

So the question was determined in the negative.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President and members of the Senate, on the vote which was just taken I voted "no," which was a vote against the discharge of the Committee on Executive Nominations. If the name of Mr. Stahlnecker or of any other of the sitting members of the Commission had been upon the floor of this Senate, I would cheerfully and gladly have voted for the confirmation of Mr. Stahlnecker or any other of the Commissioners who are now on the Commission. Unlike the Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, I can make no distinction between the Committee on Executive Nominations and any other committee. I have sat in this Senate twenty-four years and have never voted to discharge any committee, and I do not intend to start now. That is the reason I voted "no" on this motion.

RECESS

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for ten minutes.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was not agreed to.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was not agreed to.

RECESS

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for minutes.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

MINUTE ON THE DEATH OF FORMER LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR JOHN MERRIMAN REYNOLDS

Mr. EALY offered the following Minute which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, December 20, 1933.

It was with great sorrow that the members of the Senate of Pennsylvania have learned of the death of former Lieutenant-Governor John Merriman Reynolds at Bedford, Pennsylvania, after a long and distinguished career as lawyer, banker and public official.

Mr. Reynolds was born in Lancaster county, March 5, 1848, graduated from the first Pennsylvania State Normal School and further pursued his studies at Columbia University.

In 1867 and 1868 he was principal of the Bedford Public Schools and always took an active interest in education.

On February 5, 1870 Mr. Reynolds was admitted to the Bedford County bar. In 1875 he was elected prosecuting attorney of Bedford County. In 1881 he was the choice of his party in Bedford County for President Judge and in 1901 he again was the nominee for President Judge in the Bedford Somerset District.

In 1873 and 1874 Mr. Reynolds reprsented the Bedford-Fulton District in the Legislature and in 1892 he was appointed by Governor Pattison one of five commissioners to build an asylum for chronic insane at Wernersville. In 1888 and 1892 Mr. Reynolds was a delegate to the conventions which nominated Grover Cleveland for President. In 1893 he was appointed Assistant Secretary of the Interior and had much to do with the direction of public business relative to Pensions, Indian Affairs and Public Lands.

In 1896 Mr. Reynolds supported William McKinley for President and was elected to the Fifty-ninth, Sixtieth and Sixty-First Congresses and gave special attention to internal affairs.

The Senate desires to make record of the splendid public career of Governor Reynolds and his great service to the State and to emphasize that in his death the Commonwealth has sustained a severe loss. The sympathy of the Senate is extended to the bereaved family, to which a copy of this minute will be sent.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The gentlemen will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I have read in this mornings' Harrisburg Patriot that my friend Representative Fitzgerald, of Erie County, sponsor of Governor Pinchot's pet measure, the minimum wage bill, termed "the Senate's action one of the most disgraceful acts in definance of the will of the people that was ever perpetrated in the State of Pennsylvania. I agreed to amendments to meet their every objection and they were submitted. In the face of that they deliberately killed the bill. I suggest the Republican party go on a vacation and let the State Chamber of Commerce handle its affairs; Fitzgerald added."

I had the pleasure of serving with Mr. Fitzgerald in the House of Representatives during the 1931 session, and for him personally I have only feelings of regard and respect. But I cannot permit his attack to go unanswered.

I have studied the four corners of the Fitzgerald Minimum Wage Bill and regard it as one of the most unfair and dangerous pieces of legislation which I have ever read. With the principle of the minimum wage, as legislative policy, I have no particular controversy. However, everyone will agree that any attempt to legislate the theory of the minimum wage into law, must be proceeded with cautiously, lest by legislation, we retard, rather than promote, the co-operative spirit of helpfullness and good feeling which has been promoted between capital and labor during many years.

In my opinion, the Fitzgerald Bill is not only unfair to capital, but it would be oppressive to labor. It is far more than a minimum wage bill. Its title might well have been "An Act to make the Chief Executive sole dictator of industry." It must not be overlooked that under that Bill, the Chief Executive, under the guise of fixing wages, had in effect the absolute right to enter the Director's rooms of every industrial corporation, and control corporate policies.

It has been said that the power to tax is the power to destroy. Equally the unlimited power to control wages, when vested in governmental executive authority, is the power to destroy industry.

If my friend from Erie can see either patriotism or wisdom in placing Pennsylvania industry uncontrolledly in the hands of Governor Pinchot for administration by Charlotte Carr and her subordinates, I will concede him honesty in asserting his convictions, but further comment by me is unnecessary.

But Mr. Fitzgerald and those who for other than political reasons, advocate the bill, have overlooked the vital fact that labor can secure no benefit from a minimum wage if industry is paralized. Certainly such benefit will be to the few at the expense of many. When great corporations are operating at a loss; when under federal codes, their overhead may be increased without resulting profit; when they are threatened with receivership and possible bankruptcy, it may be most seriously questioned whether this Bill is in the interest of labor.

In my opinion, never has the Senate more clearly followed the ideal of Abraham Lincoln of "charity to all and malice toward none." Never has the Senate more clearly attempted to follow the policy of Theodore Roosevelt that "the labor unions shall have a square deal, and the corporations shall have a square deal."

Mr. Fitzgerald says: "I agreed to amendments to meet their every objection, and they were submitted." That statement is denied. No amendments were submitted which went to the vital defects in the Bill. In fact, the only suggestions made were to take the Department of Labor out of the Bill and substitute some other control. Therefore the only concession of the gentleman from Erie that I know of was that Governor Pinchot through Steve Raushenbush, should not be the dictator of industry.

And I will answer the last suggestion of the gentleman from Erie by saying that the Republican party is planning no vacation. Here in Dauphin County, we will be ready to meet the Democratic party attack next November. And I promise my friend from Erie that no Pinchot policy will be more fully aired and attacked in Dauphin County, than this iniquitous and unjust bill which he has sponsored.

Mr .President, I am proud to be numbered among the opponents of the Fitzgerald Bill and to commend the Senate for its action in making sure that we do not press down upon the brow of labor a crown of thorns, by crucifying Pennsylvania industry upon a cross of Pinchotism.

JOINT COMMITTEE TO MAKE AN INVESTIGATION OF CONDITIONS EXISTING AT THE EASTERN PENITENTIARY.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of House Resolution No. 13, reported from the Committee on Judiciary General at yesterday's session.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The resolution was twice read as follows:

Whereas, The public is entitled to know whether such outbreaks are the result of negligence in the management of said institution, and due to conditions which have existed for some time, or whether they were unavoidable and due to the character of prisoners detained in said institution; therefore be it

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters properly being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. GELDER, from the Committee on Public Roads and Highways reported as committed, the following section:

In the House of Representatives, December 18, 1933.

Whereas The rapid improvement of the highways of the Commonwealth and the greatly increased traffic thereon has resulted in a deplorable number of accidents and a consequent loss of life and property and

Whereas This loss to the Commonwealth could be made less by a more thorough and continuous supervision of traffic on the highways by the Motor Patrol which within its means has in the past prevented many accidents and afforded valuable aid to those injured in collisions and

Whereas Many members of the Motor Patrol have been assigned to tasks other than those for which they were originally intended thereby reducing the number available for patrol duty on the highways and

Whereas The necessary thorough and continuous patroling of the highways by these capable employes of the Commonwealth can only be secured by increasing the number of men to be assigned to this duty and

Whereas The unprecedented increase in mileage of improved highways during the past few years makes necessary such an increase therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That it is the opinion of this General Assembly that consideration should be given by His Excellency the Governor during the next budget period to allowing a substantial increase in the appropriation to be made by the Commonwealth for this purpose to the end that a sufficient number of men can be assigned for patroling the highways in order to prevent accidents and the loss of life and property attendant thereon and be it further

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be handed to the Governor of the Commonwealth as the recommendation of the General Assembly

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires that resolutions reported from committees lie on the table one day, be suspended, and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just reported.

The PRESIDENT. Is there any objection? The Chair hears none.

SUITABLE EMPLOYMENT FOR PHYSICALLY HANDICAPPED PERSONS TO BE CONSIDERED

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of House Resolution No. 10, reported from the Committee on Judiciary General at yesterday's session.

Mr. BRANDT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The resolution was read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 4, 1933.

Urging that a suitable part of public employment be given to physically handicapped persons.

Whereas, The employment of crippled and other physically handicapped persons in tasks which they are competent to perform is in accord with a wise social economy and was so recognized by the State of Pennsylvania in 1919 when it led other States of the Union in establishing a Division for the Vocational rehabilitation and placement of Disabled Persons and

Whereas, In recent years the tendency to discriminate against the employment of physically handicapped persons has been increasing as a result of certain general industrial policies rather than diminishing as a social good requires and

Whereas, A greater recognition of the physically handicapped in public employment would be beneficial both as an equitable course in itself and as setting an example for private industry and business.

Now Therefore Be It Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the State of Pennsylvania the Senate concurring that the appointing authorities in every State Department and in every county, city and town be urged to give consideration to the suitable employment of crippled and other physically handicapped persons to the end that a fair proportion shall be represented in public employment and that all rules and policies in conflict therewith be revised.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I voted "no."

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. President, I voted "no."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for, twenty-four Senators voted in the affirmative and eleven in the negative, whereupon the question was determined in the affirmative.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—28

Armstrong,	Coyne,	Harvey,	Quigley,

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Warren, Mr. Chapman, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, when it came up yesterday that there might be a demand to discharge the Committee on Executive Nominations, in an effort to bring out for confirmation five nominations to the Public Service Commission, I was warned from the office of Governor Pinchot that unless I voted for such discharge of committee I would be punished. I went to the Governor's office and found there, seated in the Governor's chair, one about whom I cannot, from a sense of delicacy, make any comment. I was told that unless I voted for the discharge of the Committee on Executive Nominations I could look for the consequences. I was told that this was my opportunity to show loyalty to the Pinchot administration.

I voted according to my convictions, believing that the traditions of the Senate for more than 50 years warranted my action.

Today I was informed by telephone message that, as my punishment for standing by my convictions and the wishes of my constituents, my brother, who happens to be Assistant Superintendent of Highways in Warren County, had been summarily dismissed by the Substitute Governor. Inasmuch as the elected Governor of Pennsylvania is a sick man in a New York hospital, it is almost criminal that Pennsylvania is being devastated by a Substitute.

RESOLUTION CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 18, 1933.

Whereas, The Ford Motor Company is one of the important industries of the State as the following statistics show:

(a) It paid out in wages at its Chester plant alone, $2,394,000 during the year 1933 not including the month of December;

(b) It pays a capital stock tax to the State of approximately $8,500 a year;

(c) It pays a real estate tax to local government in excess of $75,000 a year;

(d) It pays taxes on liquid fuels of about $30,000 a year;

(e) It employs, directly at the present time, approximately 3,000 persons in this State;

(f) It has 500 authorized dealers in the State employing approximately 3,000 employes;

(g) It purchases parts and supplies from 240 different manufacturers in this State; and

Whereas, The Ford Motor Company has complied fully with the National Industrial Recovery Act, as is best evidenced by the recent purchases of its products by agencies of the Federal Government; and

Whereas, The agencies representing the Ford Motor Company have recently been unable to do any business with the Commonwealth, not by reason of inability to meet specifications contained in requests for bids, but for the reason that makes of cars have been specified, and the products of the Ford Motor Company have seemingly been discriminated against by being omitted from said specifications, although the Ford Motor Company products come in the same class as, and in direct competition with, those set forth in the specifications; and

Whereas, The Ford Motor Company is the only industry which maintains and operates plants in this State for the production of certain types of motor vehicles; and

Whereas, The establishment of industry in this State should at all times be encouraged and supported, therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That it is the demand of the members of the General Assembly that agencies of the Ford Motor Company should be permitted to become bidders on motor equipment in this State when bids are requested for types of equipments similar to those manufactured by said company, to the end that Pennsylvania industry may be aided and encouraged.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Governor, the purchasing agent of the Commonwealth i. e., the Department of Property and Supplies and to the Department of Highways by the Acting Chief Clerk of the House.

The resolution was twice read, considered and unanimously adopted by a rising vote, as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 20, 1933.

The Honorable John Scheuer, Jr., a former Member of this House from the County of Lackawanna, died on the thirtieth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

Born in the City of Scranton on the twelfth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, he was elected a member of select councils of his native city at the age of twenty-nine years, and from that time continued active in the political affairs of his city and county until advanced age made such activity impossible.

He served as a Member of this House during the Sessions of 1899 and 1901, and during the latter session was Chairman of the Committee on Banking.

As a merchant in Scranton he was successful, and his affiliation with and activity in many civic and fraternal organizations greatly enlarged his acquaintanceship and brought to him a vast number of staunch and loyal friends; therefore be it

Resolved, By this House, That in the death of the Honorable John Scheuer, Jr., the County of Lackawanna has lost a loyal son whose years of service were for the benefit of those he represented, and whose presence in this House was an aid to the cause of good government for the people of the Commonwealth; and be it further

Resolved, That this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and a copy thereof be forwarded by the Chief Clerk to the surviving family of the Honorable John Scheuer, Jr.

COMMITTEE ON PERMANENT REGISTRATION

Whereas, There is a great confusion as to the best methods for effecting details that will preserve the purity of the ballot and secure to the citizens the right of suffrage.

Therefore be it resolved (if the Senate concur), That a Commission shall be appointed composed of three Members of the House of Representatives who shall be appointed by the Speaker, and two Members of the Senate, to be appointed by the President Pro Tempore, to constitute a research body to study the best methods for permanent registration and to prepare a bill to be submitted to the 1935 Session of the Legislature for enactment into Law. The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

The resolution lies over under the rules.

RESOLUTION No. 24

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Resolution No. 24, Printer's No. 165.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 18, 1933.

Whereas The rapid improvement of the highways of the Commonwealth and the greatly increased traffic thereon has resulted in a deplorable number of accidents and a consequent loss of life and property and

Whereas This loss to the Commonwealth could be made less by a more thorough and continuous supervision of traffic on the highways by the Motor Patrol which within its means has in the past prevented many accidents and afforded valuable aid to those injured in collisions and

Whereas Many members of the Motor Patrol have been assigned to tasks other than those for which they were originally intended thereby reducing the number available for patrol duty on the highways and

Whereas The necessary thorough and continuous patroling of the highways by these capable employes of the Commonwealth can only be secured by increasing the number of men to be assigned to this duty and

Whereas The unprecedented increase in mileage of improved highways during the past few years makes necessary such an increase therefor be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That it is the opinion of this General Assembly that consideration should be given by His Excellency the Governor during the next budget period to allowing a substantial increase in the appropriation to be made by the Commonwealth for this purpose to the end that a sufficient number of men can be assigned for patroling the highways in order to prevent accidents and the loss of life and property attendant thereon and be it further

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be handed to the Governor of the Commonwealth as the recommendation of the General Assembly

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I am coming to that.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires the gentleman to arrive at that point quickly.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the assumption of additional powers by the Committee in my estimation requires additional members on the Committee. Mr. Hutton has intimated, and I quite agree with him, that a Committee of six are hampered in functioning in the duties of the Committee due to the fact that there is no provision included in the original resolution by which counsel could be provided for the Committee. It has been intimated to me that the activities of the Committee have been hampered by the lack of an appropriation. I feel that if we extend the number of the members of the Committee from six to eight, as provided in this resolution, the additional men should take care of the additional matters which would come before the Committee by reason of the passage of this resolution. I, therefore, urge the members of the House to allow the original resolution of the regular session of 1933 to be amended by having two additional men appointed to that Committee, and if that is done, to my thought there will not be a necessity of employing counsel, because in the discretion of the Speaker of the House, he may see fit to appoint to that Committee a member of the House who is an attorney, and who would willingly act as counsel to that Committee. I, therefore, recommend that you vote this amendment down.

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as has been stated by the sponsor of this resolution, there are no objections relative to the matter of the insertion on page 2 of the resolution, but I cannot concur, as chairman of the Investigating Committee, with the increase in the membership of the Committee. A Committeee of six, three from the House and three from the Senate, in my judgment, is quite ample to cover the situation, and to engage in the investigating of matters that come before that committee, and I, therefore, would ask you to vote in favor of the amendments as I have offered them.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution as amended?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the resolution as originally passed by the last session did not provide for a thorough investigation of the Insurance Department. That resolution was only confined to the activities of the Insurance Department in allowing illegal mergers and in allowing the taking down of a million dolars worth of bonds to the detriment of policy holders in insurance companies.

The resolution now before you is to extend the powers of that Committee. It has been called to my attention that in the merging of these insurance companies, there has been practiced gross negligence and incompetency. I am informed that the Special Deputy Insurance Commissioner, Mr. Marion, has been conducting these various liquidations in a manner that does not benefit the policy holders or the insurance companies, and in a manner by which the net proceeds that are received by the Insurance Commissioner in liquidating these defunct insurance companies is being expended in overhead for the maintenance of the liquidation activities in that particular department, and I am informed that today there is quite a resentment in the department itself located in Philadelphia by the employes of Mr. Marion. A great amount of dissatisfaction by the employes in that department, and a great amount of resentment.

There has also been given to me information that there are many acts, specific acts of misconduct by the Special Deputy Insurance Commissioner, Mr. Marion, as follows: In the case of the Provident Mutual Insurance Company, after the collection of many thousands of dollars, there now remains but $2,000 to be distributed among the stockholders. In the case of the Safety Mutual Insurance Company of Lebanon, the assessment was increased four times without a cent of credit to the stockholders. Only yesterday I was informed that a check for $7,500—

The SPEAKER. Is the gentleman talking on the resolution?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I am.

The SPEAKER. The Chair does not so understand the gentleman and requests him to confine himself to the resolution.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I don't understand how I could confine myself to the resolution any more than I am.

The SPEAKER. The Chair understood the gentleman to be talking about checks. The Chair does not understand where the question of checks comes in on the adoption of the resolution.

The Chair only requests that the gentleman confine his remarks to the question of the adoption of the resolution before the House.

Mr. COHEN. I will be glad so to do, Mr. Speaker. Only yesterday in the office of the Deputy Commissioner of the Insurance Department in the liquidating of defunct insurance companies, I am informed that the Department issued a check payable to "Cash" for $7,500, in the liquidation of one of the insurance companies, and that no record is available at the present time that would indicate to what specific purpose that $7,500 is applied.

In the Rural Valley Mutual Insurance Company liquidation, I am informed that illegal assessments have been assessed on any number of policy holders, about 8,000 of them, who held non-assessible insurance policies, were assessed, and in the case of the liquidation of defunct insurance companies, it has been called to my attention that at the present time the moneys so collected from such insurance companies have been expended in carrying overhead expenses of the Commissioner of that Department. I therefore urge on the membership of this House the adoption of this resolution.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, we have adopted the amendments offered by the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, reducing the membership to the original number; are we now on the question of adopting the original resolution?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is correct.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUTTON. I will, Mr. Speaker

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, be kind enough to tell the House whether or not as a member of the Legislative Committee he believes this resolution should be adopted now?

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I would say in answer to the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson. that the mandatory language as found on page 2 meets with my approval.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I am going to ask the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, is the resolution in such shape that you would advise the House to adopt it?

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the resolution is in good shape now.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman think that we should adopt it?

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I would say so.

On the question recurring.

Will the House adopt the resolution as amended?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

STATEMENT BY MR. WITKIN

Mr. WITKIN asked and obtained consent to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, under resolution No. 8, the Speaker of the House appointed a committee to investigate the charges that were made by one A. Leo Weil,

Sr., of Allegheny County, at a public hearing before the Ways and Means Committee. The Committee has examined a number of witnesses and we are now about to file our report.

I don't intend to make any extended statement concerning that report, but for those of you who did not have the opportunity to read it, may I say that the statement made by A. Leo Weil before the committee was not substantiated either in fact or theory. I think I can sum up the entire situation by saying it was "much ado about nothing."

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I merely want to read to you for your information the conclusions in the report of the Committee which was appointed to investigate the charges that were made before the Ways and Means Committee, which reads that these charges were apparently made without foundation, without proper cause and reason, and were not based upon any substantive proof of any kind or character. The Committee is further of the opinion that the statements should not have been made by the gentleman from Allegheny County, A. Leo Weil, Sr., unless there was basis or foundation for the making of the same, and for the information of those of you who were not cognizant of the statements that had been made, they were to the effect that certain persons had made a proposition to certain members of a distilling company that if certain payments of a certain amount of money were made to certain persons, that they would get five-sixths of the State's liquor business. The Committee says to you that there was nothing that could possibly be construed from any consideration, in any manner, shape or form, that would lead the Committee to believe that this proposition had been made.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I desire to file the report.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman will be noted in the Journal and printed in full in the Legislative Journal, and further, the report of the Committee will be noted in the Journal and printed in full in the Legislative Journal.

Does the gentleman from Philadelphia object to having the testimony printed in the Appendix to the Journal?

Mr. WITKIN. No, Mr. Speaker, I do not, except that I would like to have the report printed in the Journal.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE CHARGES MADE BEFORE COMMITTEE ON WAYS AND MEANS

To the Honorable, the Speaker and the Members of the House of Representatives:

In accordance with resolution Serial No. 8 (House History Dec. 18, page 52) your committee, appointed by the Speaker to investigate the charges made by one, A. Leo Weil, with respect to the control of liquor business, in case State stores were established, respectfully reports:—

Pursuant to the above resolutions the committee held several meetings. The first witness called was A. Leo Weil, Sr., the author of the statement set forth in the resolution. In substance, the only testimony that Mr. Weil was able to offer to the committee was that the information upon which the statement was based was received from one, Mr. Louis Rosensteel, the President of the Schenley Products Company, and that Mr. Rosensteel had obtained his information from one, Mr. Harold Jacobi, the President of the Joseph S. Finch Company, a subsidiary of the Schenley Products Company.

A. Leo Weil, Sr., testified that Harold Jacobi had told him that two men had called upon him, Harold Jacobi, and made the proposition set forth in Mr. Weil's statement and that Harold Jacobi had told Mr. Weil that he, Mr. Jacobi, had become indignant at this proposition and that he, Mr. Jacobi, had told the two gentlemen that no such proposition would be given consideration.

Mr. Weil stated that he had no konwledge, no facts of any kind to substantiate the statement he made before the Ways and Means Committee other than the statement of these two officers, Mr. Rosensteel and Mr. Jacobi, and further state that he, A. Leo Weil, Sr., did not know of any applications of the kind set forth in the statement that were made to these companies, and we quote from page thirty of the testimony wherein A. Leo Weil, Sr., testified as follows:

"I have the facts of that proposition being made from the statement of the officers of the corporation. I have no facts, and there are none to my knowledge, as to what amounts they demand, or how they proposed to go about it, or the names of the parties, or who they were."

When asked specifically whether A. Leo Weil, Sr., had any charges to make against anyone with his statement, Mr. Weil testified that he certainly had no charges to make against anyone. Mr. Weil further stated that he wished that the statement that appeared in the record to be looked upon as a statement emanating from the company he represented, to wit., the Schenley Products Company, and not from himself. Mr. Weil even stated on Page forty of the testimony that he was unable to give a lead to the committee by which it could endeavor to arrive at any further information with respect to this statement, and we quote from pages forty and forty-one:

Q. "What can you give as a lead for this Committee by which we can find the information, and you appreciate it is our duty to do it. What information can you give us on which we can make an investigation to find this out, Mr. Weil?"

A. "I am afraid none."

The facts of the occurrence of the two men who made the proposition to Harold Jacobi was stated by Mr. Weil to have been in New York City, approximately a few weeks before the Legislature convened, and Mr. Weil led us to believe that Mr. Jacobi had advised him that the interview with these two gentlemen was exceedingly short and abrupt and that Mr. Jacobi practically kicked them out of the office. Quoting A. Leo Weil, Sr's, testimony on page sixty-nine, he testified as follows:

"When these two men called on Mr. Jacobi, Mr. Jacobi practically kicked them out of the office. That's what it amounts to."

The committee during the course of this hearing were of a unanimous opinion that effort should be made forthwith to bring before the committee, Harold Jacobi, and a Sergeant-at-Arms was dispatched at once to bring before the Committee, Mr. Jacobi.

Mr. Jacobi was located at the Penn-Harris and came before the committee forthwith. It is here most peculiar to note that Harold Jacobi flatly contradicts the statements made by A. Leo Weil, Sr., so much so that it is impossible to even endeavor to reconcile the testimony of A. Leo Weil, Sr., with that of Harold Jacobi, the President of the Joseph S. Finch Company. Mr. Jacobi denied that there was any conversation between him and two men who had visited him about the payments of money, nor was there anything in the conversation that was indicative of the fact that any proposition of money or other valuable thing was made to him. Mr. Jacobi testified that two men did come to see him at his office in New York, and merely asked for the right to be the Pennsylvania distributors, in Pennsylvania, for his company. It is to be noted that the Schenley Products Company and the Joseph S. Finch Company are in the wholesale business and have offices in the city of New York. He testified that these two men whom he did not know, told him Pennsylvania was going to have State controlled liquor stores and that they were interested in representing Mr. Jacobi's company in order that they could sell to the State of Pennsylvania a large quantity of the liquor that the stores would of necessity have to purchase. Mr. Jacobi flatly and definitely denied that he had ever given any information to A. Leo Weil, Sr., or to Mr. Rosensteel, or to anyone else, that anyone had at any time called upon him and state that upon the payment of a certain sum of money that they would be able to deliver a certain portion of the State's business. Mr. Jacobi flatly denied that there was any argument between him and the two men who came to see him and flatly denied that he became highly indignant or insulted at anything that was said by either or both of these two men. He flatly denied that he ordered them out.

Mr. Jacobi was unable to supply the names of either of these two men, nor to give any clue or lead that would enable this Committee to locate and identify them. He endeavored after the meeting to procure some information that might assist the committee in establishing the identity of the two men, but subsequently advised the committee that he was unable so to do. So that it becomes quite apparent, we take it, that the testimony of A. Leo Weil, Sr., and Harold Jacobi is impossible of reconciliation and the committee considers this a rather amazing situation.

We have a member of the Bar of Allegheny County appearing before the Ways and Means Committee and publicly making the declaration set forth and then being unable to establish any facts that would substantiate the statement. Then, not only that, the only basis for the statement is refuted and denied by the person is alleged to have formed the basis for the foundation of the statement.

In the course of the proceedings there was a reference made to one, Sol Rappaport, as being the Philadelphia respresentative of the Schenley Products Company and the Joseph S. Finch Company, to whom it was vaguely referred that there were improper representations made. At least it was stated that it was believed that Sol Rappaport was the person referred to. The Committee thereupon caused to be brought before it Mr. Sol Rappaport of Philadelphia, who testified that he is the Philadelphia representative of the two companies, but had no konwledge of whatsoever kind or character of ever having been approached by anyone directly or indirectly with reference to the payments of any moneys for the procurement of a portion of the business of the State of Pennsylvania. There is nothing that can be found in the testimony of Mr. Rappaport that would shed any light whatsoever, or that would tend in any manner to substantiate the facts set forth in the statement made by A. Leo Weil, Sr.

There was also brought before the Committee, A. Leo Weil, Jr., the son of A. Leo Weil, Sr., who could also shed no light and could not give any information that would in any way tend to substantiate in any manner the allegations made by his father.

Louis Rosensteel was a resident of the State of New York and not subject to the subpoena of the State of Pennsylvania for the Committee. However, in reply to a letter sent to him by the Committee requesting that he appear before the Committee, he advised us that he would not be able to give the Committee any further information than that which had already been given by Harold Jacobi.

This consists in substance of the testimony adduced before the Committee. The Committee has come to the conclusion that the statement made by A. Leo Weil, Sr., before the Ways and Means Committee wherein he stated—

> "We have already had application for payments of certain amounts, so that when you pass your control bill and put it in the hands of the State Control Stores, parties who say they can control things, and if we would pay them a certain amount, they will see we get five-sixths of the business."

was apparently made without foundation, without proper cause and reason, and was not based upon any substantive proof of any kind or character. The Committee is further of the opinion that the statement should not have been made by the gentleman from Allegheny County, A. Leo Weil, Sr., unless there was basis or foundation for the making of the same.

Respectfully submitted,

T. B. WILSON.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I arise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, is now the proper time to discuss the amendments just read by the reading clerk, or would the discussion come properly after all of the amendments are read?

The SPEAKER. The Chair informs the gentleman from Philadelphia that amendments have been offered to Section 2, and the proper time to consider those amendments is now.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODSIDE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside, state to the House the precise effect of the amendments just offered by him to Section 2 of this bill?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, the amendments will put this bill, for all practical purposes in the form in which it was originally introduced. It would provide for the building of the Finance Building by money partly received from the Liquor Fund and by money partly received from the Federal Government as a donation.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, yesterday we considered Senate Bill No. 10, which considered the extension of Capitol Park in Harrisburg. At that time I called to your attention the fact that the type of improvements that were contemplated under that measure were in my opinion not now presently necessary improvements.

Those of us who have been considering this comprehensive building plan, in order to have the advantage of Federal funds, have been directing our attention to those improvements which we believe indispensibly necessary; to those improvements which relate most closely to the health and welfare institutions of the Commonwealth. It has been properly estimated that the cost of completing the Finance Building in the Capitol group will involve approximately four millions of dollars out of a total available of twenty million dollars. I need not say further to this House anything on the subject except to point out that this Commonwealth is committed, it seems to me, to a building program policy that will bring the greatest good to the greatest number of citizens of the Commonwealth. It is my opinion that the inclusion of the Finance Building in that program will not bring that result, and I, therefore, sincerely ask that this amendment be rejected.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the amendment suggested by the gentleman from Dauphin, imperils this whole measure. Public sentiment opposes the inclusion of the Finance Building because money spent upon the Finance Building is money that cannot be spent upon State welfare institutions. Therefore, the measure as it stands, being a commendable measure, is imperiled by these amendments.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. WIKE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Strike out the first word in line 10, page 2, and insert in its stead the word "Fifteen"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of these amendments, Mr. Wike.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Wike, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WIKE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Blair tell us the purpose of these amendments. Will he kindly state to the House the purpose of the amendments?

Mr. WIKE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the original bill stated ten days time, and the amendment says twenty days. This is merely a compromise amendment extending the time five days and making it fifteen days instead of twenty days.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, I arise to oppose this amendment. The amendment which was originally in the bill which passed the Senate changed the time for certain action to be taken on appeal from ten days to twenty days. I think it has been generally agreed that the time set heretofore has been too short. The proposed amendment as offered by the gentleman from Blair is to cut the extension to fifteen days instead of twenty days. If I remember correctly, this House passed a bill exactly like this a week or so ago, including the twenty days, and I ask you to vote for the bill in the form that it was previously, or as it was when it was sent over here from the Senate, and that you vote against the amendments proposed by the gentleman from Blair. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, I second the request for a roll call.

Mr. Speaker, I am rising on the floor to ask the members of this House to vote down this amendment for this reason: A series of eleven bills based on the reports of the Commission were submitted to this House. Four of them were similar to the Harris bills which we have before us, and the others are over in the Senate. In this particular instance it was thought that insufficient time was given under the law to taking an appeal, and that it should be extended from what is included in the present law, from ten days to twenty days, and I don't think there is any harm in letting that length of time elapse before a final appeal is shut out. For that reason, I ask you members of the House to give all of these people who are concerned in this matter twenty days instead of fifteen days for taking an appeal which the proposed amendments call for. I, therefore, ask you to vote down this amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Hoopes and Mr. Fitzgerald and were as follows:

STATEMENT BY MR. SHREINER

Mr. SHREINER asked and obtained permission to make the following statement:

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to call your attention to the Christmas Party tonight. Your committee has been working day and night for the success of this party. We will have a number of floor shows from hotels and cabarets in Harrisburg. We will have a Santa Claus who will distribute gifts and presents for everyone. The party starts promptly at 9 o'clock, and we would like to have you all in your seats at a quarter to 9, and would like to have your ladies occupy the seats of the members. The show tonight will be run by the ladies, and we are going to try and have a good time. The admission is by ticket only. Tickets have been distributed to all of the members. Those not receiving their tickets can secure the same from any member of the House from Dauphin County.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections the Chair is about to declare a recess until 3.30 o'clock P. M. Are there objections? The Chair hears none, and (at 1.40 o'clock P. M.) declares a recess until 3.30 o'clock P. M.

AFTER RECESS

The House reconvened at 3.30 o'clock P. M.

The SPEAKER (Grover C. Talbot) in the Chair.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, I arise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House about fifteen minutes ago in the State Senate of Pennsylvania, Senator Reed took exceptions to a statement that I had previously made, wherein I stated that the Senate's action in killing the minimum wage bill was one of the most disgraceful acts in defiance of the will of the people that was ever perpetrated in the State of Pennsylvania. He further stated that I had agreed to amendments to meet every objection voiced by the Senate of Pennsylvania.

(Remarks expunged from record.)

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria will state his point of order.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, any comment upon the part of any member of the House concerning the deliberations of the Senate are distinctly out of order.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken, and the Chair further reads from Jefferson's Manual, section 365:

"While the Senate may be referred to properly in debate, it is not in order to discuss its functions or criticize its acts or refer to a Senator in terms of personal criticism or read a paper making such criticism"

The gentleman from Erie will govern himself accordingly. The remarks of the gentleman to this point in regard to the Senate will be expunged from the record.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, I think that inasmuch as the statement of a member of the Senate was permitted, which I can prove is absolutely contrary to the truth by the very——

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to inform the gentleman that this body has no power over Senate actions, but must in this body conform to parliamentary procedure. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, does the Chair then rule as a matter of parliamentary procedure, that I cannot defend an attack against my activities as a member of the General Assembly?

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that the gentleman cannot criticize the Senate nor a senator for their actions.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, it is not my intentions to further criticize, but I wish to correct a misstatement on the part of a member of the Senate.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, when a member of the Senate states that the proper amendments that I mentioned were not presented, I would like to give as evidence the amendments that were submitted by Mr. Frazier, and I submit them to this body to prove my point.

I regret exceedingly, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, that the whole story and the true story cannot be told in defense of the women and children of Pennsylvania. It is a regretable spectacle when the desires and the wants and the will of the people are crushed out in limiting free speech by the rules and regulations of any House, and I recommend that they be changed.

In conclusion I merely want to say in fairness to a member of the Senate, that Senator Frazier, if I may refer to him, had these amendments and attempted to present them, and it is only fair in his behalf that I make this reference to him, because the Senator prior to that time who spoke intimated that no member of the Senate had championed this cause, and I think it is only fair to Senator Frazier that that fact be known, because these amendments bear his name.

The SPEAKER. The Chair must insist that the gentleman from Erie refrain from discussing Senate actions or Senators. We have in this body nothing to do with the actions of the Senate or the individual Senators.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there is no one who realizes any better than I do that the rules laid down by this body must be adhered to, but the rules of the Almighty Being and the rules of citizenship demand at least fair play.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is not now speaking as a citizen, but rather as a member of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, and will govern himself accordingly.

Mr. FRITZGERALD. I do not think that it is fair to expunge from the record the remarks that I have made, and if it be in order, I move you that they be included in the record. In other words, I appeal from the decision of the Chair expunging from the record these remarks, which are very essential.

The SPEAKER. The Chair did not state that the remarks of the gentleman in their entirety would be expunged from the record, but ruled that insofar as the remarks pertained to the action of the Senate or of Senators they would be expunged from the record. Does the gentleman insist upon appealing from the ruling of the Chair?

Mr. FITZGERALD. No, Mr. Speaker, I do not under those circumstances. It was my understanding that my remarks in their entirety were to be stricken from the record.

The SPEAKER. That is incorrect.

Mr. FITZGERALD. And I sincerely apologize to the Chair for that thought. However, I rather think that I have made my statement clear, and I feel that it is essential for this body to know the truth. I regret that the Constitution of Pennsylvania and the rules of the House prohibit me from free speech as it were in an issue that is essential, and therefore, Mr. Speaker, I thank you yourself and the members of this House with that thought in mind.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the journal.

COMMUNICATION FROM STATE TREASURER

The SPEAKER laid before the House a communication from the State Treasurer which was read by the Clerk as follows:

Response of State Treasurer Charles A. Waters to Resolution of the Legislature Asking For Fiscal Information

December 19, 1933.

To the Honorable the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I am in receipt of your resolution dated December 13, 1933, in which you ask (1) to submit figures showing the present financial standing of the Commonwealth, and (2) an estimate of the revenue to be derived from liquor sales.

In compliance herewith I have the honor to submit the following using for convenience round figures in discussing the fiscal affairs:

1. Present Financial Standing of the Commonwealth.

(a) 1933-35 Budget

The current budget was balanced at $192,000,000, exclusive of deficiencies, on the basis of budget estimate of receipts, balance of Dorrance estate money, the beer tax, economies, the four mills tax, a state bond issue, and the unencumbered surplus as of June 1, 1933.

(b) Experience First Six Months of Biennium

At the middle of our first fiscal year, November 30, 1933, we had receipts of $42,760,000 and made payments of $55,224,000. Included in item of receipts was $8,200,000 from Delaware River Bridge bonds, so that from ordinary sources receipts were approximately $34,560,000, or an average of $5,760,000 monthly.

Our total appropriation liabilities Dec. 1, 1933, were		$152,928,000
We had cash in Treasury of		9,284,000
Leaving net appropriation liabilities of		$143,644,000

To meet this liability we have the following extraordinary sources of revenue:

Proceeds of State Bond Issue	$25,000,000
Balance Delaware River Bridge bonds	1,100,000
Estimated revenue from four mills tax (proposed to be replaced by floor tax)	8,000,000	34,100,000
Leaving balance of ordinary revenue to be collected in eighteen months		$109,544,000 or an average of $6,000,000 plus per month.

This would indicate a balanced budget exclusive of the Special session, provided ordinary receipts may be expected to increase at the rate of $3,600,000 a year for the rest of the biennium, and it should be stated that our receipts for the second six months of the fiscal year have ordinarily been larger than for the first six months.

The going will be very close, however, and one very disturbing factor to my mind is the proposal to appropriate all estimated liquor receipts for the rest of the biennium, with no provision for unemployment relief for the last six months of the biennium. This is economically unsound since it disregards the principle of our budget accounting that receipts and expenditures should run coterminously . In plain language it short changes the budget, unless we believe there will be no need for such an expenditure after next December, or if we think the State should no longer recognize it as a Commonwealth obligation.

(c) Continued Effect of Present Situation

This is a proposition to which every member might give his or her most serious consideration. As a fiscal officer I believe it my duty to emphasize the fact that the business of the Commonwealth does not cease with the expiration of your term, with the expiration of the present administration, or even with the expiration of my term. In another ten months we will be engaged in constructing another budget and this picture should develop in the minds of all a sobering sense of responsibility, for the reason that we cannot count upon a recurrence of the following extra-ordinary receipts, actually received during 1933:

Sales Tax (no longer in force)	$10,000,000
Dorrance Estate Tax	14,500,000
Delaware River Bridge	9,200,000
State Bond Issue	25,000,000
A total of	$58,700,000

This total, which is exclusive of what the Federal Government has given us for relief, represents about forty per cent. of our aggregatae budget, exclusive of emergency relief.

To make matters worse our new budget will have added to it about $35,000,000 in fixed charges and new activities imposed by this Special Session, so that to our present budget of $192,000,000 we must add the above $35,000,000 making a total of $227,000,000. Then consider that the present estimate of ordinary receipts in the current budget, which will recur, is only $130,000,000, and the picture which confronts us is staggering to say the least, and softened only by the expected revenue from State liquor stores.

2. Probable Revenue From Liquor

As to your request for an estimate from me as to probable receipts from liquor sales, my answer is that there is no information in the Treasury upon which an intelligent estimate could be based.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES A. WATERS,
State Treasurer.

The SPEAKER. This communication from the State Treasurer is in response to a resolution adopted by this House. It will be noted in the Journal and printed in full in the Legislative Journal.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, you have before you at this time Senate Bill No. 53. This bill was presented in the Senate on November 27th by Senator Einstein, of Allegheny County. This bill was acted upon finally in the Senate on the sixth day of December and passed the Senate by a vote of 47 to nothing. On its passage through the Senate there was no contest on the bill on the floor of the Senate. The provisions of this bill provide for the setting up of an authority in second class counties of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. As you gentlemen well know, Allegheny County is the only second class county in this Commonwealth. We of Allegheny County ask you to pass this bill in order to make it possible for us to work out some projects under the NRA. Under this bill it gives authority for a Board of three persons, who would be appointed by the Commissioners of Allegheny County. That bill would be incorporated to act under an authority separate and apart from our county government. That Board would apply to the Federal Government under the NRA for self liquidating projects in Alllegheny County.

There has been a very definite program prepared by our engineers and solicitors which has been presented to the authorities in Washington. This program includes the building of the Wabash tunnel and highway. It is one of the self liquidating projects. The program certainly has not been acted upon in Washington, and will not be acted upon in Washington by the authorities in Washington until this authority is created. Among these projects is one known as the Wabash tunnel and bridge project. That project has been submitted with a tentative list which was sent to Washington by someone, through whatever cause or other, has cast a doubt in the minds of members of this House concerning that project. I want to assure you, members of the House, who have in any way anything in mind pertaining to this project, the Wabash project, that there has been no agreement, contract, or other attempted dealing made with the Wabash Company concerning this project. It has been sent to Washington in our tentative plan. Before this project can proceed for this Wabash tunnel and tube it must be passed on in Washington. In order to carry out these several projects we have made application to Washington for approximately $32,000,000. If these grants are made to us, the Government will give is an outright grant of thirty percent of the $32,000,000 and the other seventy percent will be paid back to the Federal Government from tolls and receipts from these several projects.

In this authority is granted to us and the authorities at Washington grant our request, we will be able to carry out in Allegheny County a constructive work plan to relieve unemployment to the tune of $32,000,000. The purpose of creating this separate entity and authority is to have a Board that can deal independently of the county government with the National authority, and in this way it will not be necessary to levy taxes on our citizens to carry out these projects.

Among these projects are works and constructions that we have needed for the past twenty-five years. We have been unable to undertake these projects because of our inability to get hold of the money to carry out the projects. I want to state to you some of the amount of work that these projects will provide for the men who must work in Allegheny County. It has been estimated that if we receive this grant, that during the first month after we get to work on these projects, there will be 1,020 men employed, and that gradually increase until we find that at the end of nine months there will be 12,920 people employed. It is estimated that it will take two years and six months to carry out these projects. During that time there will be an average of 4,600 men employed. When we get into the amount of material required to carry out these projects I want to read a few of the items which will be required to carry out the work.

These projects will require 280,000 cubic yards of concrete, 9,000,000 pounds of steel reinforcing, 50,000 tons of fabricated steel. 250,000 feet of concrete piles, 200,000 square feet of stone facing, 200,000 lineal feet of curbs, 1,000,000 square feet of sidewalks, 500,000 square yards of paving, 1,000,000 pounds of cast steel, 2,500,000 barrels of cement, 280,000 tons of sand, and 560,000 tons of gravel. In addition to that the cost of the manufacture, distribution and delivery of the different items that go into these jobs means the employment of about 35,000 men during the time that this work is being done. We find in studying this problem generally and in a survey of the information as a whole, that from the funds offered by the Federal Government to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the State has only taken advantage of $12,000,000 for this type of work, while the State of New York has taken up approximately $150,000,000 of this money. We find that approximately 150 to 160 million dollars has been allocated to the State of California. We in Allegheny County, are desirous of carrying out this program. We have in our county such projects as I have mentioned, all of which come within the self-liquidating type of project which the Government is glad and willing to accept. We are here trying to help the unemployed in Allegheny County, and in the meantime help our taxpayers by having these projects done under the self-liquidating plan, I feel that really in this House you will find all, or practically all, of the Allegheny County delegation voting for this measure. I ask you all, gentlemen, to vote "aye" when this bill is up for passage.

THE SPEAKER (GROVER C. TALBOT) IN THE CHAIR

Mr. J. J. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, speaking for the Democratic members from Allegheny County, I want to inform the House that we are going to vote for this bill but we want it definitely understood that we are not supporting the purchase of the Wabash bridge or tunnel. We believe, and we favor, the building of a new bridge and tunnel and we have attempted in committee to have amendments made to the bill which would bring this about. We also offered as a substitute for the bill the bill known as the revenue bond measure which was reported out of committee and recommitted without an opportunity to present amendments that we thought would be satisfactory to the various factions of the city. We are in favor of putting the people of Allegheny County back to work. We do not entirely agree with the principles of the bill by setting up a separate authority because we believe that the right to spend that money and the right to borrow that money should be in the hands of the elected officials. However, we have argued these things out in committee and with the delegation from Allegheny county and as the bill now presents itself the members of the Democratic party from Allegheny County will vote for it, but we are not being put on record as favoring the purchase of the Wabash bridge and tunnel. I want to serve notice now that the Democratic administration will take over the government of the city of Pittsburgh and we will hope to assit in every program that will put people back to work and we will support all kinds of public works, but we will protest and fight vigorously any attempt to take over that Wabash property. We favor a new bridge and a new tunnel.

In conclusion, without taking up any more of the time of this House, I ask the Democratic mebers of this House to support this bill on these conditions.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

PRAYER

The Acting Chaplain, Rev. Oscar F. R. Treder offered the following prayer:

O God, our Lord and Master, before Whom the angels veil their faces, look on us standing before Thee. Forgive our lack of reverence and sympathy; our ignorance of Thy Spirit, of our own hearts, and of our people's trials.

For the great benefits of Thy eternal goodness, we render Thee most hearty thanks. Sanctify our thoughts and intentions, our words and actions, that by Thy blessing they may be effective and successful according as they can be capable.

Strengthen these Thy servants with all gifts of grace necessary to their work, that they may have zeal with prudence, fervor with patience, and earnestness with humility.

O Wisdom, which camest forth out of the Most High, mightily and sweetly ordering all things, come and teach them Thy way.

Specifically we pray Thee, merciful God, giver of life and health, bless Thy servants, the members of this House and the Chaplain of this House, and those who minister to them of Thy healing gifts, that they may be restored to health of body and of mind.

Preserve the people of this Commonwealth from faithless fears and worldly anxieties, and grant that no clouds of this mortal life may hide from them the light of that love which is immortal, lift them to Thy presence, where they may be still and know that Thou art God.

And, O Lord, support us all the day long, until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in Thy mercy grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last. Amen.

Section 26 This act shall take effect immediately upon its approval by the Governor and shall continue in effect until the thirtieth day of April one thousand nine hundred thirty-five

On the question,

Will the Senate adopt the report?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, the amendments made by the Committee of Conference are three strike-outs: On page 37, line 22, beginning with the word "provided" and ending with the word "Board" on line 24, and on page 38, line 2, beginning with the word "which" and ending with the word "Board"; and, again on page 38, line 7, beginning with the word "or" and ending with the word "producing".

Inasmuch as the amendments to this bill consist of strike-outs only, it is not necessary to reprint the bill.

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, in passing on this bill I desire to call the attention of the members of the Senate to the fact that I have warned you once before in this session of what you are doing as to the benefit of the farmer. I am as much interested in the farmer as any farmer in this hall. I am also interested in the man who sells milk, and I want to call your attention to the fact that in this bill there is an absolute excusing of the chain stores in this proposition. You cannot bring the chain store in, and you will not make this bill a success until you put the chain store on a parity with the man in the milk business. I am serving notice on you members of the Senate now that coming from the towns where you have your small milk dealers and the men who make a livelihood out of it, that if you are going to allow the chain store to enter into this business you are going to do the milk men of your districts an injustice, and you are going to have something to answer for. There is no reason under the sun why the chain store should have any right over anybody else, and all of us who have any experience know that the domination of any business comes when the chain store takes ahold of it, and it is going to wipe out the men in the small town, in the towns and villages, because they will be able to do the same business and sell milk. I am going to ask you gentlemen in passing on this bill to bear in mind that you are voting against your own welfare when you are doing it. The rest of the bill I am perfectly satisfied with. It makes no difference to me. But I do say this, that it is the death knell to the men in the country districts to allow this thing to go through and to allow the chain stores to have preference over any other business.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I was just going, with the permission of the Chair, to interrogate the Senate from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, allow himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, Senator Trainer has just said in his address to the members of the Senate that this bill is an advantage to the chain stores. In other words, that they will have a decided advantage over the independent dealer throughout the state.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, that is not correct. In answer to the Senator from Huntingdon, Mr. Williamson, I wish to say it does not give any advantage to the chain stores. It merely provides that the Board of Control who will have charge of the milk industry in Pennsylvania may classify milk sheds, they may classify dealers, they may classify distributors, they may classify all of these things; and of course it is true, in direct answer to the Senator from Huntingdon, Mr. Williamson, that if this Board of Control sees fit it may allow a differential to the so-called chain stores, as mentioned by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Trainer, in that the chain stores doing a cash and carry business may charge a cent less a quart. And in that connection, Mr. President, I want to say that I am not in the milk business. I am not any more a farmer, although I was raised on a farm. I am not a distributor. But in preparing this bill the committee that has been investigating this subject has worked hard over almost a year, and we have tried to frame a bill which would be fair not only to the milk dealers but to the farmers, and we have also had in mind the consumers, the people who pay for the milk. Mr. President, I hold no brief for the chain stores. I represent none of them. I have no interest in them. But it has appealed to this committee that if a man wanted to go to the store and carry his milk home there is no reason why he should not have the opportunity of saving a cent a quart on that milk if he saw fit to do so. This bill has been prepared with the interest of all these people at heart, and we are not trying to do anything in favor of the chain stores or any other class. It is a fair bill. It also includes the little storekeeper as well as the chain store, and there is no reason why a man who keeps a store should not be permitted to sell milk, if the Board permits, at a cent a quart cheaper than the man or the company or the milk trust, if you please, who have large expense and maintain an expensive system of delivery. If the little store on the corner as well as the chain store sees fit to sell milk to the consuming public at one cent a quart cheaper than the large dealers and milk trust can do, there is no reason in our judgment why the consumer, the poor man who maybe wants five quarts a day for his family and children should not be entitled to save that five cents a day; and there is no reason why these storekeepers should be prevented from making that differential and saving the consumer, the poor man, that cent a quart on milk sold. And it is for that reason, Mr. President, that we have inserted that clause in it, that we have fixed any differential; but we have put in the power in the Board of Control, if in their judgment they see fit, to make a preference, they may do so. And I ask this Senate to pass this bill and adopt the report of the Committee of Conference.

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, that is fine.

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, does this milk bill peg prices?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, what does the Senator from Mercer mean?

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, knows what I mean.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, this bill does not, it puts it in the Board of Control to do so, they may establish a price.

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, they may establish a price?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, I do not think that is so good.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I should like to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, whether the bill in the present form gives the Board the right to fix a differential between the price of the producer and the chain stores.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not know that I understand that question.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, says there is a differential to be allowed by the Board to the cash and carry stores so they could sell at one cent less; now I ask whether or not this Board has the right to allow a differential between the consumer from the producer to the seller in favor of chain stores.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I understand there is no reference to that, that is not limited.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the Board can make differentials to permit the producer to sell at a cheaper price to the quantity producer as against the small storekeeper, is that correct?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not think so. No, that is not correct.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, what I would like to know is, whether there is, in addition to having the opportunity to sell milk one cent cheaper to the public, the chain stores also have the privilege of buying it at one cent cheaper?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, no, that is not correct.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I would like to further interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, yes.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I would like to ask this: Whether this bill regulates in the so-called milk control the price at which milk may be sold. The reason for this question is that I am informed that the New York Milk Control bill does.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, yes, it does, it permits the Board to do so.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, when does this bill go into effect and how long will it be effective?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, it is mandatory. The Board does fix a minimum price, and it goes into effect immediately.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, there is no limit as to its duration?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, yes, there is; it expires on April 30, 1935.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I served with the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, and the Senator from Chester, Mr. Clark, on the milk investigation committee. I am going to vote for this bill but I desire to place on record at this time the feeling that I have in reference to the establishment of a Board such as this and the grant of powers that this Board has.

I feel that the situation with the farmer today, which has been clearly established, that he is selling his milk at less than the cost of production is critical. I feel that we are justified in going a long way in trying to save this industry. I feel that this bill has been prepared by men who know the milk business, with a great deal of care, and involves a great many concessions on the part of many people, and for that reason, Mr. President, I intend to vote for this bill; but I do feel that we should have it on record, and the attention of the Senate should be called to the vast powers which are given by this bill to a Board of three men. This Board can step into the whole industry and have absolute control of the whole milk industry in this state. They can tell the farmer where to sell his milk, what he may sell it for, to whom he can sell it, and can tell the producer and the distributor how he shall run his business and what the consumer shall pay.

Now, the emergency that exists in the milk industry at this time may warrant the establishment of such a Board. I rather think it does, but I think it should be made clear by those of us who are supporting this bill, because it is an emergency measure, because of the critical character and the critical situation that the producer is in, we do feel that it is a principle of government that we are setting up a bureauracy such as has never been known in the state of Pennsylvania to control any interest, and we ought to give notice to the world that this kind of legislation is only temporary to meet the emergency, and I wish to put that explanation on the record in connection with my vote.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, I would like to know whether the Department of Agriculture was represented in the preparation of this bill or what so-called organization sat in in the preparation of this bill, and I want further to know, Mr. President, how this Board originated, who appointed it?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, in answer to that last question, section four of the act, as you will note, provides that the milk control board shall consist of three members to be appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate. The bill as originally passed in the Senate provided that the Board should consist of the Secretary of Agriculture, the Secretary of Health, and that three members should be appointed by the Governor. It was felt that the duties of this Board would be so important and consume so much time of the Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of Health would not assume the burden.

Now, as to who prepared this bill, the work was done by this milk investigating committee, and I want to say here that I have had very little to do with the preparation of this bill. Senator Buckman, Senator Clark, Doctor Hoffman, Mr. Horst and Doctor Haines, the Chairman of the Agricultural Committee in the House, have worked night and day on this bill. Dr. Haines and Doctor Hoffman and Mr. Horst have given a large amount of their time to the preparation of this bill, and of course, we all know that all of these men and Senator Buckman have nothing but the interest of the producer at heart and the interest of the public at heart. They have called in representatives of the producers and representatives of the distributors and other organizations. This strike-out was made last night which has changed the control of this Board, which was not as it passed the House. In other words, as this bill passed the House the farmer, even the farmers got together and agreed upon this, and the Board steps in and tells them how to run their business. Now that is out.

Does that answer the question of the Senator from Huntingdon, Mr. Williamson?

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, there is one more question. I have not had time to read this. I would like to know whether the so-called control provision in this bill, whether there will be any charge to the shippers when shipped to, we will say, the Philadelphia district and more remote sections and the center of Pennsylvania? We ship our milk into the Philadelphia district, and I want to know how the shippers from my district will fare in this bill, whether they will be charged the freight and whether the shipper of milk out of Mr. Buckman's district, which is practically in the Philadelphia district, will have that large advantage over the shipper from the more remote district of the state?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, the Board has the right to control that. In other words, they have full power to do anything, almost anything connected with the milk industry in this state.

Mr. WILLIAMSON. Mr. President, with that assurance I am willing to vote for this bill.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator whether the only strike-out is that which has been discussed relative to cooperative store?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, that is correct. The only strike-outs are the three strike-outs in section nineteen.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I am not very familiar with this milk proposition; I have been off the milk question since long before the adoption of the Eighteenth Amendment; so that, I cannot talk very much about it; but there has been an effort here to make the chain store the "big, bad wolf" of this program.

Now, the chain store,—and I know a little something about the stores in Philadelphia,—are just a small proportion of the number of stores that handle milk, and the chain stores, as a rule, are not in very poor sections. In the very poor sections you have the little corner grocery stores, and if these grocers on these little corners can sell to their poor neighbors, who are willing to go and carry their milk home, and thus save a few pennies for the family exchequer, that becomes direct relief.

We are all crying "direct relief". That is direct relief, and those of us who want to stay in our apartments and have de luxe service ought to be willing to pay a little bit more for our milk than the poor fellow who sends his children or his wife to this little corner store and take their two or three quarts of milk each day; and these poor people drink milk and not so much cream.

So that is direct relief. And the "big, bad wolf" in this whole proposition, as I have seen it, is these cooperative corporations handling milk. They were established for the benefit of the farmer; today they are nothing more nor less than milk trusts; and the little farmer has little or nothing to say.

I think if this bill so works out that the little corner grocery store can save something for its poor neighbor, it is a good proposition for the poor people.

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, In answer to the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, on the power of the Board, I desire to offer these amendments—

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, my point of order is that amendments cannot be offered to the report of a conference committee.

The PRESIDENT. The chair rules that the point of order is well taken.

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, then I would like to submit the proposition that what is good for the goose is good for the gander.

The PRESIDENT. The report of the Committee of Conference is before the Senate only. Whether the Senate will adopt this report or not is a question for the Senate.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I want to say just one word in conclusion after all that has been said on this matter. There has been a consistent and persistent lobby during this entire Extraordinary Session. This bill has been framed honestly and conscientiously. It has been framed in the interest of the farmer, the man who milks the cow, with due regard for the interest of the middle man, including the milk trust. This is a relief measure, it is an emergency measure it is true; but it contains unusual power to the Board. But we believe, those of us who have served on this committee and have heard the testimony believe it is necessary business legislation, and I ask the Senate to adopt this report of the Committee of Conference.

The PRESIDENT. The question is on the adoption of the report of the Committee of Conference.

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, I want to say to the farmer members who may be present that I happen to be an individual who milked the cow and followed the plow myself, and I am still doing it, and I am not speaking to hurt the farmer, but I am speaking to protect the small dealer. As Senator Buckman says, this bill has been given a great deal of consideration. There is no doubt about it. Within the last three weeks a gentleman appeared in the House who was asked who he represented, and he represented a body of Philadelphia business men to take care of their interests, and they have taken care of the interests of the chain stores against the poor man of Philadelphia.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I read this bill when it first came over, and I think I am somewhat familiar with it. I want to say this is one of the most universal and important steps we have taken. I do not think we ought to be misled, and I agree with the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, that there is great power given the Board. The power is not in the hands of the Senate but in the hands of the people who are going to enforce the law. I am sorry this is not a vote asking for the advice and consent of the Senate, for I am sure you would only be asked for consent and not advice. I am sure the people are interested in placing the responsibility where it belongs, on someone who can give the time and give the thought to it and see what is needed to work out for all parties interested in this matter, and if the results are not satisfactory it will not be the fault of the Senate, but it will be the fault of the people behind the work of the Senate, and not our advice.

Mr. TRAINER. Mr. President, may I ask a ruling on the question of what is good for the goose is good for the gander?

The PRESIDENT. The question is on the adoption of the report of the Committee of Conference.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate adopt the report?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I want to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that this is a question of approving the joint resolution to the Constitution of the United States on the matter of the employment of persons under eighteen years of age.

The reason I am calling your attention to this is that there is a similar bill on third reading in the House and I would like the Senate to pass this bill, because it is possible that over in the House they think we are going to pass it and the y may drop their end of it and as a result of that, they may not pass the House bill. QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, yesterday, when I arose on a matter of personal privilege, I had concluded that I would not ask any further time of the Senate, but in view of the statement, under a question of personal privilege, made by the Senator from Warren, Mr. Chapman, last night, and in view of the vote taken yesterday, and the proceedings connected therewith, on a motion to discharge the Committee on Executive Nominations, I feel that before this session adjourns something should be said in defense of the majority action.

I want to say that in addressing the Senate at this time I shall not engage in any personalities or question the motives of any Senator. I believe that every Senator who voted yesterday afternoon voted his convictions, and voted what he regarded to be in the interest of the Commonwealth. But during the remarks of the distinguished Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, some legal propositions were set forth with which I cannot agree.

I have before me a clipping from the Philadelphia Ledger of last evening which purports to contain those remarks, and, addressing myself entirely to the legal propositions involved, I desire to call attention to some statements which were made.

The distinguished Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, said "But, Mr. President, in the present instance it is not a Legislative bill which the Committee on Executive Nominations has under consideration. This committee is arresting the processes of administration by withholding legal status from the members of a supremely important division of the State Government."

The last expression of the Courts on that proposition is contained in the case of Commonwealth v. King, 312 Pa-412, and in delivering the opinion of the Court, Chief Justice Frazer said, "Unless compelled by its phraseology, we should not adopt a construction of the statute which might produce relaxation in the honest and fearless performance of the duties of the commission in hope of approval by the Senate or in dread of disapproval. Such mischief, even if improbable, will be avoided by giving the words their ordinary meaning. The Senate has the power to veto an appointment, but, if made when the Senate is not in session, the Senate must act on the appointment 'when convened,' or the right to the office ceases with the adjournment of the Senate."

I therefore disagree, on the authority of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, that the Senate was arresting in any way the orderly performance of the duties of the Public Service Commission. The law, as settled in Commonwealth v. King, is very clear. The Committee on Executive Nominations had before it a matter of discretion, viz: whether it was wise to put those nominations to a vote or to allow this session to close without their being acted upon; because by adopting the latter course those commissions automatically expire and the Governor is free to appoint them again or to appoint others, as in his discretion he may choose. I therefore say that the action of the Senate cannot, under the words of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, be taken as arresting in any way the work of the commission.

The Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, says, "Appointment is an executive function." I immediately went to my office to see whether I had forgotten what little law I thought I knew. I have before me Corpus Juris, Volume 12, and the statement is made on page 898 that "Under the American system of government the chief executive has no prerogative powers, but is confined to the exercise of those powers conferred upon him by the constitution and statutes." A leading case quoted in the foot note on page 899, happens to be a Tennessee case, but it is so clear on the fundamental principle involved that I wish to quote from it briefly.

It was said, "The chief executive has no prerogative powers, as in monarchical governments, but only such as are vested in him by the fundamental law. The constitutions of the original States, first adopted, vested most of the appointing power in the legislative department, and very little of importance in the chief executive, doubtless guarding against its abuse, from which they had recently suffered under the government of England." And, I might add, as the people of Pennsylvania are suffering at the present time.

The Court concluded, "We think, from a general review of the authorities, that it is now established that under the American form of government the power of election or appointment to office is a political power, not inherently legislative, executive or judicial, but which may be vested with equal propriety in either of them, and that it is so treated and applied in a majority of the states."

Under the uniform decisions of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania the supreme power in this State is legislative power. I need only to quote from Liken's Appeal, 223 Pa. 456: "The constitution allows the legislature every power which it does not positively prohibit." Or, as stated in the syllabus, "Whatever the people have not, by their constitution, restrained themselves from doing, they, through their representatives in the legislature, may do. This latter body represents their will just as completely as a constitutional convention in all matters left open by the written constitution."

That has always been the law in Pennsylvania. Now, what does the Constitution of Pennsylvania say? The Constitution is the only limitation upon legislative power. Under the Constitution of Pennsylvania the Governor is delegated the right to make three appointments: the Secretary of the Commonwealth, the Attorney General of the Commonwealth and the Superintendent of Education. All other appointive power now vested in the Chief Executive in this State is but a legislative grant; it can be, at any time, withdrawn from the Governor of the Commonwealth by legislative power. Therefore, this statement of the distinguished Senator from Cumberland, largely circulated in the press, I think should be corrected on the floor of the Senate.

The distinguished Senator from Cumberland also says, "The participation of the Senate is incidental and secondary. The Senate would be within its technical rights in refusing its assent, but unless it had good and sufficient reason it could hardly escape the approbrieum of deliberate obstruction."

We are not here dealing with an ordinary appointment but with an appointment to the Public Service Commission, an arm of the legislative branch, and I think it is well for the Senate to consider what the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania said in Commonwealth v. Benn, 284 Pa-421. I quote from the opinion of the Court: "The chief, primary and predominant work of the Public Service Commission is the determining of questions relating to rates, and almost every other duty performed by that body is either directly or indirectly connected with this primary service. Originally, state legislatures passed statutes fixing prices, or rates, to be charged by public service companies. The courts could decide whether a specific price charged under certain circumstances was reasonable, but they could not prescribe rates for the future. The immemorial and exclusive right of legislatures to fix rates for future application was upheld in Munn v. Illinois, 94 U. S. 113. To meet the demands of the great industrial age in which we are living, the Federal Interstate Commerce Commission arose, and also the public service commissions of the various states of the Union; for it became generally recognized that, for practical reasons, the legislative functions of fixing rates and otherwise supervising public service corporations would have to be exercised by such bodies, and this passing on of authority was sanctioned by the courts as an exception to the general rule that legislative power cannot be delegated."

The same Court, after citing many cases, said "The above cases, to which a host of others, equally strong, might be added, demonstrate that public service commissioners must be viewed as deputies of the general assembly to perform legislative work; and since, in the words of our Superior Court, the commissioners are the 'representatives of the legislature and not of . . . . . the executive,' the legislature might, as before said, have named them directly."

The law as I understand it, in view of repeated decisions of our Courts, is that Public Service Commissioners are servants of the Legislature, and the only function which the Chief Executive possesses is the duty to appoint, and he acts as the agent of the Legislature in making that appointment. And, lest there be any question on that proposition, I again quote from the latest case, that of Commonwealth v. King, wherein the Supreme Court said, speaking through the present Chief Justice, "Having made an appointment in the discharge of his agency, the Governor could do nothing further until the legislature acted on the person he had appointed; . . . . . " Therein, we have a clear expression that the Governor is but the agent of the legislature.

In the course of his remarks the Senator from Cumberland, Mr. Prince, said, "If the committee refuses to act and the Senate ignores the issue, it can scarcely fail to be regarded not only as a discourtesy to the Chief Executive but as a mistake in political strategy."

Mr. President, when I cast my vote I had no thought of political strategy. Other Senators can answer for themselves as to the question of discourtesy to the Chief Executive. But I ask, in all seriousness, is the Senate of Pennsylvania to be bound by the requests or demands of its agent? That is the question which was answered by the vote of yesterday.

As I have said, and I repeat, I do not question the motives or the patriotism of any Senator who cast a vote, but last night the distinguished Senator from Warren arose in his place and charged that he had voted under a threat of punishment from the Chief Executive of this Commonwealth; and there is not a man on the floor of the Senate of Pennsylvania who does not know what a threat of punishment means.

I say, never has the time arisen, in the legislative history of Pennsylvania, when this body should stand more unitedly for its rights under the constitution, as defined by the Supreme Court of the Commonwealth. There must be no coercion or intimidation from the Executive or the Department of Justice. And I want to pay a tribute today to the bravery and the patriotism of the distinguished Senator from Warren, who, under the conditions stated by him and under his oath of office, voted as a Senator of Pennsylvania and not merely as a weakling following executive dictation.

And I also want to say, in closing, that in my judgment the Committee on Executive Nominations, headed, as it is, by the distinguished Senator from Greene, Mr. Parkinson, has functioned well. There is not a harder working committee chairman on the floor of this Senate than the chairman of that committee. The chief function of that committee, as I see it, is to pass upon qualifications of Executive appointees, to find out if there is objection from Senators, or from other sources, to appointments which come from the Executive office; and every member of this Senate knows that with courtesy and efficiency, and with regard for the public welfare, the committee has performed that duty.

The Committee on Executive Nominations, under the Public Service Law, as construed by the Courts, had a discretion, and it was a discretion with which the Governor had no right, and has no right, to interfere. That discretion was with regard to the question of whether or not that committee, following Supreme Court decisions, should hold those nominations so that they should expire and new commissioners be appointed, or put them to a vote.

As a Senator I will not challenge, I dare not challenge, a Senator's motives when he is acting upon a matter which is purely a matter of legislative discretion. However, I believe that that committee, every member of that committee, acted from the highest motives, and in a manner which they regarded to be for the best interests of the Commonwealth.

I want to thank you, gentlemen of the Senate, for permitting me to trespass upon your time. I have asked your indulgence only because I believe that on the records of the Senate there should be entered a defense of the Committee on Executive Nominations, and of the Senators who, under their oath of office, cast their votes against discharging that committee.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Mercer, Mr. Fay, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. FAY. Mr. President, I would like to explain my vote on the question of confirmation of Executive Nomination yesterday. I have always been very much opposed to His Excellency, and opposed to giving him the hire and fire power; and especially was I opposed to it when he came into my district and wanted to hire and fire.

He said, if only he had the power to hire and fire, this Commonwealth—well, I do not think we would be taxed any more, and everything would be just lovely,—if only he had the power to hire and fire.

Yesterday, under a misapprehension,—and I did not realize what I was doing until later,—I accorded him that privilege. In other words, had we confirmed this nomination, he would have had that hire and fire privilege, because this Public Service Commissioner would have been in office for the next ten years; and under a misapprehension I voted to give His Excellency that power.

I am not apologizing,—because I do not do that very frequently; but I am just explaining how I, under a misapprehension, voted to give him the hire and fire privilege which I am against. I would like to have that on the record.

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the amendments?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, Senate Bill No. 125, as amended by the House, is now in the same condition, by virtue of these amendments, as it was in before it left the Senate, except that the reference to Section 204, which was originally in that bill, has been striken out by the amendments in the Senate.

That was done because Section 204 had been amended under House Bill No. 212; and therefore this bill, Senate Bill No. 125, meets with the approval of the committee and of the sponsor of the bill, at whose request I am making these statements.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, as a matter of information, I desire to know what this bill is.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, Senate Bill No. 125 gives the privilege to banks to join the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, removes the restriction of one-third cash capital required; and it makes minor changes with reference to affiliates and mergers and consolidations. Other than that it does nothing to the old law of May 15, 1933.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, further than that, I would like to say that it clarifies the State law to conform to national legislation passed since our last session

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate concur in the amendments?

SENATE MESSAGE

CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 10.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 4, 1933.

Urging that a suitable part of public employment be given to physically handicapped persons

Whereas The employment of crippled and other physically handicapped Persons in tasks which they are competent to perform is in accord with a wise social economy and was so recognized by the State of Pennsylvania in 1919 when it led other States of the Union in establishing a Division for the Vocational rehabilitation and placement of Disabled Persons and

Whereas In recent years the tendency to discriminate against the employment of physically handicapped persons has been increasing as a result of certain general industrial policies rather than diminishing as a social good requires and

Whereas A greater recognition of the physically handicapped in public employment would be beneficial both as an equitable course in itself and as setting an example for private industry and business

Now Therefore Be It Resolved By the House of Representatives of the State of Pennsylvania the Senate concurring that the appointing authorities in every State department and in every county city and town be urged to give consideration to the suitable employment of crippled and other physically handicapped persons to the end that a fair proportion shall be represented in public employment and that all rules and policies in conflict therewith be revised

CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 24.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 18, 1933.

Whereas The rapid improvement of the highways of the Commonwealth and the greatly increased traffic thereon has resulted in a deplorable number of accidents and a consequent loss of life and property and

Whereas This loss to the Commonwealth could be made less by a more thorough and continuous supervision of traffic on the highways by the Motor Patrol which within its means has in the past prevented many accidents and afforded valuable aid to those injured in collisions and

Whereas Many members of the Motor Patrol have been assigned to tasks other than those for which they were originally intended thereby reducing the number available for patrol duty on the highways and

Whereas The necessary thorough and continuous patroling of the highways by these capable employes of the Commonwealth can only be secured by increasing the number of men to be assigned to this duty and

Whereas The unprecedented increase in mileage of improved highways during the past few years makes necessary such an increase therefor be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That it is the opinion of this General Assembly that consideration should be given by

His Excellency the Governor during the next budget period to allowing a substantial increase in the appropriation to be made by the Commonwealth for this purpose to the end that a sufficient number of men can be assigned for patroling the highways in order to prevent accidents and the loss of life and property attendant thereon and be it further

Resolved That a copy of this resolution be handed to the Governor of the Commonwealth as the recommendation of the General Assembly

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON SENATE BILL No. 35

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate insists on its nonconcurrence in the amendments made and insisted upon by the House of Representatives to Senate Bill No. 35, entitled:

An Act relating to milk and the products thereof declaring an emergency with respect to their production and marketing creating a Milk Control Board establishing its jurisdiction powers and duties regulating the production transportation manufacture processing storage distribution delivery and sale of milk and the products thereof providing for the licensing of milk dealers and the payment of fees therefor requiring licensees to furnish bonds for the protection of producers authorizing the examination of the business papers and affairs of and requiring the filing of reports by licensees other milk dealers and producers and permitting with limitations the dissemination of information obtained therefrom authorizing the issuance of subpoenas by the Board or its agents and conferring jurisdiction upon courts to punish contempts or to prohibit violations of orders of the Board providing for appeals to the courts from decisions of the Milk Control Board imposing penalties and making an appropriation

And has appointed Messrs. Buckman, Owlett and Clark a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives (if the House of Representatives shall appoint such committee) on the subject of the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, I move that a Committee of Conference be appointed to confer with a similar Committee on the part of the Senate.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HUTTON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if the Senate eliminated the amendments that he offered to the bill.

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, in answering the interrogation of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, I would state that Senate Bill No. 35 went over from the House to the Senate with certain amendments and the Senate refused to concur in those amendments.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, in the opinion of the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, would it not be better to be without a bill than concur with what the Senate did.

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, in answering the interrogation of the gentleman from Philadelphia, I would say that in my opinion, it would be much better to have a joint committee of conference which would confer for the purpose of ascertaining whether the differences between the two chambers could not be adjusted.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, would not that committee delay this session probably all night.

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker, answering the interrogation of the gentleman from Philadelphia, I will state that in my opinion there will be very little delay. I think we can get together very shortly.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON SENATE BILL No. 35

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a Committee of Conference Messrs. Haines, Hutton and Horst.

Ordered, That the clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McCREARY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to voice a protest against the enactment of this bill. I have voted against the amendments, and now I am going to vote against this bill. I know that you will say that any amendment to the Constitution which was carried by a mandate of the people should become a law. I have heard that word "mandate" so many times in this session, and every time I heard it I wanted to ask someone in authority who knew what that word meant. How many people make a mandate, or how many people does it take to make a mandate. I have asked that question again and again and have had no answer to my question.

I know how many men it takes in this House to make a mandate, one more than a majority. If that were to be true in the State, then for the last five years the people of this State have never given anybody a mandate to do anything, for never in that time has there been a majority of one vote on any question, so that I feel that this statement that this is a mandate of the people of the State is a mistake, and therefore I have no reason to obey it. This bill changes a principle that has been in effect for one hundred and fifty years, or ever since the inauguration of government in this nation, and now you are going to scrap it. You know and I know that the reason for the greatness and the prosperity and the wonders of this nation is because of the earnest, hard-working intelligent people. They put this requirement in their early law. They organized a representative government and established this system of representative government "Of, by and for the people." The very first principle of democratic government is that of majority rule, and we find out that majority rule by the counted vote. They established a system of voting and they called you to the polls to do two things, to be counted automatically, and to express an opinion "yes" or "no" on the question at issue, and for that privilege they charged you a small fee, a county tax or a poll tax, or whatever you wanted to call it. You have paid it for the last one hundred and fifty years with no objection. It is so small that you don't take it into account. Why should you scrap that? Why don't you continue to pay this small fee for American citizenship? Every man in this House belongs to one or more clubs. You know that these clubs are sustained by the dues you pay, and if you don't pay your dues, your name is cancelled and you become a discredited club member. You don't have to stretch your imagination very far to see that you are a club member of American citizenship.

You have always had a small charge or dues, and you paid it. If you didn't pay it, you could not vote, and therefore you were a discredited citizen. Some were so small that you could easily sacrifice a few cigars or a gallon of gasoline to pay these dues, and there is no reason under Heaven why these dues should not be paid. We are all charter members of the grand club of American citizenship. You who are old enough to have gone to the country school remember that picture that hung on the wall of that group of American citizens dressed as Indians who went on board ship in Boston harbor and who launched that principle, "Taxation without representation is tyranny." You all know that that was the first articulate cry of the American Nation, and you know that this Nation has grown strong and sturdy because of this very principle. Now, do you want to change your slogan and say that we shall have representation without taxation. I say to you that that means bankruptcy, and I think it is a shame and a disgrace that the people of this State have voted to revoke that one hundred and fifty year old mandate, that a member in good standing of the club of American citizenship should pay his annual dues. Is it not worth that much to be a member of this club? I say "yes." Gentlemen, I am going to vote "no" and I hope you do the same thing.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I don't think it is necessary to speak for this bill. I think a casual reading of the bill is all that is necessary to answer the question raised by the gentleman from Erie County. On November 7th of this year the electors of this Commonwealth decided on a Constitutional Amendment eliminating the tax paying qualifications for voting. The purpose of this act is to amend the Act of 1874, in order to clear up the election laws which are printed in the different pamphlets handed out to the Judges of Elections and the Election Boards. We are not doing anything more in this Act than to clarify the election laws of Pennsylvania pursuant to the mandate of the people of this Commonwealth when they voted to amend the Constitution on November 7th of this year, eliminating the payment of taxes as a qualification for voters.

I ask you members to support this measure.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I vote "no" and file the following reasons:

My reason for voting against the Senate Bill No. 47 known as so called Child Labor Amendment:

If Congress should decide to adopt the maximum 18 year age limit of the amendment for all kinds of employment, it would inflict a totally unjustified hardship on thousands of families in my district who have children employed between 16 and 18 years of age who are the only support of their families. If the age was 16 years I would be glad to support this Child Labor Amendment and would vote for its adoption.

MEMBER REPORTED PRESENT

The SPEAKER. The Chair is glad to welcome the return of the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Lose, and trusts he is in better health. The records will be changed to note his presence.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

An Act to protect the owners of mortgaged property during the present emergency by limiting the amount of deficiency judgments during a certain period

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That whenever any real property is sold on any execution on the foreclosure of any mortgage or on a judgment entered on any obligations secured by mortgage and the sum for which such property was sold is not sufficient to satisfy the debt interest and costs the plaintiff or use plaintiff shall within six months after such sale petition the court out of which such writ of execution issued to fix the fair value of the property sold At least ten days' notice of the presentation of such petition shall be given to the defendant or defendants and to all parties whose interest appears on the record Such petition shall be heard by a judge of such court sitting without a jury or may by rule adopted by such court be referred to a master for hearing and determination subject to confirmation by the court Provided That the fee of any such master shall in no case exceed one hundred dollars nor the costs of any proceedings before a master the sum of fifty dollars

At all such hearings any party in interest may introduce in evidence testimony of the fair value of the premises sold at the time of the sale In the event that the fair value so determined is greater than the price for which the property was sold the amount of such fair value shall be deducted from the amount of the judgment interest and costs and a deficiency judgment entered for the balance

If the plaintiff or use plaintiff shall fail to present such petition within six months after such sale the prothonotary shall upon application of the defendant or other party in interest enter satisfaction of such judgment Such satisfaction shall have the effect of terminating as well the liability of all persons bound by any obligation securing the payment of such mortgage debt

The defendant in the foreclosure proceedings or judgment or the real owner of the property sold or any other person or persons bound by any obligation securing the payment of the said mortgage debt or other person in interest may at any time after the sale petition the court in like manner to fix the fair value of the property sold and shall give to the plaintiff and use plaintiff at least ten days' notice of the presentation of such petition whereupon the court shall determine the fair value in the same manner as hereinbefore provided in the case of a petition by the plaintiff or use plaintiff

In either case whether the petition is presented by the plaintiff or use plaintiff or by the defendant or other party in interest any party may during the period of notice required by this act demand a jury trial whereupon the fair value of the property shall be determined and fixed by a jury trial as in other cases.

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby suspended during the period this act shall remain in effect

STATEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to lay before the House certain information. During this Extraordinary Session there were introduced in the House 214 bills, and in the Senate 109 bills, making a total of 442 bills. The House considered on the floor 93 of the House bills and 57 of the Senate bills. The number of House bills going to the Governor were 26, and the number of Senate bills were 22, making a total of 48. The number of House bills defeated was 8 and the number of Senate bills defeated was 1. The number of House bills approved by the Governor was 6, and the number of Senate bills approved by the Governor were 4, making a total of 10, and at the present time there are 38 bills in the hands of the Governor.

The Chair at this time desires to pay, what in his opinion, is a just tribute to the members of this House of Representatives. It is my opinion that this Session has made history, because during my time this is the first time that in the first week of the session the members were willing to stay over until Thursday for the sake of considering serious business. It was necessary because legislation governing liquor control had to be enacted before December 5th. The members of this House have labored hours on the floor as well as hours in the Committee Rooms. The public in general, not knowing legislative procedure, believe that the time we spent on this floor is the only time devoted to State business. It is the wish of the Chair that in the days to come the press will realize the time that is given by the members to State business, and will, through their papers, give the people the true picture.

It is the hope of the Chair that as we go our various ways today, that the members may have a joyful Christmas Season and that the affairs of the state and national government will become brighter as the new New Year comes in and that, if it is the wish of these members assembled here today to return to the halls of the House in 1935, then the Chair hopes that the wishes of the members will come true.

The Chair now humbly and gratefully thanks the members of this body for the careful consideration you have given to the Chair. This has been a somewhat turbulent session but you may all go home with the proud thought that we have done the best we could under the conditions under which we labored.

The Chair again thanks the members, first for the honor you have given me, and second, for the support with which you have rewarded me in the session.

Mr. HUTTON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as one of the committee of conference, I think that an explanation is due the members relative to the report, insomuch as it has been printed and placed upon your desks.

The strikeouts are wholly confined to section 19, relative to the cooperative associations and corporations.

The amendments which were inserted by the House were stricken out in the conference report.

RESOLUTION

CONGRATULATING SPEAKER

Mr. BALDI. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, you all heard the Speaker refer to the arduous task that we have just gone through, and as one of the results of it my throat has given away.

I stand here this morning with a great deal of pleasure. I have sat in this hall under the guidance of many speakers but I feel safe in saying that of all those under whom I have sat the present speaker, Grover C. Talbot stands in the lead.

Mr. Talbot has had a condition here that I am positive no other Speaker has ever had, and I am sure that everyone of us as members of this House feels that during the carrying out of that task he has never slighted a member, he has never struck the gavel unless he meant what he said, and I know of no instance where he hurt the feelings of any member.

Mr. Talbot has worked hard. He has handled situations here that none of us could have handled better had we prepared years ago. Mr. Talbot has handled the rostrum perfectly and at this time it gives me great pleasure to present this resolution.

The Speaker. The Chair desires the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Hutton, to preside over the deliberations of the body.

MR. HUTTON IN THE CHAIR

The resolution was read by the clerk as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 21, 1933.

The fair, impartial and courageous administration of the business of this House during this Special Session has most convincingly justified the wisdom of its choice of a Speaker.

A session, conspicuous for its new alignments and for its sturdy and honest divergence of view and for its adventurous spirit, leading into new paths of legislation, called for the highest quality of leadership and the call was well answered.

There can be no criticism of his official conduct, and at the close of this session, the House finds itself more than ever indebted to him for the manner in which he has presided, for the help he has been to the Members, and for his fairness at all times.

His gavel silenced no rightful protest, stilled no voice raised in the cause of justice, but ever maintained the dignity of the chamber and expedited its business; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House extends to its Speaker, the Hon. Grover C. Talbot, not only its thanks for his fairness and consideration but as well its congratulations for the masterful manner in which he conducted its business, and extends also to him its very best wishes for a very happy Christmas and a New Year filled with ever increasing happiness and prosperity; and be it further

Resolved, That this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House of Representatives, and a copy thereof be furnished to the said Hon. Grover C. Talbot, its Speaker.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I hope the House will be patient with me a minute while I speak on this resolution. I hope and I know you probably do too, that this will be the last time that I ever speak to the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania.

I want to say one word on this resolution, because I have had the pleasure a number of times of presenting and seconding the nomination of Speakers and I want to express my appreciation, and I know I speak the sentiment of the House for the manner in which the Speaker has conducted himself.

At the time when we nominated him, there were many pleasant things stated about the present Speaker of the House, and at that time I spoke just before Mr. Turner, and I said to the members of the House that while Mr. Talbot was all the things that were said about him, pleasant and cordial he was also a leader, a man with decided views who would stand by his views. He has not only stood by his views, but he has led this House through a very turbulent session with fairness not only to the majority but also to the minority in the House, so that he has won their friendship and respect.

As I stand here the last time, I would like to say to the House and to the people of Pennsylvania in these turbulent times that we need men of character and decision, that we need men who can cooperate not only with their faction, but with all factions. There is in Pennsylvania, in my judgment, no man who would make a better public servant in a state wide office than the present Speaker of the House.

It has been my own thought and my own hope that the next time the Legislature of Pennsylvania meets, the present Speaker possibly would be presiding over the body which meets at the other end of the Capitol, but other than a presiding officer I have had an opportunity as a member of the Rules Committee to find out the calibre of the leadership of the Speaker. I have had an opportunity to find out that he has set principles, that he has set ideas of what should be done, and with the courage to carry them out, but in carrying them out, none of us can say that he would not listen. I want to pay him the compliment now that while he is a man of fixed convictions, while he is a partisan, who follows along with the crowd that he is associated with, yet he is the easiest man that I have ever done business with, to suggest an idea and to listen and to change his opinion if he thinks that is the wise thing to do.

I want to say to the members of this House and to the people of Pennsylvania that in these troublesome times we need strong men, men of conviction, men who have ideals and who have the nerve, courage and sinew to stand by them, that I do not know of any better public servant whom they could put in office than the present Speaker of this House, and as I leave here, I want to pay my tribute of respect and admiration. I do not need to give my respectful affection to the Speaker, because I did it long before he was Speaker of this House, but I say now that my party and the people of Pennsylvania generally have no men that they could put in public office, have no man that they could entrust with their business in these times, who could do it better, do it with more insight into the affairs of Pennsylvania, more courage, more willingness to listen to whoever brought him an idea, and then to do what he thought was the right thing, than the man who is now finishing up as Speaker of this House, and I recommend him to the people of Pennsylvania. I know that if he were chosen for public office, he would have the admiration and the respect of the people of Pennsylvania, as he now has of those who have served under him in this House.

Mr. DAVID R. PERRY. Mr. Speaker and Mr. Grover C. Talbot, in seconding the resolution of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Baldi, I am mindful of the fact that not so many months ago this same body voiced the same sentiments of esteem for the Speaker as they do today. I am also mindful of the fact that words cannot express our sincere and heartfelt appreciation.

Coming back on November 13th, it seemed to me that this House, by virtue of the proclamation of the Chief Executive, was in the position of a ship being launched on an uncharted sea, where the ports were unknown, and on every side of the ship were the dangers, shoals, storms, things that threatened to destroy. The crew, the members of this House, had their different ideas of the ports to which we would sail, had different ideas of handling the ship, but when it is all said and done the only man responsible for the success of the voyage is the captain of the ship, and so to that man, in the form of Grover C. Talbot, for ability, fairness and courage in bringing the ship and perhaps a discordant crew into the port of Success, I pay my appreciation, and I say to Grover C. Talbot just these lines of Kipling's in his wonderful poem "If."

> "If you can keep your head when all about you
> Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
> If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
> But make allowance for their doubting too;
> x x x x x x
> Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
> And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son."

I say with Kipling the man who can do that the world belongs to him, and what's more, he is a man.

I take a great pleasure in seconding that resolution, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it gives me a great deal of pleasure also to second the resolution of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Baldi. I am tempted to believe, however, that this action at the close of the Extraordinary Session is similar to the act of offering flowers to the deceased. I feel in that respect that we as members are a trifle late. I should like to see us offer our flowers at the proper time, by ceasing our conversation and generally making the trials and tribulations of the Speaker to a reasonable degree more pleasant. I say that by reason of the fact that few of us, if we do not stop and think, seem to appreciate the tedious duties of the Speaker. He is one, we are two hundred and eight. His duty involves all of us. We feel that when we want to attract his attention he should see us the moment we arise. We should appreciate the enormous task of the Speaker, and in paying my respects to him, in addition to wishing him and his a merry Christmas and a happy New Year, I want to say too that it is an extreme pleasure, whether I live or die, whether I am here or not in the next session, the memory of the fairness of Grover Talbot shall always be to me a memory that I shall cherish.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, as one of the silent members of this House, I cannot help but seize the opportunity when these tributes and bouquets are being cast upon my colleague and friend to also say a word in his behalf. Somebody said that they thought parades for a man holding public office should not be held at the time of their inauguration, but at the end of their term, and I think that this House during the regular and this special session has given a practical illustration of the truth of that saying.

The gentleman from McKean has said that he did not expect to return, not, I know, because of the constituency of McKean County will not send him back, but because of his own determination. I think he feels that his term should end here, and what he said about the need of leadership, what he said about the need of men in reference to the Speaker, I think is also due to him. We all have our differences of opinion. It would be unusual, it would be improbable if two I think is also due to him. We all have our differences of opinion. I believe, as I know the intelligence of this House, that there is respect in the hearts of each and every one of us for those men whom we believe are useful to the people of Pennsylvania, and to our Government, whether we differ as to policy and as to our ideals of goverment. So as we go through this troublous time and we look forward to the session of 1935, I know that I voice the opinion of men of all the parties in this House, that there should be returned in 1935 the men who are willing to serve and who can serve with intelligence the people of Pennsylvania.

I want to say to you members of the House, because I could go beyond that which you can, for I lived with this man during the sessions, some has said, if you really want to know a man you must play poker with him or sleep with him, and I have had that opportunity, because we came here in 1925 and have served our constituents through five regular sessions and four special sessions of the Legislature, and I can say to you that what you have observed here of the actions of the Speaker in the Chair, the judgments and the opinions that you have formed are only a part of the measure of the man. I know the personal sacrifices, the physical sacrifices that he has made to carry on his work, not only as the Speaker, but during the terms that he has served on the floor of this House. I know the intense personal interest he has taken, I know how willingly he has taken up the cudgles for you men, no matter whether you be of his party or some other party. I know that you are representatives here as a whole, not partisan representatives, and that he has viewed your needs; he has viewed your comforts, as he has viewed the things that you should do and he measured them not with a partisan eye, but with a nonpartisan eye, and with a friendly eye and with a feeling in his heart of respect and love for you men for the manner in which you have treated him.

So I want to add, Mr. Speaker, these few humble words on my part. I want to say what my friend, the gentleman from McKean, has already said that I believe there is a future ahead for you in the Pennsylvania, and I believe the people can rest confident that no matter in what position we place the Speaker, he will always carry it as he has here with a high spirit of trust.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am not in a position to make a nominating speech or to second one, but I do feel that it is my duty as one of a very small minority in this House to express my keen appreciation of the fairness and the just manner in which Grover C. Talbot has acted as Speaker of this House. Even when he knew only too well that members of this House were prepared to do things of which he did not approve, to advance measures with which he did not favor he gave them every opportunity that he would have given his best friends who were advancing things that were nearest to his heart. I feel I can add nothing to that, but it is my duty to say that much. I wish you God speed.

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. Speaker and fellow members of the Legislature, I have been associated for a little more than sixty years with public gatherings, and have noted with a great deal of interest the character of the presiding officer. I want to say today as I endorse what has been said by those who preceeded me, that I have never seen dignity and humor so well blended as in the present Speaker of this legislative body. I further want to say to you that I have never seen a presiding officer who has done it as perfectly as has Grover C. Talbot.

Mr. WELSH. Mr. Speaker, I too, wish to pay tribute to the splendid character of the Speaker of the House, the Honorable Grover C. Talbot. He has not only been fair but courageous and patient. There were times in this House when the request for a roll call seemed unnecessary and it was granted. And there were times when certain members deemed it advisable to ask for a verification of the roll and the roll was verified. But on this particular occasion no verification is necessary on the resolution before the House as it will unanimously be adopted as a tribute to the ablest and finest Speaker that has ever graced the Speaker's Chair. We wish him many, many merry Christmases and happy New Years.

The SPEAKER (Mr. Hutton). Before placing the resolution before the House, the present presiding officer feels he would certainly be remiss if it did not add just a word of hearty concurrence to that which has been so well expressed by the several speakers upon the resolution.

As you all know, our beloved Speaker and the person now presiding have been closely associated in the work of this House, and in going through memory for an apt quotation I can only think of this one:

"None knew him but to love him
None knew him but to praise."

Relative to his rulings here in the Chair and relative to his life, I can only recall to your minds the remarks of Abou ben Adhem that he made to the Recording Angel when he said: "Put me down as one who loves his fellow-men" and I think that is peculiarly apt and appropriate to our beloved Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

THE SPEAKER (GROVER C. TALBOT) IN THE CHAIR.

The SPEAKER. The Speaker can only say, I thank you.

RESIGNATION OF HONORABLE JOHN J. KANE.

Mr. JOHN J. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is with regret that I tender to you my resignation as a member of this honorable body. You no doubt know that I have been elected a member of the City Council of the City of Pittsburgh, and under the law I cannot serve in two legislative bodies, and in handing this resignation to you, I want to say to you, Mr. Speaker, and to every member of this House, that I deeply regret that I have to leave this body.

While I have differed with you at various times on different subjects and on different policies, there is not a single member of this House for who I do not have the highest respect. I have enjoyed the association and the courtesy with which you have treated me.

In conclusion, I want to add to the remarks of the members that spoke on the previous resolution. I want to say to this House, what I have said to my friends privately, that I do not know of any abler man in the Republican Party than the Speaker of this House. I have attended the sessions of the General Assembly many years, not as a member, but as a visitor. I have seen Speakers preside over this House, and I do not know of any man who has given to the new members of this House more courtesy, more help, and more patience than the present Speaker, and I want to say to him, that if I never see him again that I appreciate the friendship that has been established, and if he should visit our city I would welcome him as a visitor. I say the same to every member of this House, and I sincerely regret that I now have to present this resignation to you.

Tht SPEAKER. The Chair accepts the resignation. It will be noted in the Journal and printed in full in the Legislative Journal.

December 19, 1933.

Hon. Grover C. Talbot,
Speaker of the House of Representatives,
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

My Dear Mr. Speaker:

Having been elected a member of Council of the City of Pittsburgh, the duties of which office I am compelled to assume on the first Monday of January, 1934, I hereby tender my resignation as a Member of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to become effective on December 31, 1933.

Very truly yours,
JOHN J. KANE.
Sixth Legislative District,
County of Allegheny.

RESIGNATION OF HONORABLE THOMAS J. GALLAGHER.

Mr. THOMAS J. GALLAGHER. Mr. Speaker, I too want to present my resignation. I want to express the same thoughts as have been expressed by my colleague, Mr. Kane, from Allegheny.

While I never attended a session of this body before I came down here as an elected representative, I want to say that it has been a new experience to me, and the friends that I have gained here will profit me in my future life. I want to express my sincere appreciation to each and every member of this House for the courtesies extended to me and also to the Speaker of this House, and it is with deep regret that I am now handing in my resignation.

The SPEAKER. The Chair accepts the resignation of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Gallagher. The same will be noted in the Journal and printed in full in the Legislative Journal.

December 19, 1933.

Speaker of the House of Representatives,

THANKING LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the inadequacy of the resolution, which I am about to present compels me to add to it my personal, and I am sure your personal sentiments.

It has been my great pleasure during these past two years to be thrown in contact with men in the American Legislators' Association, representing substantially every State in the Union. I have learned through that contact that many of the states do not have a Legislative Reference Bureau, that those that have such bureaus are not all equipped with efficient bill drafting service. I have also learned through that contact that the Director of our own Legislative Reference Bureau, as well as the Bureau itself, has become known as one of the first ranking Legislative Bureaus among those that exist in the states.

It is no simple matter even in normal times for a Legislative Reference Bureau to adequately interpret the legislative thought of the seasoned and experienced members of the Legislature. How much more difficult must it be in these abnormal times when we experience a great turn over in the membership of our legislative bodies, through the entrance to them of new members?

We in Pennsylvania are fortunate in that we have a Legislative Reference Bureau which not only is equipped to research legislative questions, not only equipped to test for us the legality and constitutionality of the legislative thought which we present to them, but we have also as you men well know by this time a Legislative Reference Bureau thoroughly efficient and equipped in the art, because it is an art, of bill drafting.

I have said it, and I repeat, that the quality of the statutes which we have these past many years found upon our books in no small measure is due to the careful, painstaking and efficient service rendered to us by the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau and his staff. I think that the citizens of Pennsylvania and the members of this Assembly must appreciate that service, and with these added sentiments, Mr. Speaker, I have great pleasure in presenting the following resolution.

Mr. PHILIP STERLING offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, December 21, 1933.

Resolved, That the Members of the House of Representatives extend their thanks and appreciation to the Director and other officers and employes of the Legislative Reference Bureau for the valuable assistance rendered to the House during the Extraordinary Session of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three.

THANKING REPRESENTATIVES OF THE PRESS.

Mr. LORD offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

COMMUNICATION FROM SECRETARY OF BANKING.

The SPEAKER laid before the House a communication from the Secretary of Banking in response to a resolution offered by the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Sarig, which was read by the Clerk as follows:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Department of Banking, Harrisburg, December 20, 1933.

To the Honorable Grover C. Talbot, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania:

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In compliance with File of the House of Representatives, Resolution No. 12, requesting that the Secretary of the Department of Banking furnish an explanation of the delay by the Department of Banking in liquidating closed banks and the failure of the Department to take advantage of the offer of the Federal Government, I wish to say that this resolution was answered immediately in the public press and for the records of the House of Representatives an answer is being submitted herewith.

In the first place, the Resolution infers that the Federal Government has available a loan of $100,000,000 to aid in the distribution of the funds due depositors in the closed banks of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Mortimer N. Buckner, President of the New York Trust Company and a special representative of Mr. C. B. Merriam, Chairman of the Deposit Liquidation Board, informed the Department of Banking that the United States Government will have $400,000,000 this year for loans to closed banks in the 48 States for both National and States banks. At no time has $100,000,000 ever been offered or made available to the banks in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as will be observed from the experience on loan applications as mentioned hereinafter.

Secondly, it should be pointed out that a schedule of the assets of the Bankers Trust Company of Philadelphia, our second largest closed institution, having 116,000 depositors, or about one out of every five depositors in Philadelphia, was forwarded to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for the maximum loan obtainable. These assets had a book value of $25,394,034.19, appraised at $13,154,017.18. We were offered a loan of only $750,000, which would make possible a dividend to depositors of only 2.69%.

Personally I went to Washington and demanded a review of the assets because of the ridiculousness of the loan. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation sent Examiners to the bank and upon reviewing the assets offered a net increase of $23,000. They demanded an assignment of a lien on the entire group of assets as collateral security and, of course, would have charged their fixed rate of interest. Obviously such a loan could not be accepted in the interests of the depositors.

A further attempt was made to procure money and in all 17 banks were reviewed by the Examiners of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation as test cases and on $60,515,000 book value of assets, loans totaling $3,567,459 were offered, or an equivalent of 5.9% of the book value of the assets. In other words, a loan on a ratio of collateral of approximately one to twenty. Such loans certainly offered no relief to depositors for in most of these banks dividend payments exceeding this amount have been already paid by the Department out of normal liquidations. Moreover, while the loan on the Bankers Trust Company was pending our Department collected approximately $400,000 in cash from the assets on which the Government offered only $773,000 and we still have remaining approximately $24,000,000 book value of assets with which to raise further dividend payments through liquidation.

In early October I was called to Washington to make suggestions relative to the unfreezing of deposits in closed banks and was asked to submit a report in writing so that it might be presented to the President. On the following Sunday, the President announced on the radio a new and more liberalized plan with respect to loans on the assets of closed banking institutions and three of the four suggestions made by me in my report to Washington were included in this plan.

We are informed by Washington officials that the President recognized the fact that the Reconstruction Finance Corporation was not functioning by properly aiding closed banks and that, therefore, the President determined to set up the new Deposit Liquidation Board under Mr. C. B. Merriam as Chairman. He announced that this Board was to make liberal loans based not on present distressed liquidating values but on an appraisement based on a three to five year recovery. Immediately upon the announcement of his local committees the Department of Banking had meetings with the respective Chairmen and as soon as schedules and application blanks were made available by Washington they were started in the process of preparation in each of the closed banks. At first the President's plan included only banks which had closed subsequent to January 1, 1933. This necessarily limited assistance to 16 banks under State supervision for most of our banks had closed during 1931 and 1932. I appealed to Washington for a change in this plan and yesterday I received official confirmation from the Cleveland Branch of the Deposit Liquidation Board that the policy had been changed to include all closed banks.

At the present moment we are completing applications for liberal loans at every closed institution and already three loans have been approved by the local Committees and by Washington. A number of others are now in the hands of the several Committees and daily they are being forwarded from the respective banks for the consideration of these Committees.

Ever since Washington announced its new policy, the forces in the closed banks have been working days, nights and Sundays in order to obtain the greatest possible loans in the interests of depositors.

With a new yardstick replacing the one formerly used with respect to values by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, it is confidently believed that real assistance will be obtained for Pennsylvania closed banks. Incidentally, it might be mentioned that the great States of New York and New Jersey and many others throughout the United States found it absolutely impossible to obtain loans commensurate with the values of the collateral in their closed banks and, accordingly, could not accept the meagre amounts heretofore offered. Pennsylvania, like its Sister States, could not in fairness to the interests of the depositors, accept the disproportionate amounts which formerly were offered under the old plan based upon appraisals at distressed valuations.

Everything possible is being done to cooperate with the Federal Government through its new Deposit Liquidation Board to obtain the highest number of dollars that can be made available by Washington to each closed institution.

The Department of Banking has pursued a policy of having a businesslike and orderly liquidation of the assets of closed banks and has absolutely avoided the ruthless dumping of these assets upon the market at greatly depreciated values. Even while pursuing this policy to conserve values for the greatest ultimate interests of the depositors it has liquidated into cash sufficient to pay Bills Payable owed by the banks at the time of possession of $47,591,000, Preferred Claims and Secured Deposits of $8,378,000, 319 dividend payments involving 2,331,151 individual payments to depositors amounting to $52,604,000, and has left approximately $8,184,000 which is in the process of dividend distributions.

In considering the foregoing, it should be borne in mind that the assets turned over to the Department of Banking for liquidation consisted for the most part of unhypothecated securities of a greatly depreciated value or of a non-marketable nature, of tremendous amounts of real estate for which there has been little or no market, and of slow, doubtful and bad commercial loans upon which the banks could not realize readily while the banks still remained open. Bills Payable of large amounts were owed by all of the banks and the good and liquid assets for the most part had been converted into cash and paid out to the depositors during the period when active or slow runs were in evidence in these institutions.

Although we have been operating during a period of unprecedented economic conditions, so far we have been able to liquidate 60% of the apparised value of commercial loans, 88% of the appraised value of securities, 14% of the appraised value of real estate and 25½% of the appraised value of mortgages, with a total gain in conversion amounting to $5,151,000.

Naturally the greatest problem is that of real estate where there has been little or no market during this depression. In the Philadelphia area alone our closed banks own outright in excess of 31000 properties and 23000 mortgages in addition to 1184 properties and mortgages held as collateral to loans. Among our holdings are twenty-two story office buildings, apartment houses, individual homes, farms and vacant land.

The Department of Banking has been proceeding in an efficient and businesslike manner in liquidating the assets of closed banks in a manner which would inure to the greatest interests of the depositors. Debtors have been given an opportunity to amortize their loans so that law suits would not have to be promiscuously resorted to which would have resulted in throwing into bankruptcy thousands of business organizations. Such bankruptcies would have led to increased unemployment and further distress. The benefits of the policy of the Department which has resulted in the collection of approximately $117,000,000 over and above operating costs from assets with an appraised value of less than $250,000,000 are demonstrated by the fact that the Department has retained in its possession assets of a large intrinsic value which could not be sold except at a terrific sacrifice, but on which it hopes to borrow from the United States Government under its newly announced policy of a liberalized valuation based on a three to five year recovery. The Department of Banking has endeavored to preserve such values in the belief that the ultimate recovery will greatly benefit depositors. Moreover, President Roosevelt has endorsed such a policy by holding that assets in closed banks which today can not be marketed at reasonable prices will be loaned upon by the Government so that an orderly liquidation may be followed with a view of obtaining values approximating their intrinsic worth over a period of three to five years.

Not only has the Department of Banking functioned in a businesslike manner but it has likewise set a new precedent by eliminating fees to Deputy Receivers and to attorneys, which formerly existed in the case of National and State bank liquidations, by placing them upon reasonable salaries. During a period of two years the total expenses of liquidation have amounted to only 2.7% of the book value of the assets and 4.7% of the appraised value. This is equivalent to 5.19% of the deposit liability for two years, or approximately 2½% of the deposit liability per annum.

From the foregoing it will be seen that the Department of Banking has been progressively carrying out an efficient and orderly liquidation of the assets of closed banks, and it has been cooperating to the fullest with the Deposit Liquidation Board to obtain maximum loans on the remaining assets based upon a liberal appraisal, as recently announced by President Roosevelt.

Very truly yours,

WILLIAM D. GORDON,
Secretary of Banking.

STATEMENT BY MR. McCREARY

Mr. McCREARY asked and obtained consent to make the following statement.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, some of you at least will remember at the close of last session, that out of kindness of your hearts you took up a subscription and gave me some seed potatoes. I went down in front of the House to receive them, and made a solemn pledge at that time that I would take them home, plant them, and pay part of my taxes with the results. I kept that pledge. I took them home and planted them, prepared the ground and fertilized it and I got an almanac to find the exact time of the moon to plant them and I planted them, cared for them tenderly, the sun shone on them and the rains and the dews from Heaven fell on them, and I watered them artifically, but the total result of all that tender care I hold in my hand. It is a tragedy. You are not to blame nor am I. The mistake was made in the seed.

You bought Florida seed potatoes that were immature, and they didn't have in them the necessary qualities to produce their kind, but I want to tell you that I did just as I said I would do, and I am not to be blamed for the results.

One thing more, members of the House, if you will just give me a moment's time, I was at the party last night, and in spite of the kind advice of the Speaker, I ate an apple, a banana and an orange, and I didn't sleep well, and while I was rolling back and forth, I tried to go over the events of this year, my first year in these Legislative Halls, and to be frank and honest with you, I was not very much pleased. I don't know how you feel or how you slept. I know that I didn't have very pleasant dreams. I tried to find out the outstanding things we did, or I tried to do, and you know the one thing that has been before my mind is this: The very first bill that we introduced in our regular session was one to repeal the Fourth Commandment. We practically told God that He could have the forenoon on Sunday, and that we wanted the afternoon, and that we were going to have it, and we took it. I am not proud of that. We then were called in an Extraordinary Session, and the first six bills that were introduced in this session were six bills to license the selling of poison to the people of this great State. I am not proud of that. The wise men from the north, east, south and west, two hundred and fifty-seven, came here to make wise and beneficent laws for the ten million people of this great State, and to sum it all up, we took the sacredness of their Sunday away from them, and then tried to poison them. I hope when the record of this year's legislative business goes down to your descendents and mine to read, I hope they will be as generous and kindly over the things we did not do as possible.

I thank you.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman from Erie will be spread upon the Journal.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill together with the amendments be laid upon the table.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker——

The SPEAKER. The Chair asks the gentleman from Erie for what purpose does he arise. A motion is not debatable.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, my intention in rising was to get the attention of the House. I realize that perhaps under the rule I would be out of order, but I merely wanted the House to vote this motion down and give the bill a chance.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I realize it is not debatable, but I just wanted to give my friend from Erie——

The SPEAKER. May the Chair say that if unanimous consent is given to suspend the rules so far as this case is concerned the gentlemen may proceed. Are there objections? The Chair hears none and the gentlemen will proceed.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I just wanted to inform my friend from Erie that the amendment made by the Senate in striking out lines 20, 21 and 22 make the law worse than it was before.

Mr. FITZGERALD . Mr. Speaker, I agree with the motion of the gentleman from Philadelphia, which is very seldom, but nevertheless I do.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. BENNETT. Mr. Speaker, at the close of this session there is one particular character from Philadelphia that is missing from here. He has attended the sessions of this body as long as memory almost runs back. He has been legislative correspondent for The Philadelphia Inquirer for the past fifty years in State, City and National affairs. He is known throughout the length and breadth of this land from Maine to California and from the gulf to the gorge. Because of an unfortunate accident he is at present confined to his home suffering from a fractured shoulder. I speak of George E. Brennan, universally known as the dean of newspapermen in the city of Philadelphia and this State, and I ask you, sir, with your unfailing kindness and courtesy that the House, through you, express the season's greetings to him and extend to him its wishes for a speedy recovery and a complete convalescence during the coming days of the new year.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

SYMPATHY EXTENDED TO GEORGE E. BRENNAN

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this body by a vote express its sympathy to Mr. George E. Brennan and a wish for a speedy recovery.

The motion was unanimously agreed to by a rising vote.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO WAIT UPON THE SENATE

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, the Committee appointed by you to inform the Senate that the House is ready to adjourn sine die at 12.00 o'clock noon this twenty-first day of December has performed that duty.

The SPEAKER. The Chair on the part of the House thanks the Committee and discharges it.

NOTIFICATION THAT SENATE IS READY TO ADJOURN SINE DIE

The Committee on the part of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate is ready to adjourn sine die at 12.00 o'clock noon, this day.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the Committee on the part of the Senate for the information.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO WAIT UPON GOVERNOR

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, we have to report, Sir, that the Committee you appointed to wait upon the Governor and advise him that the House is ready to adjourn sine die at noon today, has performed that duty and have communicated with the Governor on the long distance telephone. Each individual member has spoken with him and he has informed us that he has nothing further to present to the House and wishes to you, Sir, and the members of the House a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the Committee on the part of the House and discharges it.

SINE DIE ADJOURNMENT

The SPEAKER. The day and the hour fixed by concurrent resolution as the time when the General Assembly shall adjourn sine die having arrived I declare this Extraordinary Session of 1933 of the House of Representatives adjourned without day.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Carmen Adams—No. 834

January Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Carmen Adams, convicted of robbery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Luzerne County on April 27, 1931 be commuted from five year to one year, ten months expiring on February 27, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant pleaded guilty to a charge of robbery. He was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for from five to ten years. We believe he has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follow:

1. This was his first offense.
2. His conduct and employment records since his incarceration have been excellent.
3. He will have served by the time he can be released approximately two years of his sentence.
4. The trial judge and the trial district attorney recommend clemency.

The applicant will be on parole until 1941. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Joseph Murray—No. 911

January Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Joseph Murray, convicted of statutory rape in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on November 21, 1931 be commuted from two years to one year, three months expiring on February 21, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was arrested for statutory rape. The alleged act had taken place three months prior to his arrest. He pleaded not guilty. At the trial it was proven that the prosecutrix had a venereal disease and the applicant had not. He was convicted and sentenced to from two to four years in the Eastern State Penitentiary. Since then affidavits have been secured which show that the prosecutrix had been engaged in commercialized vice for a long period of time.

The applicant has been incarcerated for over one year. We believe he has been sufficiently punished. He will be on parole until 1936.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Leo Boire—No. 1042

January Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Leo Boire, convicted of murder second degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Blair County on March 16, 1927, be commuted from eight years to five years eleven months expiring on February 16, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant, while attempting to defend himself, killed the person attacking him. He pleaded guilty to murder of the second degree. A report from the Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary states, "This appears to be the case of an industrious and apparently very tractable foreigner, driven and goaded to the commission of a crime by the aggressions of a truculent and possibly psychopathic fellow worker."

We believe that the applicant, if guilty of any crime, was guilty of voluntary manslaughter. The maximum sentence for this crime is twelve years. By the time applicant can be released he will have served six years.

The applicant's employment and conduct records prior to and during his incarceration have been excellent. He will be on parole until 1943.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Joseph Mark Shoenfelt—No. 1069

January Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Joseph Mark Shoenfelt, convicted of assault with intent to commit rape in the court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Clinton County on October 31, 1931, be commuted from one year, six months to one year, three months, expiring on January 31, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows: The applicant on advice of counsel, pleaded guilty to assault with intent to commit rape. He was sentenced to serve from one and one-half to three years in the Western State Penitentiary. His accomplices pleaded not guilty and were acquitted. The trial district attorney states that after-discovered evidence indicates that there has been a miscarriage of justice as the applicant was unquestionably innocent. The present district attorney and trial judge recommend a commutation.

The applicant will be on parole until 1934. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON.
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH.
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Pete Miskovich—No. 1070

January Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Pete Miskovich, convicted of statutory rape, bastardy, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Clearfield County on February 15, 1932, be commuted from two years to one year, expiring on February 15, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows: The applicant admitted his intimacy with the prosecutrix who was under sixteen years of age. No direct evidence of the ill-repute of the prosecutrix could be obtained although specific acts of unchastity could have been shown. The applicant pleaded guilty to statutory rape and bastardy and was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary for from two to four years and ordered to pay $2.00 a week for the support of the child for fourteen years. The prosecutrix married shortly after the applicant's sentence. In our opinion the applicant, who has served over one-half of his minimum sentence, has been sufficiently punished.

The applicant will be on parole until 1936. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON.
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH.
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY.
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Ralph Coburn—No. 1073

January Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Ralph Coburn, convicted of highway robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Luzerne County on February 8, 1930, be commuted from ten years to three years, expiring on February 8, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows: The applicant pleaded guilty to robbery. Judge Valentine imposed a sentence of from ten to twenty years in the Eastern State Penitentiary. In a letter of November 28, 1932, Judge Valentine states: "Coburn was given an unusually severe sentence with the hope that others would be deterred from committing similar crimes. * * * I imposed the sentence that I did impose with mental reservation that after Coburn had been incarcerated a reasonable length of time I would assist in procuring his release. In my judgment that time has now arrived. * * * I not only recommend but urge that his request for clemency be granted." The district attorney also recommends favorable consideration. The applicant will be on parole until 1950.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON.
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH.
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Santo Piazza—No. 1084

January Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Santo Piazza, convicted of second degree murder in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on November 19, 1925, be commuted from nine years to seven years, three months, expiring on February 19, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant pleaded guilty to a charge of murder of the second degree. He was sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the Western State Penitentiary for not less than nine nor more than eighteen years. This was his first offense. He has served over seven years of his sentence. His conduct and employment records have been excellent. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

The applicant will be on parole until 1943. His wife and five children are in urgent need of his support. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of William Brinkman—No. 1085

January Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of William Brinkman, convicted of second degree murder in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, Quarter Sessions and General Jail Delivery of Lancaster County on September 11, 1928, be commuted from ten years to four years, five months, expiring on February 11, 1928.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant, while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, shot and killed one of his friends. The circumstances were entirely consistent with applicant's statement that the shooting was accidental, but he was convicted of murder of the second degree.

The trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary state, "His crime was purely an impulsive act which we feel will not be repeated." They recommend a commutation. The supervisor of paroles concurs. The trial district attorney and the present district attorney do not oppose clemency. The applicant has served over four and one-half years of his sentence and will be on parole until 1948. He has been assured employment.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

Governor.

Wimmer, convicted of rape in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Monroe County on May 11, 1926, be commuted from seven and one-half years to six years, nine months, expiring on February 11, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The district attorney writes that "in my judgment the application for clemency is meritorious." The supervisor of paroles also recommends clemency. Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Frank Graziani—No. 1107

January Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Frank Graziani, convicted of murder (second degree), violation of parole, assault with firearms, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County on January 20, 1919, March 1, 1929, be commuted from twenty years to eleven years, eleven months, expiring on February 20, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1919 the applicant was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for from eight to twenty years on a charge of murder of the second degree. In 1927 he was released on parole. In 1929 he was sentenced to a term of one year for assault with firearms, the sentence to run concurrently with the unexpired parole term of twelve years. He will have served by the time he can be released four years of this unexpired term.

In re Application of Samuel Lehrman—No. 1106

January Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Samuel Lehrman, convicted of perjury in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Dauphin County on March 25, 1912, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1912 the applicant was convicted of perjury. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $50.00 and undergo imprisonment in the Dauphin County Jail for ten days.

The applicant has led an exemplary life and has conducted a successful business for twenty years. The conviction of perjury disqualifies him as a witness in any matter in controversy. This seriously handicaps him in his business pursuits. A pardon will remove the disqualification. Judge Wickersham, who conducted the prosecution, states "I would most heartily recommend that he receive the relief for which he has petitioned the Pardon Board."

The supervisor of paroles also recommends a pardon.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Jacob Lehman al. Jake Lehman—No. 1141

January Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the death sentence of Jacob Lehman al. Jake Lehman, convicted of murder in the first degree in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Montgomery County on May 27, 1932, be commuted from death to imprisonment for life.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was tried on a charge of murder of the first degree. The jury found him guilty and by its verdict fixed the penalty at death. Sentence was accordingly imposed. Eight of the jurors in the case have urged us to recommend a commutation of the death sentence to life imprisonment.

Thirty-two members of the Montgomery County Bar, many of whom heard the trial, also recommend clemency.

The responsibility for imposing the penalty in cases of first degree murder rests upon the jury. We are impressed by the plea for clemency for two-thirds of the jury which imposed sentence in this case.

In addition while the applicant admits the killing, there is grave doubt whether, under the facts of the case, it could have been pre-mediated. If it was not pre-mediated, the death penalty should not be imposed.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

In re Application of Louis Marino—No. 510

February Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum and minimum sentences of Louis Marino, convicted of (1) entering a building to commit a felony, (2) breaking and escaping penitentiary in the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Lawrence, Centre, Counties on September 4, 1926, September 17, 1928, be commuted from ten years, five years to six years, four months, one month, expiring on February 4, 1933, March 4, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In re Application of Harry Steelman—No. 767

February Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Harry Steelman, convicted of robbery, armed with an offensive weapon, aggravated assault and battery, in the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on March 31, 1930, be commuted from five years to two years, eleven months, expiring on February 28, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

An investigation made by a field agent of the Board of Pardons, discloses that the applicant and his partner were attempting to purchase liquor from the victim of the assault, a bootlegger. An argument followed and blows were struck. The applicant pleaded nolle contendre to several charges. He was adjudged guilty of assault and battery, being armed with offensive weapons, assault and battery, and aggravated assault and battery.

Applicant has been a valuable assistant to the Bertillon officer in the penitentiary. He has an honorable discharge from the Navy and is a graduate of Girard College. By the time he can be released he will have served three years of his sentence. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

The manager of the Shubert Theatres in Philadelphia has guaranteed employment and will act as the applicant's sponsor. Parole supervision will be exercised until 1940.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of French Bernard Watson—No. 1078

February Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of French Bernard Watson, convicted of felonious entry and larceny, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Lancaster County on September 14, 1929, be commuted from six years to three years, six months, expiring on March 14, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was charged with having stolen a few chickens and turkeys. He was convicted on six counts of felonious entry and larceny. On each count he was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for from one to two years. He has now served over three and one-half years. His conduct and employment records during his incarceration have been excellent.

The trial district attorney, present district attorney, and the supervisor of paroles state that applicant has been sufficiently punished. We concur in these views.

The applicant is a resident of West Virginia. He desires to return to that State. His father will act as his sponsor.

Our recommendation is contingent upon his return to West Virginia.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of James Barr—No. 1111

February Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of James Barr, convicted of statutory rape, in the Court of Oyer & Terminer of Allegheny County, on October 13, 1931, be commuted from four years to one year, five months, expiring on March 13, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of statutory rape. He was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary for from 4 to 8 years. A report from the Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary states, "This case is not one of rape, except in a technical sense of the term. The plaintiffs in the case were known to be prostitutes although at least one of them was under age. The charge placed against the prisoner and step-brother was the result of a feud between two families and the litigious temperament of the father of one of the girls rather than a case of injury that could possibly be done to either the body or reputation of either of the plaintiffs. Prisoner's past history and conduct indicates that he is a safe risk and should be released as soon as possible."

The trial district attorney and supervisor of paroles recommend a commutation.

The applicant will be on parole until 1939. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,

In re Application of Hector Beaumont Clark—No. 1126

February Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant pleaded guilty to robbery. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment of from 10 to 20 years. He has served almost four years of his sentence. His conduct and employment records during imprisonment have been excellent.

The applicant is an English citizen. He is subject to deportation. Our recommendation is contingent upon his deportation to England.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,

PHILIP H. DEWEY,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Wilbur Lowell Stine—No. 1127

February Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Wilbur Lowell Stine, convicted of larceny by bailee, in the Court of Oyer & Terminer of Dauphin County, on January 13, 1932, be commuted from one and one-half years to one year, two months, expiring on March 13, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant drove a rented automobile out of the State. The car was wrecked and abandoned. Upon his return to Pennsylvania he admitted his wrongdoing and pleaded guilty to larceny by bailee. He was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for from one and one-half to three years.

We believe he has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follow:

(a) He has served over two-thirds of his minimum sentence.

(b) This was his first offense.

(c) His conduct and employment records have been excellent.

The trial judge and supervisor of paroles recommend clemency. The applicant will be on parole until 1935. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,

In re Application of Joseph Palenchar—No. 1132

February Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Joseph Palenchar, convicted of statutory rape, in the Court of Oyer & Terminer of Allegheny County, on March 20, 1931, be commuted from four years to two years, expiring on March 20, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of rape. After discovered evidence proves that the girl was a notorious prostitute. The report of the officials of the penitentiary states that this was "a rape case only in the technical sense." Applicant has served over one and one-half years of his sentence, and we believe he has been sufficiently punished.

This was the applicant's first offense. His previous reputation was very good as was his employment record.

Parole supervision will be exercised until 1946. Employment has been assured.

In re Application of Augusto M. Fabrizi—No 1139

February Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Augusto M. Fabrizi, convicted of statutory rape, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on May 22, 1931, be commuted from three years to one year, nine months, expiring on February 22, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was tried on a charge of statutory rape. He was convicted. A new trial was ordered. The second trial also resulted in a conviction. He was sentenced to a term of imprisonment of from 3 to 6 years. Reliable information makes us seriously doubt the applicant's guilt. He has served over one-half of his minimum term. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

The trustees of the penitentiary and the supervisor of paroles recommend clemency. The district attorney's representative stated at the open hearing that the district attorney did not oppose clemency.

The applicant is an accomplished musician. Employment has been assured. He will be on parole until 1937.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of statutory rape and fornication. He was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary for from seven and one-half to fifteen years. We believe he has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follow:

(1) This was the applicant's first offense.

(2) He was only 22 years old when convicted.

(3) He has served approximately four years of his sentence.

(4) His work and conduct records have been excellent.

The report of the Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary states, "The charge is probably more technical than descriptive of the actual happenings. If no previous conviction; parole as soon as possible." The supervisor of paroles recommends a commutation.

The applicant will be on parole until 1944. Employment in Dayton, Ohio, has been guaranteed. Our recommendation is contingent upon his leaving this State and removing to Ohio.

Another accomplice received a sentence of from 8 to 16 years. Both of these sentences were commuted. In our opinion all the participants in the crime were equally guilty. The applicant has served over 7 years of his sentence. This was his first offense. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

In re Application of Frederick Plantieri—No. 1112

March Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Frederick Plantieri, convicted of conspiracy; larceny, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on October 17, 1930, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of larceny, conspiracy to steal and bribery. The jury recommended mercy. A sentence of one year in the Philadelphia County Prison was imposed and the applicant was discharged on parole after serving approximately two months of this sentence. The conviction arose out of the removal of some beer from the district attorney's warehouse. One of the judges of the Courts of Philadelphia County who is familiar with the facts in the case has told us that he is convinced that the applicant was convicted on perjured testimony. After a careful examination of all the facts we are satisfied that it is extremely doubtful whether the applicant was guilty of the offense.

The applicant had an excellent record as a member of the Philadelphia Police Department. No other charge had ever been brought against him.

In re Application of Dominick Del Gatto—No. 1145

March Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Dominick Del Gatto, convicted of aggravated assault and battery in the Supreme Court of Westmoreland County, on September 1, 1915, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1915 the applicant was convicted of aggravated assault and battery. The facts in the case were as follows:

The prosecutor owed the applicant $60.00. The applicant wrote a letter demanding payment. The prosecutor replied that he would give the applicant sixty stabs. The applicant then struck the prosecutor a number of blows with his fists.

A plea of guilty was entered and the applicant was sentenced to the Westmoreland County Jail for five months. Prior to this conviction and for the past eighteen years the applicant has lived an exemplary life. He wishes to become a citizen of the United States. A pardon will enable him to accomplish this purpose. We feel that he is entitled to a pardon because of the mitigating circumstances surrounding the assault and battery and his otherwise unblemished record.

in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on January 24, 1928, be commuted from eleven and one-half years to five years, three months expiring on April 24, 1933, for deportation.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant has served over five years of his sentence of from eleven and one-half to twenty-three years. A detainer for deportation has been filed by the United States Department of Labor, Immigration Service, at the Western State Penitentiary. The applicant has signified his willingness to return to his native country.

March Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant and one accomplice attempted to hold up the proprietor of a restaurant. The proprietor drew a gun and drove them away. The accomplice was committed to a Catholic Reformatory and has been released. The applicant was only 20 years of age at the time the crime was committed. He has served over two-thirds of his sentence. His conduct and employment records in the penitentiary have been excellent. This was his first offense. We believed he has been sufficiently punished.

In re Application of Mary Stankiewicz—No. 1226

March Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the death sentence of Mary Stankiewicz, convicted of murder, first degree, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Northumberland County on January 30, 1933, be commuted from death to imprisonment for life.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is an uneducated woman of foreign extraction. She pleaded guilty to a charge of murder of the first degree and was sentenced to death. Her accomplice, a step-son, was permitted to plead guilty to a charge of murder of the second degree, and was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years. Statements made by the District Attorney and the applicant's counsel, corroborated by the record and notes of testimony, disclose certain material facts. They are as follows:

(1) The accomplice dominated the applicant.

(2) The accomplice urged, planned and assisted in the commission of the crime.

(3) The applicant frequently had severe headaches and other illnesses.

(4) The deceased abused and mistreated the applicant during the entire period of the coverture.

(5) The applicant and accomplice were equally guilty of murder of the first degree.

Accordingly we are of the opinion that there is too great a disparity in the sentences imposed.

In our opinion the applicant should serve a term of life imprisonment without commutation.

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

The third accomplice and the applicant received sentences of from six to twelve years. Commutation was granted to the third accomplice, Meyer Letwin in January, 1933. To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Calvin C. Gorgy, convicted of voluntary manslaughter in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Monroe County, on November 2, 1931, be commuted from three years to one year, eight months, expiring on May 7, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was County Detective of Monroe County. In 1931 he attempted to arrest a man. A scuffle ensued and the applicant's gun was discharged, killing the man. The applicant surrendered himself to the proper authorities and was indicted for murder and voluntary manslaughter. He was convicted on the latter indictment and sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for from three to six years. He has served over one-half of his minimum sentence. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

The trial district attorney, present district attorney, trial judge, special prosecuting attorney and the supervisor of paroles recommend clemency.

The applicant will be on parole until 1937. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor,

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth,

WM. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General,

PHILIP H. DEWEY,
Secretary of Internal Affairs.

The above recommendation is approved:

GIFFORD PINCHOT,
Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Eddie Salim—No. 1110

April Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Eddie Salim convicted of unlawful cutting and wounding, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County, on June 13, 1932, be commuted from fifteen months to eleven months, expiring on May 13, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary for from fifteen months to three years on a charge of felonious assault and battery. The report of the Board of Trustees states, "There is reason for believing that the charge of assault and battery is false."

The applicant has served over two thirds of his minimum sentence. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

The supervisor of paroles recommends a commutation. Dr. Claudy, Supt., Rockview Prison Farm writes that the case merits favorable consideration.

The applicant will be on parole until 1935. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,

In re Application of Peter Evangilist—No. 1147

April Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Peter Evangilist, convicted of escape, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Centre County, on June 14, 1929, be commuted from five years to one year, expiring on May 12, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1927 the applicant, when 18 years of age, was sentenced to the Philadelphia County Prison for from five to ten years on a charge of larceny of an automobile. He was transferred to the Rockview Prison Farm in 1929. He escaped from there the same year but was captured within a few hours. A sentence of from five to ten years in the Western State Penitentiary was imposed on the breaking and escaping charge. The trial court paroled him at the expiration of his minimum sentence on the larceny charge. He has been incarcerated for approximately six years. The conduct record, excepting his escape, has been excellent. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

The trial judge, superintendent of the Philadelphia County Prison and the supervisor of paroles recommend a commutation.

The applicant will be on parole until 1947. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant and others were implicated in a drunken brawl. One of the group was killed. The applicant was convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for from six to twelve years. He is 65 years of age and a citizen of Poland.

Our recommendation is contingent upon his return to his native country.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for from twelve and one-half to twenty-five years. He has been incarcerated over four years. A detainer in the form of a deportation warrant has been lodged against him at the penitentiary. Our recommendation is contingent upon his immediate deportation to Italy.

In re Application of Sam Matz—No. 1183

April Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Sam Matz, convicted of assault and battery with intent to ravish, assault and battery, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Beaver County, on November 9, 1932, be commuted from two years to six months, expiring on May 9, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of assault and battery with intent to ravish. The district attorney states, "I personally was not satisfied of the applicant's guilt, to the extent required by law namely: beyond a reasonable doubt."

The report from the Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary indicates that there is considerable doubt concerning the applicant's guilt. After a thorough investigation of the case we are of the same opinion. The conduct and employment records prior to his conviction were excellent.

The applicant will be re-employed by the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation for which he worked for over thirty years.

The applicant was sentenced to from 4 to 12 years in the Western State Penitentiary in 1919, on a charge of aggravated assault and battery. Shortly before the expiration of his minimum sentence he was forced to escape with some other prisoners. The applicant was recaptured and was given a sentence of from four to twelve years for the escape. He has been incarcerated for over thirteen years. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

The trial judge, supervisor of paroles and the parole officer of Centre County recommend a commutation.

The applicant will be on parole until 1944.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of voluntary manslaughter and sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary for from eight to twelve years. While in the penitentiary he was convicted of felonious assault and battery. The sentence for this offense was suspended. He has served almost eleven years of his sentence. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

In re Application of Archie P. Bennis—No. 1204

April Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Archie P. Bennis, convicted of burglary in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, of Allegheny County, on June 13, 1914, be commuted from twenty years to thirteen years, expiring on May 1, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary in 1914. He was released on parole in 1924. In 1925 he was sentenced to the Ohio State Penitentiary for burglary. In 1930 he was released from that institution and returned to the Western State Penitentiary as a parole violator. He has served over three years for such violation. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

The supervisor of paroles and the Board of Trustees of the penitentiary recommend a commutation.

In re Application of Dominic Pagley—No. 1207

April Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Dominic Pagley, convicted of aiding, counseling and procuring, attempting to commit arson, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Lawrence County, on March 5, 1932, be commuted from two years to one year, two months, expiring on May 5, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of aiding counseling, procuring and attempting to commit arson. He was sentenced to from two to four years in the Western State Penitentiary. The trial district attorney states, "that the ends of justice have been met." The trial judge tells us, "I would have been inclined to make his sentence one year as I believe he has had his lesson. The statute however compelled me to impose two years as his minimum sentence." The applicant has served over one year of his sentence.

The applicant will be on parole until 1936. Employment has been assured.

Lieutenant Governor.

In re Application of Frank Rosa—No. 1210

April Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Frank Rosa, convicted of incestuous rape; fornication and bastardy, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County, on August 3, 1928, be commuted from seven and one-half years to four years, nine months, expiring on May 3, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of incestuous rape and fornication and bastardy. He was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for from seven and one-half to fifteen years. After a careful investigation of the facts in the case we seriously doubt the applicant's guilt.

The applicant is 57 years old. He conducted a barber shop in prison and has accumulated approximately $1,000.00 in cash and $500.00 in equipment and fixtures.

The supervisor of paroles and the trustees of the penitentiary recommend a commutation.

In re Application of Nicholas Perri—No. 1211

April Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Nicholas Perri, convicted of robbery, being armed with an offensive weapon, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on June 18, 1928, be commuted from twenty years to two years, ten months, expiring on May 11, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant, 19 years old, was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary in 1928 for from eight to twenty years. This sentence was commuted in October, 1930. In 1931 he was sentenced to the Philadelphia County Prison for from one to three years for larceny. We seriously doubt his guilt on this charge. At the expiration of this minimum sentence he was returned to the Eastern State Penitentiary to serve the unexpired term of the twenty-year sentence.

The trial judge states, "I would be inclined, if I had the power, to parole him."

The applicant will be on parole until 1948. Employment has been assured.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of George A. Knox—No. 1213

April Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of George A. Knox, convicted of arson; burning chattels with intent to defraud insurer, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Mifflin County, on January 18, 1932, be commuted from two years to one year, four months, expiring on May 18, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of arson and burning chattels with intent to defraud insurer. He was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary for from two to ten years. The conviction was obtained by the testimony of William Lytter who set fire to the building. The report from the Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary states, "From a rather reliable source we are told that Lytter's testimony might not be reliable. Since he has a reputation for unreliability and delinquency." The district attorney tells us that when the defendant was sentenced he, the district attorney, told the court that he could not understand the verdict, that he firmly believe the applicant innocent, and that he was of the opinion that one of the Commonwealth's witnesses was guilty of the crime. The district attorney added, "Since then other developments, in this case, have come to my knowledge, and I am, if possible, more firmly of the opinion that George Knox did not commit the offense wherewith he was charged." After a full consideration of all the facts we are of the same opinion.

The applicant will be on parole until 1942. He owns several farms and will be able to provide for himself.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

The applicant was assaulted by his brother without provocation. His life was endangered. He picked up a firearm which was standing in the room and shot and killed the brother. The applicant on advice of counsel pleaded guilty to murder. He was adjudged guilty of murder of the second degree and was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary for from six to twelve years.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1921 the applicant was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for from five to ten years for the larceny of an automobile. He was transferred to the Rockview Farm Prison. Upon the expiration of his minimum sentence in 1926 he was released on parole. In 1929 he was found guilty of assault and battery by automobile, and failure to stop and render assistance. He was sentenced to the Chester County Jail for two years. May Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Chester Kolowrocki, convicted of felonious entry; larceny; receiving stolen goods, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Berks County, on June 16, 1928, be commuted from ten years to five years, expiring on June 16, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant and two others were convicted of felonious entry, larceny and receiving stolen goods. The accomplices have been released on parole. Judge Paul N. Schaeffer, states that "These sentences were imposed by the Court at the time I was upon the bench, and I can say that the Court is of the opinion that the sentences were too severe . . . . . I respectfully suggest your favorable consideration."

The trial district attorney and supervisor of paroles recommend a commutation.

The applicant will be on parole until 1946. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Warring Spencer Conkling—No. 1019

May Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Warring Spencer Conkling, convicted of robbery; being armed with offensive weapon; larceny, in the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on November 15, 1927, be commuted from thirty years to five years, seven months, expiring on June 15, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was sentenced in November, 1927, to from thirty to sixty years for robbery, being armed, etc. He was only 19 years of age when the offenses were committed and all took place within a period of five weeks. An accomplice received a sentence of from forty to eighty years. This sentence was commuted in February, 1932. The accomplice has been on parole for over one year and his conduct has been exemplary. We have every reason to believe the applicant will also be rehabilitated.

Judge Eugene V. Alessandroni, who was the trial district attorney, states, "In view of time served and sound prospect of rehabilitation, I join plea for clemency." The supervisor of paroles recommends a commutation.

The applicant will be on parole until 1987. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,

The above recommendation is approved:

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Henry Reinschreiber—No. 1174

May Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Henry Reinschreiber, convicted of first degree murder, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County, on June 6, 1922, be commuted from life imprisonment to ten years, three months, expiring on June 27, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of murder of the first degree and was sentenced to death. The sentence was commuted to life imprisonment. We believe he has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follow:

(1) This was the applicant's first offense.

(2) He was only 19 years old when the crime was committed.

(3) He has been imprisoned almost eleven years.

(4) The report of the Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary states, "Record while in prison excellent, in fact he has developed a trade as ornamental iron-worker, showing superior mechanical ability."

The report of the Board of Trustees also states, "He is capable of being self-supporting. His family background, and the high character of his sponsor, together with this man's finely poised personality, make his prognosis in the world very good."

The applicant will be on parole for life.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,

In re Application of Bruner B. Stevenson—No. 1222

May Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Bruner B. Stevenson, convicted of extortion, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Lancaster County, on November 27, 1926, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1926 the applicant, a Justice of the Peace, was convicted of extortion. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $10.00 and the costs of prosecution. It appears that the crime consisted of an attempt to collect costs, to which the applicant thought he was legally entitled. No criminal intent was shown.

The applicant has an excellent reputation and was never involved in any other trouble. Judge Atlee, the district attorney, and the supervisor of paroles state that the application is meritorious.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,
Attorney General.

PHILIP H. DEWEY,

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Tony Toranto, convicted of second degree murder in the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and G. J. D., of Cambria County, on June 15, 1915, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1915 the applicant pleaded guilty to murder of the second degree and was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary for from eighteen to twenty years. In 1929 his sentence was commuted to from fourteen to twenty years. He was released on parole and has been reporting regularly to the parole officers. At the present time he is working for the Long Island Railroad Company in New York. He has an excellent work record but is in danger of losing his position because he is not a citizen of the United States. Unless he receives a pardon he cannot become a citizen. The Supervisor of paroles recommends a pardon. We concur in this recommendation.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was employed as a helper by a hardwood floor dealer. In moving some furniture in the home of a colored family, he noticed some pieces of jewelry in an empty dresser drawer. He put the jewelry, worth only a few dollars, in his pocket and took it home. A few days later he was arrested and convicted of larceny and receiving stolen goods. He was sentenced to the Philadelphia County Prison for six months. This sentence was reconsidered and suspended and he was placed on probation for two years. This occured early in 1926 when the applicant was only nineteen years old. The applicant had no previous criminal record, nor has he been arrested since then.

Judge Francis Shunk Brown, Jr., was the trial district attorney. He recommends a pardon. The present district at-

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1931 the applicant was convicted of embezzlement. He was sentenced to serve from two to five years in the Eastern State Penitentiary. The Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, the sentencing judge, tells us, "I know that his (the applicant's) family is in destitue circumstances and I was of the opinion at the time of his trial that his employers were as much to blame for his embezzlement as himself. What he stole was spent on his own family and if your Board sees fit to pardon him or parole him for the rest of his term, it will have my approval." The district attorney and the supervisor of paroles also recommend clemency.

The applicant will be on parole until 1936. Employment has been assured.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Orville Johnson Dooms—No. 1052

June Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Orville Johnson Dooms, convicted of Murder, second degree, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Fayette County, on June 5, 1929 be commuted from ten years to four years, one month expiring on July 5, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant shot and killed his father who for sometime prior to the commission of the offense had been very cruel and abusive to the family. The applicant was convicted of murder of the second degree and received a sentence of from ten to twenty years.

The trial district attorney and trial judge tell us that a verdict of manslaughter would have been a proper verdict; the applicant's record prior to the commission of the crime was excellent; the applicant's mother is in ill health and has three small children to support; there is nothing in the make-up or character of the applicant which would render it unsafe for him to be released from prison. The Trustees of the Penitentiary also recommends clemency.

The applicant will be on parole until 1949. Employment has been assured.

Respectfully submitted

Lieutenant Governor,

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth,

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1926 the applicant was convicted of statutory rape and assault and battery with intent to commit rape. He was sentenced to from ten to twenty years in the Western State Penitentiary. We believe he has been sufficiently punished Our reasons are as follows:

1. The applicant is a Spanish American War Veteran with an honorable discharge.
2. His conduct and employment records prior and subsequent to his imprisonment were excellent.
3. He has served over seven years of his sentence.

The applicant will be on parole until 1946. He receives a pension from the United States Government and has saved sufficient money to establish himself in business.

In re Application of Frank W. Bless—No. 1273

June Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Frank W. Bless, convicted of false pretenses; conspiracy to cheat and defraud in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on November 6, 1925 be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1925 the applicant pleaded nolle contendere to charges of false pretenses, making false statements in writing, etc. He was adjudged guilty and sentenced to three months imprisonment in the Philadelphia County Prison. The applicant has always denied his guilt and after an examination of the facts in the case and from statements of the trial judge we are inclined to believe him.

The applicant was never involved in any other trouble and has always had an excellent reputation. Many reputable citizens of Philadelphia have communicated with us commenting upon his excellent character and industry.

The district attorney's representative stated at the Open Session that the district attorney approved the granting of a pardon. The supervisor of paroles, Superintendent of the Philadelphia County Prison and trial judge also recommend clemency.

In re Application of Edward Nappen—No. 1274

June Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Edward Nappen, convicted of R. S. G. in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on October 19, 1922, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1922, the applicant was adjudged guilty of receiving stolen goods. Sentence was suspended and he was placed on probation for eighteen months.

The Honorable Harry S. McDevitt, the sentencing judge state, "I think it would be real justice to clear his (the applicant's) name of the charge. The circumstances were such that he was technically guilty, and I only placed him on probation for the purpose of letting him understand more forcibly the nature of his transaction."

The district attorney sent his representative to the Open Session to state that a pardon should be granted. The officers of the prosecutor, the Reading Railroad Company, state that the applicant was the victim of circumstances, being implicated in this matter through Louis Fox, to whom he was related, that he has since been living a decent life in Atlantic City, where he has proven himself a credit to the community.

The supervisor of paroles recommends a pardon.

1. He has served over one-half of his minimum sentence.
2. This was his first offense.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1930, the applicant, after pleading guilty to a charge of conspiracy, was given a suspended sentence and placed on probation for five years. Three defendants involved in the same crime were pardoned in March of this year. The trial judge states, "I endorse Murphy's application for pardon and strongly hope the Board will see fit to take favorable action." The supervisor of paroles also recommends a pardon.

The applicant was never involved in any other trouble. He is unable to secure a bond necessary to qualify him for employment in positions of trust, unless a pardon is granted.

Respectfully submitted,

In re Application of Ernest C. Brown—No. 795

July Special Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Ernest C. Brown, convicted of second degree murder in the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on September 29, 1925, be commuted from ten years to seven years, ten months, expiring on July 29, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1925 the applicant was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years for murder of the second degree. We believe he has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follow:

1. The applicant has served almost eight years of his minimum sentence.
2. This was his first offense.
3. His conduct and employment records during his imprisonment have been excellent.

A report from the Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary states, "This application is presented by one of the most useful and most commendable inmates of the penitentiary." The supervisor of paroles recommends clemency.

The applicant will be on parole until 1945. Employment has been assured in North Carolina. Our recommendation is contingent upon his removal to that State.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In re Application of Leonardo Pettulla—No. 916

July Special Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Leonardo Pettulla, convicted of murder, second degree, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Philadelphia County, on April 14, 1925, be commuted from ten years to eight years, three months, expiring on July 14, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for from ten to twenty years on a charge of murder of the second degree. He has served over eight years of his sentence. A report from the Board of Trustees of the penitentiary states, "His (the applicant's) conduct and work records within the institution have been excellent. From our information and facts the application is a worthy one." The supervisor of paroles recommends clemency.

The applicant will be on parole until 1945. Employment has been assured. His wife and three children are in urgent need of his support.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of John E. Schumacher—No. 995

July Special Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John E. Schumacher, convicted of statutory rape, in the Municipal Court of Philadelphia County, on September 25, 1930, be commuted from four years to two years, ten months, expiring on July 25, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for from four to eight years for rape. The prosecutrix has retracted her statements. The applicant has served approximately three-fourths of his minimum sentence. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

A report of the Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary states, "It is our judgment that based upon his ethical conceptions he has served sufficiently for his crime, particularly when his prosecutrix now regrets her course. We do not regard him a typical pervert and believe he could adapt himself to useful citizenship." The supervisor of paroles recommends a commutation.

The applicant will be on parole until 1938. Employment has been assured in Virginia and our recommendation is contingent upon his removal to that State.

E. C. SHANNON,

In re Application of Ben Morgenstern—No. 1002

July Special Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum sentence of Ben Morgenstern, convicted of pandering, bigamy, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Washington and Butler Counties, on November 15, 1922, June 9, 1928, be commuted from ten years to seven years, two months, expiring on August 9, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1921 the applicant pleaded guilty to pandering. He was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary for from two to ten years. In 1923 he was released on parole. In 1928 he was sentenced to from one to two years for bigamy. This sentence was to run concurrently with the sentence to be served for the violation of parole. He has now served over five years for the parole violation. The trial judge and supervisor of paroles recommend clemency. We also believe the applicant has been sufficiently punished.

The applicant will be on parole until 1936. Employment has been assured.

In re Application of Sigmund Tabor—No. 1082

July Special Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Sigmund Tabor, convicted of highway robbery in the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on May 14, 1931, be commuted from five years to two years, three months, expiring on August 14, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant, seventeen years old, pleaded guilty to robbery in 1931. He received a sentence of from five to ten years in the Eastern State Penitentiary.

We understand that, as a result of efforts of a representative of the Big Brother Association of Philadelphia, applicant has shown evidence of real reformation of character. He was a first offender, and because of his youth the Board feels he should be given a chance to prove his worth. He has served more than two years and will be on parole until 1941.

July Special Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Edward J. Thompson, convicted of conspiracy, assault, being armed, assault and battery, aggravated assault and battery to kill, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on February 15, 1928, be commuted from fifteen and one-half years to five years, six months, expiring on August 15, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was sentenced to a term of imprisonment of from fifteen and one-half to thirty-one years on charges arising out of one hold-up. He has served over five and one-half years of his sentence. The trial judge states, "I have had certain investigations made which indicate that the Board might well consider favorable his present application. From the information now before me, if he were in the county prison, I would be inclined to parole him. I am informed that his attitude has changed, and I think that he is the type of man, if given an opportunity, will now be a good citizen." A report of the Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary states, "The applicant is a capable, polite, well-behaving young man. This Committee feels that he is a good prospect."

The applicant will be on parole until 1959. Employment has been assured.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant pleaded not guilty to a charge of conspiracy. The jury returned a verdict of "guilty with the full mercy of the court." The applicant has excellent conduct and employment records. He has served over one-half of his minimum sentence. Many letters have been written to us by responsible persons recommending clemency. We believe the applicant has been sufficiently punished.

The applicant will be on parole until 1935 Employment has been assured. He has a wife and six children who are in urgent need of his support.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant is a native of Italy and subject to deportation. He has served over one-half of his minimum sentence. The trial district attorney, Board of Trustees and supervisor of paroles recommend a commutation for deportation.

Our recommendation is conditioned upon his deportation to Italy.

July Special Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Jacob S. Murphy, convicted of embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on May 18, 1932, be commuted from three years to one year, three months, expiring on August 18, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was a teller for the Frankford Trust Company. Over a period of approximately three years he embezzled about $30,000.00. After the shortage was disclosed he and his family refunded to the bank $21,000.00. He was not arrested until a year after the peculations were discovered. During that year has was employed by the Philadelphia Automobile Club. This position he may have whenever he is released. He has served almost one-half of his minimum sentence. July Special Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the sentence of Bertram L. Succop, convicted of malfeasance, misdemeanor, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Butler County, on September 15, 1932, to begin February 12, 1933, be commuted from one year to five months, twenty days, expiring on August 1, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted on several counts of malfeasance. The jury recommended "that the very lightest possible sentence be given." The applicant was sentenced to imprisonment in the Allegheny County Prison for one year. We believe he has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follow:

1. The applicant was acting under orders of a superior. We believe he was involved in a system commonly used in the conduct of municipal affairs.
2. The applicant has served almost one-half of his minimum sentence.
3. The Warden of the Allegheny County Prison states that the applicant has been a model prisoner and that the application is meritorious.
4. The applicant was never involved in any other trouble. He has an excellent war and service record.
5. Leading citizens of Allegheny County and of the State and many Posts of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars recommend clemency.
6. The applcant did not directly or indirectly profit from the misdemeanors. His wife and family are in urgent need of his support.

Bichovsky, convicted of uttering and publishing, conspiracy, in the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on October 28, 1929, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1929 the applicant was adjudged guilty of fraudulently making a written instrument, uttering and publishing and conspiracy. He was sentenced to the Philadelphia County Prison for from two to five years. He was paroled at the expiration of the minimum sentence. Prior to his arrest he had never been involved in any trouble. Since his release he has conducted himself in an exemplary manner. At the present time he is doing research work at Columbia University.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of attempt at sodomy. He had never been involved in any trouble before. The trial district attorney states that he could be safely released. The trial judge recommends a commutation and parole at the expiration of one year. We are in accord with the recommendation of the trial judge.

The applicant will be on parole until 1935. Employment has been assured in Ohio and our recommendation is contingent upon his removal to that State.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of statutory rape and bastardy. He was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary for from three to six years in 1931.

The report from the Western State Penitentiary indicates that there is considerable doubt as to his guilt. The trial judge states, "The Etters girl (the prosecutrix) has since demonstrated the fact that she is wholly unworthy of belief and I am convinced of the innocence of Florey. I am recommending that he be pardoned at the earliest date possible." The supervisor of paroles also recommends a pardon.

We concur with these recommendations.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant when only twenty years of age, was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary for from seven and one-half to fifteen years for robbery. He has served almost one-half of his minimum sentence. The trial judge, trial district attorney, the supervisor of paroles and many reputable citizens who know the applicant recommend clemency.

October Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that Elmer J. Waldow, convicted of operating automobile while intoxicated in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County on December 8, 1930, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant and another man were members of the Philadelphia Police Department. They were riding in an automobile when an accident, which appears to us to have been unavoidable, occurred. Both men were arrested for driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor. They both pleaded guilty. The applicant was sentenced to thirty days in the county prison and fined $50.00. He had been a member of the police department for nine years and had an excellent record. Since his release from the Philadelphia County Prison, he has conducted himself in an exemplary manner.

In re Application of Joseph Victorelli—No. 695

October Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Joseph Victorelli, convicted of statutory rape in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on January 31, 1928, be commuted from seven years to five years, nine months, expiring on October 31, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant pleaded guilty to statutory rape. He was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary for from seven to fourteen years.

The trial judge states, "In view of the fact that Victorelli (the applicant) was only nineteen and had a good reputation with no criminal record of any kind, and that he has made a good record in the penitentiary, it seems to me you would have no difficulty in concluding that he can safely be released from prison." The trial judge also adds that a full investigation instead of an informal hearing would have disclosed mitigating circumstances and a doubt as to the guilt of the applicant on the charge of forcible rape. The district attorney also recommends a commutation of sentence. The applicant was never involved in any other trouble.

The applicant will be on parole until 1943. Employment has been assured.

October Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Owen V. Taylor, Jr., convicted of burglary, larceny, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Warren County, on March 6, 1930, be commuted from eight years to four years, expiring on March 6, 1934.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant pleaded guilty to burglary and larceny. He was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary for from eight to sixteen years.

The trial district attorney, trial judge and board of trustees of the penitentiary recommend favorable consideration. The supervisor of paroles recommends a commutation at the expiration of one-half of the minimum sentence. We are in accord with the latter recommendation.

The applicant's conduct and employment records during his incarceration have been excellent.

In re Application of Harry D. Malschnee—No. 816

October Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Harry D. Malschnee, convicted of forgery, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Lancaster County, on February 28, 1931, be commuted from three years to two years, eight months, expiring on October 28, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was employed as cashier of the Akron National Bank. In 1928, he bought stock on margin and in the stock market crash in 1929, when called upon for additional collateral, he forged notes to raise money to make further investments and minimize his losses. The forgeries were discovered and the applicant was arrested. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for from three to six years. The bank did not fail, and the depositors lost no money. The applicant has served over three-fourths of his minimum sentence.

The trial district attorney states, "I have known Mr. Malschnee (the applicant) for a number of years and I am convinced that further imprisonment is merely hardship and will contribute nothing to his welfare or the welfare of society. In my judgment he has been sufficiently punished and I join in his application for parole." The trustees of the penitentiary and supervisor of paroles also recommend clemency.

In re Application of Henderson Hathaway—No. 882

October Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Henderson Hathaway, convicted of murder, second degree, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Philadelphia County, on May 3, 1932, be commuted from twelve and one-half years to eleven years, five months, expiring on October 3, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant pleaded guilty to two charges of murder in the second degree and was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for from twenty-three to twenty-five years. An Act of the Legislature reduced the minimum term to twelve and one-half years.

A report from the Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary states, "This applicant has an apparently small portion of his sentence unserved. He has been useful in the prison. He has saved more than one thousand dollars and in our judgment would be less embittered if released now than if compelled to serve his full minimum." The supervisor of paroles recommends a commutation.

The applicant will be on parole until 1947. Employment has been assured.

In re Application of Charles Dean Hays—No. 897

October Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the maximum and minimum sentence of Charles Dean Hays, convicted of robbery and receiving stolen goods; escape, in the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions, of Allegheny County on February 20, 1924, April 21, 1925, be commuted from sixteen years, six years, to nine years, six months, one month, expiring on September 12, 1933, October 12, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of robbery and receiving stolen goods and was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary for a term of from eight to sixteen years. In 1924 he was convicted of escape and received an additional sentence of from six to twelve years. He has served the minimum term of the original sentence, and almost two years on the escape charge. We believe he has been sufficiently punished. The supervisor of paroles recommends a commutation.

In re Application of Bernard Nilles—No. 1046

October Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Bernard Nilles, convicted of statutory rape in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on November 20, 1931, be commuted from five and one-half years to one year, eleven months, expiring on October 20, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1931, the applicant was convicted of statutory rape. He was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary for from five and one-half to twelve years. The reputation of the prosecutrix was not of the best. At the time of the arrest and conviction, the applicant was afflicted with epilepsy. Since his incarceration in the penitentiary, he has been practically cured of this ailment and the parole director of the Western State Penitentiary told us at open hearing that the applicant had shown a remarkable improvement in his physical and mental conditions.

The trial district attorney states, "I am of the opinion that further incarceration will not help the cause of justice or the rehabilitation of this young man." The supervisor of paroles recommends a commutation.

The applicant will be on parole until 1943. Employment has been assured.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of James Frazer—No. 1064

October Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of James Frazer, convicted of murder, first degree, in the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Dauphin County on March 16, 1917, be commuted from life imprisonment to sixteen years, expiring on October 1, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was involved in a drunken brawl in which another person was fatally stabbed. He was convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to death. His sentence was commuted to life imprisonment on October 1, 1917. Since his confinement in the Eastern State Penitentiary, he has been a model prisoner, and the Board of Trustees of the Eastern State Penitentiary state, "We heartily endorse and recommend this petitioner."

The trial district attorney, present district attorney and judge, and supervisor of paroles recommend a commutation. We are in accord with these recommendations.

The applicant will be on parole for life. Employment has been assured in South Carolina and our recommendation is contingent upon his removal to that State.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

WM. A. SCHNADER,

The above recommendation is approved:

In re Application of Charles Durst—No. 1065

October Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Charles Durst, convicted of robbery in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on September 26, 1929, be commuted from eight years to four years, one month, expiring on September 26, 1929.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant, when only eighteen years of age, acted as the driver of a car used in the commission of several robberies. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary for from eight to sixteen years. He has served over one-half of his minimum sentence.

The trial judge, trial district attorney and supervisor of paroles recommend clemency.

The applicant will be on parole until 1945. Employment has been assured by three responsible firms.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

RICHARD J. BEAMISH,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

In re Application of Malcolm Chester Ferguson—No. 1399

October Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the the Board of Pardons recommend that Malcolm Chester Ferguson, convicted of embracery, bribery, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Fayette County on November 22, 1921, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1921, the applicant pleaded guilty of embracery and bribery. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $300.00, and costs of prosecution. The applicant was never involved in any other trouble, and always enjoyed an excellent reputation.

The trial district attorney states that the granting of this application for pardon will meet the ends of justice. The trial judge also recommends a pardon.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,
Lieutenant Governor.

In re Application of Anthony Spardute—No. 1402

October Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the life sentence of Anthony Spardute, convicted of murder first degree in the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Bradford County on February 22, 1923, be commuted from life imprisonment to ten years, one month, expiring on October 18, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1922, during a labor conflict between strikers and strike breakers of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company in Sayre, Pa., a strike breaker was killed. The applicant was the only one of several persons involved who was ever prosecuted. He was convicted of murder of the first degree and was sentenced to death. This sentence was commuted to life imprisonment. The general feeling in the community where this trouble occurred is that applicant was not guilty. Prior to the trouble he always had the reputation of being a law-abiding citizen and an industrious worker. He provided for his wife and five children.

Judge Culver states, "Personally I have always been convinced that Anthony Spardute (the applicant) was a victim of circumstances, and that he did not kill the man, although he was with the crowd at the time when the victim was killed. I am convinced that the imprisonment he has undergone is adequate punishment for the part he played in the affair."

The applicant will be on parole for life. Employment has been assured.

Lieutenant Governor.

BOARD OF PARDONS

In re Application of Frank X. Ertl—No. 1409

October Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Frank X. Ertl, convicted of embezzlement by public officer, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Blair County, on September 23, 1932, be commuted from two and one-half years to one year, three months expiring on December 23, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

From 1920 to 1932 the applicant was Tax Collector of Allegheny Township, Blair County. In 1929 he began using his personal funds to defray the delinquent taxes of some friends who had met financial reverses and who had appealed to him for help. The taxes were not paid and to recover his losses, he used some of the money collected for taxes to speculate in the stock market. An audit of his books disclosed a shortage. His arrest followed. He pleaded guilty to embezzlement by public officer, and was sentenced to a term of imprisonment of from two and one-half to five years in the Western State Penitentiary. On December 23, 1933, he will have served one-half of his minimum sentence, and our recommendation is that a commutation be made effective as of that date.

The applicant had an excellent reputation prior to his conviction. His conduct and employment records in the penitentiary have been excellent. The supervisor of paroles recommends clemency.

The applicant will be on parole until 1937. Employment has been assured by Fluke Auto Service, Altoona, Pa.

Respectfully submitted,

E. C. SHANNON,

In re Application of John Stoner—No. 1422

October Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John Stoner, convicted of breaking and entering, larceny, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Juniata County, on September 2, 1930, be commuted from four years to three years, one month, expiring on October 2, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant pleaded guilty to breaking and entering and larceny. He was sentenced to the Western State Penitentiary for from four to nine years. He has served over three-fourths of his minimum sentence. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

Mr. J. Harry Messersmith, the Parole Officer of Glenn Mills, has secured employment for the applicant and will act as his sponsor.

Applicant will be on parole until 1939.

In re Application of Thomas James Dowling—No. 1437

October Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of Thomas James Dowling, convicted of statutory rape, in the Courts of Oyer and Terminer and Quarter Sessions of Wyoming County, on June 20, 1931, be commuted from five years to two years, four months, expiring on October 20, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant was convicted of statutory rape, and was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for from five to fifteen years. We believe he has been sufficiently punished. Our reasons follow:

(a) This is the applicant's first offense.

(b) His conduct while in prison has been excellent.

(c) He has served almost one-half of his minimum sentence.

(d) His wife and five children are in urgent need of his support.

The trial district attorney, trustees of the penitentiary and supervisor of paroles are in favor of clemency.

The applicant will be on parole until 1946. Employment has been assured.

In re Application of William Barr—No. 1441

October Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of William Barr, convicted of statutory rape in the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Allegheny County on October 13, 1931, be commuted from four years to two years, expiring on October 13, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1931, the applicant was convicted of statutory rape. The report from the Board of Trustees of the Western State Penitentiary states, "the plaintiffs of the case were known to be prostitutes, altho one of them was under age. Further, the charge was the outcome of a feud between the two families involved and the litigious temperament of the father of one of the girls. It is not likely that any moral or physical harm was done to the girls." The district attorney states that the sentence of the court was too severe and that he is in favor of a commutation. The supervisor of paroles also recommends a commutation. Prior to the conviction, the applicant was never involved in any trouble. We believe he has been sufficiently punished.

The applicant will be on parole until 1939. Employment has been assured.

In re Application of George W. Hutchison—No. 1447

October Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that George W. Hutchison, convicted of aggravated assault and battery in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County, on April 8, 1927, be pardoned.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant, a special police officer for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, caused the arrest of an employee of the Company for stealing. This employee in turn caused his arrest for aggravated assault and battery, alleging that the applicant, in order to secure a confession, had hit him on the mouth. The applicant was indicted and convicted of the charge. Sentence was suspended and he was ordered to pay the costs. Some time later the costs were placed on the county.

The Sheriff of Allegheny County wishes to appoint the applicant as a deputy, but because of an Act of June 23, 1931, cannot do so. A pardon will enable the Sheriff to make the appointment. The District Attorney of Allegheny County, trial judge and supervisor of paroles recommend a pardon.

In re Application of David L. Miles—No. 1450

October Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above aplication having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of David L. Miles, convicted of robbery and attempt to commit robbery, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Dauphin County on March 31, 1932, be commuted from two and one-half years to one year, seven months, expiring on October 31, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

The applicant pleaded guilty to robbery and attempt to commit robbery. He was sentenced to the Eastern State Penitentiary for from two and one-half to five years. He has served more than one-half of his minimum sentence.

The trial judge states, "I am heartily in accord with the prayer of this petition. I have been in conference with the district attorney who is also in favor of the pardon being granted. Without the testimony of this man we could not have convicted the chief criminal in the hold-up in the upper end of the county. His was the master mind, while the applicant for pardon here was only one of his tools. I think he should have some consideration at your hands as his testimony helped us to bring to justice a man whom the people of the county say was just a common nuisance and a criminal." We agree with the judge's conclusion.

The applicant will be on parole until 1937. Employment is assured.

In re Application of John Katsanikas—No. 1451

October Session, 1933.

To His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Sir: The above application having been heard, upon due public notice, in open session, the undersigned members of the Board of Pardons recommend that the minimum sentence of John Katsanikas, convicted of conspiracy, arson, setting fire to goods with intent to defraud insurers, in the Court of Quarter Sessions of Washington County, on August 17, 1932, be commuted from two years to one year, two months, expiring on October 17, 1933.

Our reasons for making this recommendation are as follows:

In 1932, the applicant was influenced by an arson ring into having his home insured and set on fire for the purpose of collecting the insurance. No lives were imperiled by the fire.

The trial district attorney states, "The imposition of these different sentences indicates that the Court recognized the difference in degrees of guilt, and also that the Court took into consideration the previous records of these particular defendants and their good reputations in the communities in which they resided. I have conferred with the sentencing judge with reference to these cases since notice and copies of these applications were served upon this office, and have been informed by him, and am advising your Board, that had the Act of Assembly fixed a lesser term than two years as a minimum sentence (that being the term which the Court imposed in each of these cases), the Court would have acted accordingly."

The supervisor of paroles and warden of the Washington County Jail recommend clemency. We are in accord with these recommendations.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE SECRETARY OF WAR REQUESTING CESSION OF JURISDICTION OVER THE CARLISLE BARRACKS MILITARY RESERVATION AND NEW CUMBERLAND GENERAL DEPOT.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington

June 6th, 1933.

Honorable Gifford Pinchot, Governor of Pennsylvania, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Dear Governor Pinchot:

Areas at Carlisle Barracks, Pennsylvania, have been in military use from the Revolutionary War period to the present time, except while occupied for an Indian school from 1879 to about 1918. The first purchase of some 27.67 acres was made in 1801. Additional tracts have been acquired from time to time since that date. However, the War Department has been unable to find any record that the State of Pennsylvania has ever ceded jurisdiction of the United States over that part of Carlisle Barracks known as the "Main Reservation" which contains approximately 161.38 acres. An Act of the State Legislature approved February 15, 1901, ceded jurisdiction over a detached portion of the Reservation known as the "Farm Tract."

In connection with the World War the United States acquired as a site for a General Depot the fee simple title to approximately 843.25 acres of land located about two and one-half miles southeasterly of the Borough of New Cumberland and approximately seven miles southeasterly of Harrisburg in York County, Pennsylvania. It has been determined to retain this property as a permanent military post.

In order that these tracts may be properly administered by the Federal Government as a part of the military establishment, it is deemed necessary that the United States have exclusive jurisdiction over them. Therefore there has been prepared and is inclosed draft of an act of cession of jurisdiction with a view to the submission of the same to the State Legislature for its consideration and the enactment thereof, if it meets with approval.

In preparing a description of the boundaries of the lands over which cession of jurisdiction is desired, the War Department has used a metes and bounds description of each tract in its entirety, these descriptions being taken from surveys and maps of the Reservation made by the Quartermaster Corps of the Army. In doing this the War Department has followed the method adopted by the General Assembly of Pennsylvania in the Act of April 25, 1929, (Laws of Pennsylvania 1929, p. 755), by which Act jurisdiction over the Army Air Depot and Flying Field in Dauphin County, Pennsylvania, was ceded to the United States. This method of description rather than a description parcel by parcel as described in the deeds of conveyance by the United States is considered desirable for the following reasons: Each main tract was acquired in a number of more or less irregular tracts or parcels, many of which were very small. If jurisdiction should be ceded over these lands parcel by parcel it would probably be found necessary, in the event any crime should be committeed on the reservation, to prove upon which particular parcel it occurred in order that the Federal authorities might exercise jurisdiction. In some instances it might be very difficult or even impracticable to secure such proof. It follows from this situation that any act of cession of jurisdiction over these reservations, to be of the most practicable value to the United States, should describe each main tract by a metes and bounds description of its exterior boundaries.

Accompanying the draft of the proposed act of cession are maps of Carlisle Barracks Military Reservation and New Cumberland General Depot, dated February, 1932 and April, 1933, respectively, upon which are shown the exterior boundaries of the respective reservations.

It is requested that the draft of the proposed act of cession, together with this letter and other papers above referred to, be submitted by you to the Legislature now in session, and that you use your good offices in securing early action thereon.

Sincerely yours,

GEO. H. DERN,
Secretary of War.

An Act to cede jurisdiction to the United States over that portion of the Carlisle Barracks known as the "Main Reservation" located in Cumberland County, and over the tract of land and buildings occupied by the New Cumberland Depot located in York County.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the jurisdiction of the State of Pennsylvania is hereby ceded to the United States of America, for the occupation and use for purposes of national defense and for the erection and maintenance of the necessary buildings for the military or other public use of the United States, over all that tract or parcel of land situate approximately one and one-half miles northeasterly of the Town of Carlisle in Cumberland County, State of Pennsylvania, comprising that portion of Carlisle Military Reservation known as the "Main Reservation" and over all that tract or parcel of land comprising the New Cumberland General Depot situate in York County, State of Pennsylvania, on the southerly shore of the Susquehanna River, about two and one-half miles southeasterly of the Borough of New Cumberland, and approximately seven miles southeasterly of the City of Harrisburg, which tracts are more particularly described as follows:

Whereas, At a hearing this afternoon before the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives, statements were made by A. Leo Weil, Esq., as follows:

"Don't misunderstand me, we are perfectly willing to pay our full share of the taxes. We don't object to that at all. We are today, we always have been, and we always will be willing to stand up with the other citizens of the Commonwealth and carry our share of the burden, but we are not going to be treated as an outlaw, we are not going to be treated as an organization engaged in that business that when they want the money they feel that you can go to them and get it, and they used to get it, and not legitimately and properly, but by devious and various means, and we have already had applications for payment of certain amounts, so that when you pass your control bill and put it in the hands of the State Control Stores, parties who say they can control things, and if we would pay them a certain amount they will see we get five-sixths of the business"; and

Whereas, Such statements cannot go unchallenged by this House, but the Members thereof and the people of this Commonwealth are entitled to know the truth or falsity of such charges; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized to appoint a committee of five Members of this House whose duty it shall be to fully and impartially investigate the charges set forth in the preamble hereof, and make report thereof to the House as early as possible;

Resolved, That the said committee shall have power to issue subpoenas under the hand and seal of its chairman requesting and commanding any person or persons to appear before them and to answer such questions touching matters being inquired into by the committee and to produce such books, papers, records and documents as the committee may deem necessary. Such subpoenas may be served upon any person and shall have the same force and effect as subpoenas issued out of the courts of this Commonwealth. Each member of said committee shall have power to administer oaths and affirmations to witnesses appearing before the committee. Any person who shall wilfully neglect or refuse to testify before said committee or to produce any books, papers, records or documents, shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

Mr. Weil, I now ask you directly in the statement that you made, that you said Mr. Rosensteel said that certain person said that if he was paid, a certain person was paid a certain amount, he was to get you five-sixths of the business, was that person designated or described in any manner so that you would know who was referred to by Mr. Rosensteel?

A. It was not, and if you will permit me to read this statement, you can ask the questions intelligently if you want to develop the facts.

Mr. WILSON: Mr. Weil, this committee don't intend that you shall conduct yourself that way. This is a committee of inquiry by the Pennsylvania Legislature, and we don't intend to have you act that way before the committee.

THE WITNESS: I propose to keep within my rights, whether in Court or anywhere else, and I am in my rights here.

BY MR. WITKIN:

Q. Are you in a position to give the committee any information as to who the certain persons were that made this proposition. You have certain rights for the purpose of this inquiry is to ascertain who that person was, do you know?

A. I do not.

Q. You mean to say that without knowing who that person was that you made this statement which I have quoted to you before the Ways and Means Committee yesterday?

A. I made that statement upon the authority of Schenley Products Company.

Q. In that conference you referred to the president of that company saying to you, along with others, that a certain person had said that if a certain amount of money was paid, that your company could get five-sixths of the business, is that true?

A. No.

Q. What did Mr. Rosensteel say that caused you to make that statement?

A. He said that two people, he was informed, had went to this other officer, that two people called upon that officer and made that proposition.

Q. Did he say who that officer was?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Who was that officer?

A. I have forgotten which one it was.

Q. How many officers are there in that company that you know of?

A. There is a president and vice-president.

Q. Who is the president?

A. Mr. Rosensteel.

Q. What is the name of the vice-president?

A. I really don't know who the vice president is of the Schenley Products Company.

Q. What is the name of the secretary?

A. I don't know that.

Q. Did Mr. Rosensteel mention the name of the officer who had received this information?

A. No.

Q. Do you know the officer who did receive the information?

A. I think I do.

Q. What is his name?

A. I think it is Harold Jacoby.

Q. Where is he located? What officer is he of the company?

A. I don't know what office he holds in the Schenley Products Company, but I know he is the president of the Joseph H. Finch Company.

Q. Where is that located?

A. It is located at Schenley, Pennsylvania.

Q. Was Mr. Jacoby one of those present that were present at this meeting when Mr. Rosensteel made that statement?

A. According to my best recollection, yes.

Q. Can you tell us who besides Mr. Jacoby, Mr. Rosensteel, your son and yourself were present?

A. I don't recall who the others were, but there were several others present.

Q. Did Mr. Jacoby make any statement?

A. No sir.

Q. Did Mr. Rosensteel make any statement who the person was in Mr. Jacoby's presence?

A. No sir.

Q. Was the name mentioned at any time as to who made this proposition?

A. No sir.

Q. Was anyone described in his official capacity as to who made the proposition?

A. No sir.

Q. Didn't you testify that the man was not designated by name, that he was designated in some manner?

A. I did not.

Q. Do you mean to say that there was no possible statement made by any of the persons present at that meeting which would indicate any of them who could possibly have made this proposition?

A. There was nothing said in that statement which would indicate the name, description or designation of the party who made that statement, or the parties who made that statement.

Q. Mr. Weil, is it correct that upon the mere statement of Mr. Rosensteel not backed up by any corroborative evidence, not backed up by any authoritative information, you appeared before the Ways and Means Committee at a public meeting, and publicly charged certain persons made application for certain amounts of money in order to have this legislation put into enactment?

A. Put into what?

Q. Enacted, made a law. Do you not understand the last question?

A. I will let you draw your own conclusions. I stated the facts and I don't argue the questions with the Chairman.

Q. Mr. Weil, you appeared before the Ways and Means Committee, did you not?

A. I did.

Q. And when you were asked, as appears on page 88 of the testimony. "The Chairman: May I say, Mr. Wilson, that in line with that you may rest assured that in short order there will be a proper resolution introduced in the House to sift these charges.

"Mr. WILSON: We won't let that go by without finding out who is doing it.

"Mr. WEIL: You will find us ready to assist in every way possible." Did you not so state?

A. I did.

Q. Did you not also state that you were taking measures yourself that would be more efficacious than ours to bring these parties to justice?

A. I did.

Q. What steps have you taken to bring these parties to justice?

A. I decline to state.

Q. You know who the parties are whom you are trying to bring to justice?

A. I do not.

Q. What could you possibly mean by stating that you are taking measures to bring certain parties to justice when you now state that you do not know who those parties are?

A. I can only furnish the brains for the statement and not the brains to understand them.

BY MR. WILSON:

Q. What is the meaning of that?

A. Just exactly what I said.

I insist upon entering upon this record an objection.

BY MR. WITKIN:

Q. Will you be a gentleman?

A. I am going to be a gentleman.

Q. If you are, you will sit down and let the Chairman ask you a question.

A. I insist upon entering into the record an objection. I have appeared here to b eexamined and cross-examined, and the manner in which I have been treated by this Committee I consider a disgrace and improper and not worthy of the Committee of this Legislature.

Mr. WITKIN: If the Chairman of the Committee were to state what he thinks of the witness, the newspapers would not be able to print it. May I say to you, Mr. Weil, that you came before this committee voluntarily, and if necessary subpoena you in order to have you appear here today?

A. That is untrue.

Mr. WITKIN: I will call other members of the House who were present, and you only stated that you might appear, that you didn't know, that you would see what you could do about it, and if that answer was not satisfactory, I told you that we would subpoena you.

The WITNESS: I don't propose to let that statement go unchallenged. I said to you that I would appear, but that I could not appear at 5 o'clock, because I expected to be before the Senate at that time, but that if I could get through I would appear, and then in a gentlemanly manner you stated to me "Very well, we will have to subpoena you," and I said, "Very well, go ahead."

Mr. WITKIN: I am not interested in any personal differences between you and me, and we will assume that for the purposes of this inquiry.

BY MR. WITKIN:

Q. Why do you decline to state what measures were taken to bring these parties to justice?

A. Because they are confidential communications between my client and myself.

Q. Who is your client?

A. The Schenley Products Company.

Q. We are not asking you what your client told you. We are asking you what you are doing, whether you personally have taken any measures to bring these parties to justice when you made these remarks?

A. I decline to answer that question.

Q. On what ground do you decline to answer that?

A. For the reason that it would be revealing a confidential matter between counsel and client, and that it would absolutely prevent the consummation of what we are seeking to accomplish.

Q. Do I understand you to say or infer that you do know who the parties responsible are, and that you are making an effort to bring them to justice, but that you don't want this Committee to know just what is being done?

A. That is absolutely untrue.

Q. What is your position with bringing the parties to justice if you don't know the names of the parties. Will you explain to us how they can be brought to justice?

A. They undoubtedly cannot be brought to justice until their names and identity is disclosed, but every lawyer knows there are various ways of ascertaining the identity and finding out who it was, even if you don't know when you started your investigation.

Q. Is Mr. Jacoby in Harrisburg?

A. He was this afternoon.

Q. Did you speak to Mr. Jacoby since yesterday?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. You knew you were going to be requested to appear before this Committee?

A. I did.

Q. Did you ask Mr. Jacoby, or did you make any inquiry of him to ascertain who the persons were made this proposition to him?

A. I did.

Q. Did he tell you?

A. He told me he didn't know their names.

Q. Do you know where Mr. Jacoby is now?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you spoken to any other officer of your company since yesterday with a view of ascertaining who the parties were who made this statement?

A. I have not.

Q. Has Mr. Jacoby left Harrisburg to your knowledge?

A. I don't know if he has left, he said he was going to leave.

Q. Do you know where he is stopping?

A. He was stopping at the Penn Harris Hotel.

Q. Do you know his exact address in New York?

A. I do not. They were changing their offices, they were moving.

Q. Do you know what the new address is?

A. I do not.

Q. Are you counsel for Mr. Rosensteel?

A. No sir, for the company.

Q. I ask you whether you will advise Mr. Rosensteel to appear before this Committee?

A. I decline to answer that question.

Q. Why do you decline to answer that question?

A. Because it will involve disclosures and advice between counsel and client.

Q. Don't you think the public interest, where charges of graft and bribery are concerned, are of greater importance than the relation between counsel and client, especially when it means bringing to justice men who are endeavoring to stullify the State of Pennsylvania?

A. At times under certain conditions, yes; and at other times under certain conditions when the results to be accomplished are very questionable, no.

Q. What do you think under the present condition as it exists before this Committee and this Legislature?

A. I don't think anything can be accomplished by the methods being pursued by this Committee.

Q. Don't you think that the Legislature ought to procure all the facts when the statement was made by a responsible lawyer of Pittsburgh, as you are?

A. I believe it is entirely proper for the Legislature to obtain in a proper way all of the facts with relation to any statement made, such as I made.

Q. Do you not realize that you, being the only person that made that statement, that you now stand in the position that you are the only person to whom we can apply in an endeavor to arrive at who the persons are?

A. Yes sir.

Q. Don't you think you ought to cooperate with us to the fullest extent to ascertain who they are?

A. Yes.

Q. And don't you think you could assist us in so doing by having the president of the company you represent voluntarily before this Committee, and bring him and Mr. Jacoby in in an endeavor to assist this Legislature?

A. I would think so, but I would be bound by my relations to them as their counsel, by the relation of counsel to client. That is their privilege as well as mine.

Q. May I ask you, will you advise them that that is the proper thing to do and leave the determination of that to them?

A. I would not hesitate to tell them to give you all of the information in their possession that would lead to a discovery of these parties.

Q. Therefore I take it that you will advise them, that it is the proper thing for them to appear before this Committee?

A. That is a different question.

Q. Will you advise Mr. Rosensteel and Mr. Jacoby to voluntarily appear before this Committee. Being residents of other States, they are not subject to subpoena; will you advise them to voluntarily appear here so that we may arrive at the truth or falsity of this charge?

A. I would not.

Q. Why not?

A. Because I would not have them come here as I have, and be insulted.

Q. Why is it that yesterday, when you appeared before the Ways and Means Committee, and you were asked who the persons were, that you did not state that you did not know who they were?

A. I think I did so state, but I am not so sure.

The CHAIRMAN: Let me read you from page 85 of the testimony: "The Chairman: I take it, Mr. Weil, that it is the duty of every citizen that we be informed of any such applications having been made with respect to what the State Control Commission would do if you went along." And your answer was: "Mr. WEIL: Let me say to you, Mr. Chairman, we are taking measures ourselves, that would be efficacious to bring these parties when and if the opportunity occurs to the bar of justice and the punishment, and we can do it more successfully than we can do through a committee of thirty or forty or fifty men." And I further read, in answer to a statement the Chairman made, you said: "We will be very happy to take up that suggestion later." And again on page 87, "Mr. WILSON: Who connected with your company would know of this effort or these suggestions in that the Pennsylvania Legislature might find out who was making these representations. We are much interested in knowing who is doing it." And your answer was, "Mr. WEIL: We all are, and more of that will be heard in the future." I ask you whether or not in any statement that you made yesterday you indicated directly or indirectly that you did not know the names of the persons who made the propositions that you publicly stated?

A. You may interpret it as you please, but I answered your question as I deemed proper.

Q. I ask you here, did you in answer to any of the questions propounded to you by members of the Committee, state to the Committee that you did not know who made these representations?

A. For the simple reason, if you want to know the reason, that it would have interfered with the measure that we had undertaken to ascertain who the parties were, and to have disclosed all of these facts would simply impeded and prevented the efforts that we were making.

Q. So I take it that you now state that there are some facts within your knowledge that you did not wish to disclose yesterday?

A. That is not true.

Q. Did you not so state?

A. I didn't.

Q. Did you not state that the reason you didn't know the names was because of certain facts, if disclosed, would impede or prevent the bringing of the persons to justice?

A. I did not.

Q. What facts did you refer to?

A. The fact that we didn't know who they were.

Q. There were no facts you could give us yesterday concerning who the persons were, is that right?

A. Yes.

Q. And there are no facts you now have that you can produce there by the statement you made before the Committee yesterday?

A. I decline to answer that question, because they are insulting questions.

Q. I ask you now whether or not you have any facts that you can give this committee to substantiate the statements you made yesterday?

A. I have the facts I stated.

Q. Have you any facts to substantiate the charges you made?

A. I have the facts I stated at the time I made the statement to the committee.

Q. Have you any facts to substantiate the statement of yesterday, "We have already had applications for certain amounts," have you any facts to substantiate that statement?

A. Nothing except the statement of the officers to that effect.

Q. And from whom did the statement eminate, if you know?

A. Yes, I told you so Monday, from Mr. Rosensteel.

Q. And where Mr. Rosensteel got the information, you say you don't know?

A. No sir.

Q. And you don't know of any applications to your knowledge that were made to your company?

A. I do not.

Q. If you know of any amounts of money that were asked for?

A. No sir.

Q. I ask you if you have any facts to substantiate your other statement: "When you pass your control bill and put it into the hands of the State Control Stores, the parties when they control things if we pay them a certain amount." Have you any facts to substantiate who the parties were, how much money was asked for, and how much was to be paid?

A. I have the facts of that proposition being made from the statement of the officers of the corporation. I have no facts, and there are none to my knowledge, as to what amount they demanded, or how they proposed to go about it, or the names of the parties, or who they were.

Q. Have you any facts to substantiate the other statement: "If we will pay them a certain amount they will see that we get five-sixths of the business."

A. I have the fact that officers of the company told me that statement was made.

Q. Did you hear anything, anyone at any time, give a statement, other than the officers to whom you referred, that if certain money was paid you could get five-sixths of the business?

A. I was not present.

Q. You are a practicing lawyer?

A. I hope so.

Q. For how long?

A. Fifty-four years.

Q. In the city of Pittsburgh?

A. Not all of the time. Part of the time in the city of Bradford, the home of Senator Wilson.

Q. You agree with us that the charges you made yesterday are of the same character?

A. I do.

Q. And do you realize that when you make these charges there ought to be substantiative proof of the charges, do you not?

A. I think that the facts by the statement of the Chairman that the charges were made is a misapplication and a perversion of what I said. What I said, as quoted by the Chairman and as contained in the record, that these propositions were made to the company, and I referred to them as my having been informed that they were so made. I made no direct charges myself, because I had no direct facts upon which to make them, but I stand on the statement I made.

Q. Do I understand you, Mr. Weil, to say at the present time you have no charges to make against anyone?

A. I certainly have not.

Q. And that any charges or innuendos that may have been drawn from your statement, were not intended by you to be charges against anyone, is that correct?

A. I am not responsible for the innuendo of any kind.

Q. Are you responsible for the statement of your tongue?

A. Sometimes, generally.

Q. Are you responsible for the ones you made yesterday before the Ways and Means Committee?

A. Absolutely.

Q. Are you responsible for the statement, or do you wish to restrict it, wherein you said this: "There are parties who say they can control things if we will pay them a certain amount, they will see that we get five-sixths of the business." Do you stand on that statement, or do you wish to restrict it, or do you wish it to remain in the record?

A. I wish it to remain in the record, I stand on the statement.

Q. Do you consider this statement was made by you against unknown people, or do you not?

A. Yes sir.

Q. And therefore when the Chairman of the Committee drew the conclusion they were charges, you agreed with the Chairman of the Committee?

A. Not charges by me.

Q. Charges emanating from some other source made by someone else?

A. That the company so informed me.

Q. On whose behalf were you making this statement?

A. On behalf of my client.

Q. Who was your client?

A. The Schenley Products Company.

Q. Do I understand you that the statement you made as recorded on page 84 of the testimony, that the statement was made by you solely as attorney for the Schenley Products Company, that the statements were made by me on information furnished to me by the president of the Schenley Products Company," and you made them as their counsel?

A. I made them as a representative of the company and as their attorney.

Q. So your position is this, that your client, whom you have just mentioned, made certain direct charges with relation to bribery and graft, and that you merely repeated them as their mouthpiece, is that correct?

A. I decline to answer that question.

Q. On what grounds do you decline to answer the question?

A. It is not true, and I don't care to go into an argument with the Chairman of the Committee. If the question were politely and gentlemanly put, I would be glad to answer it.

Q. I don't care to argue with the witness. Will the reporter read the previous question

(Question read.)

Q. Is that correct?

A. No.

Q. You have just stated to us that you didn't make these charges?

A. It is no use mincing words. The witness has certain rights before a Committee of the Senate.

Q. What rights are being interfered with?

A. By asking questions in a manner that is unfair to the witness and by this statement on the record, misstatements on the record. For example, you used an expression in your question, "The mouthpiece of your client." That is absolutely unfair and unjust, to put it in that form.

Q. We will reformulate the question. You have said to this Committee today that you did not make the charges. Have you not so stated?

A. Yes.

Q. I asked you who made the charges?

A. And I told you I repeated what I was informed by the president of the Company.

Q. So that, Mr. Weil, we are in accord, that the company you represent are the ones who made the charges, and not you?

A. I won't make it the charges, but the statement of the facts.

Q. So that this statement that appears in the record you wish the Committee to look upon as the statement from the company and not from you?

A. Absolutely.

Q. We have finally arrived at that.

A. I have stated that from the beginning.

Q. Will you state what, if anything, you have done since yesterday to ascertain who the persons were who made these offers?

A. I talked with Mr. Jacoby. There was no one else here that had any knowledge on the subject.

Q. Did you call Mr. Rosensteel or endeavor to talk to him?

A. I did not.

Q. Did you call anywhere else?

A. I did not.

Q. I have one concluding question to ask you. Do you mean to tell this committee that you have absolutely no recollection of the identity of the person who Mr. Rosensteel said was the party who made these charges or requests or applications?

A. I never made that statement. I never at any time said it was a question of recollection. I stated emphatically that he didn't mention the name, and he didn't know the name. Why do you put it "my recollection." That is what I referred to as unfairness on the part of the Chairman to the witness.

Q. Mr. Weil——

A. There is an audience, understand that.

Q. When you are through, let me know.

A. You will find out when I am through.

Q. Have you finished?

A. In a minute, yes.

Q. Mr. Weil, when these statements were made by Mr. Rosensteel, did you ask him who made them?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he tell you?

A. He said he didn't know.

Q. Did you ask Mr. Jacoby at the time who made them?

A. Yes.

Q. Did he tell you?

A. He said he didn't know.

Q. Did you make any other effort at that time to ascertain who made the statement?

A. I made several efforts by inquiry to Mr. Jacoby as to whether he could give me some information as to the identity, and he said he could not.

Q. And that was the only information you had that brought about your statement yesterday before the Committee?

A. I said that before, I had it from the officers of the company, and on that basis I made that statement.

BY MR. WILSON:

Q. Before the Committee yesterday you stated that "You will find it," I take it, referring to your company "ready to assist you in every possible way." Now, you realize that we have a duty upon us to find out this matter that has been publicly stated at the hearing. What can you do now, what will you do now, to assist this Committee in getting to the bottom of this matter and finding out the facts of this transaction and who is attempting or pretending that they could influence officials of the State of Pennsylvania?

A. Just as soon as we can ascertain who the parties were; just as soon as the measures which we have already put on foot develop the information that gives us the names of the parties, who they are, and so on, I will be only too happy to give them to this Committee or to any other authoritative body in the State, and not only that, but we expect to make them public by prosecution if we can get the information substantially direct.

BY MR. WILSON:

Q. We appreciate that and are not disputing the fact.

Mr. CHAIRMAN: The Chairman of the Committee disputes the fact, Mr. Wilson.

BY MR. WILSON:

Q. What can you give as a lead for this Committee by which we can find the information, and you appreciate it is our duty to do it. What information can you give us on which we can make an investigation to find this out, Mr. Weil?

A. I am afraid none.

Q. Did you make an effort yesterday to find out where this took place and what was said?

A. Yes sir.

Q. What did he say to you, Mr. Weil, what did he tell you?

A. He said that the two men called upon him and made the proposition, and that he was indignant and told them to get out, that his company would not engage in any such proposition as that. He said he realized afterward that he had been hasty, instead of letting them go on and calling into conference other members of the company, so they could have found out who the parties were, and I gave him instructions then, I said, "As your counsel, if any propositions of a similar character is made, my advice to you is to arrange in some way that others will be present to hear the proposition, and I feel in that way you can get the names of the parties and all about it."

Q. Can you give us any information from which we can get started?

A. I am sorry I cannot; I have been trying my very best, Senator Wilson, to get the information, to start on myself.

Q. You know that we have a police force in Pennsylvania, a very efficient police force?

A. Sometimes.

Q. I take it that the State Police Force of Pennsylvania are as efficient a force of police as there are in the United States?

A. I think so.

Q. Can you give us any information, and we call on you formally in accordance with your statement, "You will find us ready to assist you in every possible way." We are asking you to give us some light as to this transaction, so that we may place the proper officers of the State of Pennsylvania on a proper investigation, and which will be much more efficient than what your company can make?

A. I doubt that, but I repeat again, that I will be very glad, sir, as soon as we obtain information that would be available, which could be followed up by the State Police or any other authority better than we could, I will be very glad to give it to you.

Q. Would you have Mr. Jacoby come to Pennsylvania with a view that he could consult with our State Police, with a view that we might run down these people?

A. I will try to arrange that, but after all, it is a very short trip from Harrisburg to New York or to Pittsburgh at Schenley, where you have a part of your State Police. Mr. Jacoby is up there frequently at the Schenley Plant, and no doubt arrangements could be made from time to time at any place you might designate, and I will advise him to give them all of the information he has without any hesitation.

Q. Will you advise Mr. Jacoby to appear before this Committee so that we can find out what he knows first-hand, he is the officer to whom the offer was made and the people of Pennsylvania would very much like to know what he knows about this thing, because he can testify first-hand?

A. I think I have answered that question, and I don't want to answer it again. I would not advise any client of mine to appear before the Committee under the circumstances, because I believe he would be insulted as I was.

BY MR. WITKIN:

Q. If the present Chairman retires from the Chairman of this Committee, would you be willing to so advise him?

A. If the present Chairman will resign from the Committee and appoint some other of these gentlemen here, or anybody else as Chairman of the Committee to conduct the investigation, I would advise Mr. Jacoby come before the Committee and give him all of the information he has.

Q. You are anxious to get rid of this Chairman?

A. I don't think the Chairman has been courteous.

BY MR. WILSON:

Q. I don't think that that position is worthy of you, Mr. Weil, and your position in Pennsylvania, or your company. I don't think that it is a position that you can afford to take, and I say that in all friendliness. We have been friends for many years, we come out of the same law office.

A. Yes, and I hope that friendliness will continue.

Q. I don't think that that statement is worthy of you. This investigation goes far beyond the members of this Committee, it goes to the question of whether this business is going to be conducted properly, and I think you should make on your own terms what you said, and give us all possible assistance.

BY MR. HUTTON:

Q. Mr. Weil, as I gather, your remarks boiled down to a few words are that Mr. Rosensteel knows nothing about this matter except as he got it from Mr. Jacoby; is that correct?

A. From Mr. Jacoby, and from, I think, other members of the company. That is, he didn't get it personally, that all approaches were through other representatives in the Philadelphia office, and he repeated it to Mr. Rosensteel.

Q. So then he got it from Mr. Jacoby and other representatives in Philadelphia offices, and also from others?

A. He got it from those gentlemen and also from a telephone conversation which the party had with one of the officers in one of the offices of the company.

Q. Then Mr. Rosensteel would be an important witness?

A. No, he would not know anything about it, except what had been reported to him.

Q. Who would be the most important witness?

A. Mr. Jacoby is the most important witness, and also the representative of the company in Philadelphia who was approached, these two men would be.

BY MR. WITKIN:

Q. Who is that representative?

A. I don't know his name.

BY MR. HUTTON:

Q. Does Mr. Jacoby know his name?

A. Oh, yes.

Q. You spoke of two men havng approached Mr. Jacoby?

A. Two men called at his office in New York and made this proposition that I stated.

Q. Now, that was aside from the report that Mr. Jacoby received from the Philadelphia representative?

A. Yes sir, that was a different party.

Q. Did Mr. Jacoby indicate when that approach was made by these two men?

A. He didn't give me the exact date. He gave me to understand it was quite recently.

Q. Did he know these two men?

A. No. That has been stated before by me, that he didn't know them and he didn't have their names.

BY MR. WITKIN:

Q. How soon after this occurred were you advised?

A. I was advised of it last Sunday.

Q. Did you take any steps to communicate with the Pennsylvania authorities, some legally constituted police authorities after you were advised of it?

A. I did not.

Q. You took no steps at all?

A. Not such as you ask.

Q. So the first time you were advised of this on Sunday of the present week?

A. This last Sunday.

Q. What time on Sunday were you advised?

A. I was there from 2.30 until 5 something in the afternoon, when we took the 6 o'clock train for Harrisburg.

Q. From that time on you were busily engaged in Harrisburg?

A. Pretty busy.

Q. So you had no time to take measures yourself?

A. I gave orders, as I generally do. I don't do the work myself.

Q. You gave orders, but you took no measures yourself?

A. I gave instructions to officers of the company what they should do.

Q. Did you communicate with any Pennsylvania authorities?

A. No sir.

Q. Do you think it was your duty to do so?

A. No.

Q. Now, Mr. Weil, the Committee takes the position that you were wrong in your attitude with respect to this Committee, and the Chairman of this Committee is very anxious to see Mr. Jacoby before this Committee, so much so that he is willing to let your views prevail with respect to insulting questions. May I ask that the Chairman will refrain from asking Mr. Jacoby any questions, whether insulting or proper, will you produce Mr. Jacoby here tomorrow, will produce him?

A. If he remains over tonight, I will be very glad to have him come before the Committee some time tomorrow, which will be mutually agreeable.

Q. And if not you will promise this Committee at this time that you will produce Mr. Jacoby in the next few days?

A. I cannot say I will promise to produce Mr. Jacoby. He is a busy man, has large interests, and is sometimes in New York and sometimes in Cincinnati and sometimes in Schenley.

Q. You will promise to produce him——

A. Don' t let us put it "produce him." I will advise him to come, and I believe he will come.

Q. You will advise him to appear before this Committee, as quickly as possible.

A. Yes.

BY MR. WILSON:

Q. I am much interested in this Philadelphia transaction. How can we find out what the name of this man was in Philadelphia?

A. I think Mr. Jacoby knows it, not the name of the name of the man who approaches, but the name of the man who was approached.

Q. Could you not get that for us, don't you think it is fair for a company of your size, to assist the Legislature to get this name for us as soon as possible, so that we can find out what this man knows?

A. I will be very glad to, if Mr. Jacoby is still in town. He was telling us this afternoon that he had a very important engagement, that he would have to leave this morning. If he is in town, I can get it this evening and give it to you tomorrow, if I am in town, and if I am not, I will send it by mail.

Q. We are very much interested. You are a member of the Bar and we think you as an attorney that appears before the Legislature should have some respect for the Legislature and assist them.

A. I will be very glad to do what I can.

BY MR. WITKIN:

Q. Will the Sergeant-at-Arms appear before the Committee?

(The Sergeant-at-Arms appeared.)

Mr. WITKIN: The Sergeant-at-Arms will secure a subpoena and go to the Penn-Harris Hotel and see if he can secure Mr. Jacoby and summon him before this House. We will take this matter in our own hands.

BY MR. McELWEE:

Q. Do I understand there were really three representations made, one in the City of New York, one in the city of Philadelphia, and one over the telephone, from some person in Pennsylvania to somebody in New York?

A. I don't know as to the telephone conversation, whether that was from somebody in Pennsylvania, or whether it was somebody in New York. I don't have that information. I know there was a telephone conversation that Mr. Jacoby told me about, but the representation in Philadelphia was to their representative in Philadelphia, and the two parties appeared in New York at the office of the company.

Q. You do know that the telephone message was received by the company in New York, but you don't know where it emanated from?

A. I do not.

Q. How many agents of your company are there in the city of Philadelphia?

A. I don't know.

Q. Was it in your main office in the city of Philadelphia?
A. I really don't know that.

BY MR. RUBY:

Q. Do you have any other information that would aid this Committee in its inquiry here today?

A. No sir.

Mr. WILSON: I suggest that Mr. Weil be invited to file with the Committee the statement he offered to make. I think he should be allowed to make the statement.

Mr. WEIL (Reading): I said in my remarks on Wednesday before the Ways and Means Committee, "Don't misunderstand me, we are perfectly willing to pay our fair share of the tax. We don't object to that at all. We always have been and always will be willing to stand up with the other citizens in the Commonwealth and carry our burden, but we are not going to be treated as an outlaw, we are not going to be treated as an organization engaged in the business that when you want money you can go to them and get it as you used to get it, not legitimately and properly, but by diverse and various means. We have already had applications for payment of certain amounts, so that when you pass your control bill and put it into the hands of State Control Stores, there are parties who said they can control things if we will pay them a certain amount, they will see that we get five-sixths of the business. Now, those things are worthwhile considering. These are things that can be done, but human nature must be taken into consideration when they are done, because otherwise it results in bribery and corruption in spite of everything that you can do."

I do not know that I can add anything new to this statement. The statement was made to me in New York Sunday last, by one of the officers of the company who was informed of these facts by other officers and representatives. He did not go into details. He gave me no names, and the parties who made these approaches were unkown to the officers of our company, and they were turned down with the statement that no such proposition would be given consideration.

One of the conversations occurred by telephone, and one of the conversations was reported by a representative of the company in Philadelphia, and another one of the conversations was by a call from the gentleman who made the statements above quoted.

The officers of our company entered into no negotiations with any of them, and informed them positively and emphatically that they would not be interested in any such proposition. As their counsel, I advised the officers that if any such propositions were subsequently made, they should take every means to ascertain the identity of the parties and to get the propositions in such a way as they could be absolutely proven, and not to depend upon the testimony of any single individual.

I am still of the same opinion that human nature must be taken into consideration in establishing any of these agencies where favoritism would be worth millions of dollars to certain parties dealing with such agencies.

The history of some of those States and countries which have adopted the State Stores confirm the foregoing opinion.

This statement is not confidential and if given to the public by the Committee, I reserve the right to see that I have been properly quoted.

By Mr. WITKIN:

Q. Mr. WEIL (addressing Mr. A. Leo Weil, Jr.), may I ask you if you will agree to appear before the Committee without notice as a witness that your father testified that you were one of the persons who was present at that conference?

A. I would be perfectly willing to be heard.

A. LEO WEIL, Jr., called and affirmed.

Mr. WITKIN: Mr. Weil, what is your address?

A. 721 Park Building, Pittsburgh.

Mr. A. Leo Weil, Sr. on account of his name, dont' take it out on him.

Mr. WITKIN: I have no personal interest in this matter, and I never let get out of room what happens in a room. If you think I have any ill feeling in this matter, you are mistaken. I am here only as a legislator, and as a legislator, I must say that I think the charges made in the case are a loseness of the tongue without ability to substantiate the charges.

Mr. WITKIN: Mr. Weil, Jr., it has been testified by your father that you and this person had a conference which was held on Sunday, I believe, in New York,—was it—

A. Yes sir, in New York.

Q. Were you present.

A. I was.

Q. Who else was present beside yourself?

A. My father, Mr. Rosensteel, Mr. Jacoby during a portion of the time. Several officers whose names I don't recall, of the National Distillers Company, and also three or four attorneys.

Q. Whose names you do or do not recall?

A. I recall the name of Mr. Breend.

Q. What is his full name?

A. That's all I know, Mr. Breend.

Q. Where from?

A. New York .

Q. How do you spell it?

A. B-r-e-e-n-d.

Q. I suppose that you would have no difficulty in getting his full name for the benefit of the Committee?

A. No.

Q. Now, Mr. Weil, will you tell us just what took place at that conference and what was said with respect to the subject matter before this Committee?

A. I don't think I should say what took place at that conference.

Q. Only with respect to the subject matter before this Committee, I said.

A. The statement was made by Mr. Rosensteel that the company or its officers had been approached on a number of occasions from parties in Pennsylvania who were willing to guarantee to the company for a consideration to obtain for it, I think the proportion was five-sixths of the liquor business.

Q. What else, if anything, do you recall?

A. As I recall he stated that there was some telephone conversation and an approach in New York by two parties, two men. He stated that he, himself, in view of this thorough something having been reported to him by the representatives of the company who had been called upon or so listed.

Q. Did he mention any particular name of the person who conveyed the information to him.

A. I don't believe he did, but I believe Mr. Jacoby mentioned that, that the two parties who had called, had called upon him.

Q. Did Mr. Jacoby indicate who the two parties were?

A. No; quite to the contrary. He said he did not.

Q. Did Mr. Jacoby state where they called upon him, when they called upon him.

A. No; except that it was quite recently. That is, when I say, "recently" I think he said within—he said within a week or two weeks, I believe.

Q. Was there any query or question directed to Mr. Jacoby as to why nothing had been done or whether anything had been done during that period of time up to the time that you were at the conference?

A. I couldn't answer that question, because I think it was about that time that some additional parties came to this meeting and it sort of broke up in different rooms after that. I was in another room talking with some of the other gentlemen. In other words, we were not all in one room at one time.

Q. Do you also represent this company, the Schenley Products Company, or are you associated with your father?

A. I am.

Q. Is there any light whatsoever that you can give to this Committee that would tend to substantiate the statements as made by your father at a public hearing before the Ways and Means Committee yesterday?

A. Of course, that is a pretty broad question, and I think I could answer it by stating it that I have personally known the officers who made the statements to my father and from my personal knowledge of them I would say that I absolutely believe that they would never have uttered or made such a statement unless the facts were absolutely true.

Q. And from your personal knowledge of them, Mr. Weil, I take it, we will say, you thoroughly believe, that, they also would want to co-operate with this Committee, irrespective of who the Chairman was.

A. I imagine so; at least, until they meet the Chairman.

Q. Now that you have answered me so pleasantly I have no other questions to ask you.

Mr. WILSON. Do you know who the agent is in regard to whom your father testified, in Philadelphia.

A. No; I don't know who the party is.

Q. Can't you obtain it for us?

A. I don't think that there will be any difficulty in getting the name.

Q. That is all right, I am interested in getting the name of this party in Philadelphia and the facts in regard to what happened in Philadelphia, because Mr. Weil does not seem to have the facts.

Mr. WEIL, Sr. The name of the agent in Philadelphia no difficulty about that whatever.

Mr. WILSON. Just as an ordinary matter of business, couldn't you have your company get that agent up here before this Committee, tell him to appear before this Committee so that he could be heard? Couldn't the facts in regard to the matter be placed before this Committee. Can't we get some information regarding it? It is not a question of cross examination, it is a question of having reputable people co-operate in running the facts down, because this is supposed to have taken place not only in New York, but also in this Commonwealth.

Mr. WEIL. Are you asking me a question?

Mr. WILSON: Yes; I am.

A. Insofar as the Philadelphia situation is concerned I know nothing about that phase of it, but in direct reply to your question, I refer you to what my father has already stated, namely that we will be glad to give to this Committee the names of the parties as soon as we are able to get them from Mr. Jacoby.

The CHAIRMAN: We would probably have them by tomorrow?

Mr. WEIL, Sr. I think so. If he isn't here, I will telegraph; that is, if I am here.

Mr. RUBY. Mr. Weil, Jr., when you heard that this proposition had been made in New York, did it strike you as a startling proposition?

A. Not a bit.

Q. Did you make any inquiry as to whether or not Mr. Jacoby had any reason to believe that the men who promised to deliver five-sixths of the business had the ability to deliver it?

A. No; other than to discuss the matter and suggest probably the same parties were calling upon other distillers and making the same proposition.

Q. Did Mr. Jacoby say whether or not they gave any assurance respecting their powers to deliver five-sixths of the business?

A. No; I recall that interview, it was somewhat short and abrupt.

Q. Did Mr. Jacoby indicate whether or not he was ready to believe that they could, or whether he doubted if they could.

A. Oh, no. He did not go into that phase of it with them. As I said, my understanding from Mr. Jacoby was that his interview with these gentlemen was exceedingly short and abrupt. He went into no details with them.

Q. When this proposition was stated at the meeting in New York, that you attended, did it cause any extended discussion.

A. As I say, we were discussing it when some other parties came in. The meeting, or at least the one I was attending at that particular moment sort of broke up and I happened to go into another room at the time and I don't know what took place thereafter with those particular parties.

Mr. HUTTON: I think, Mr. Weil, what Mr. Ruby means, was it merely casual or was it brought up as a serious matter.

A. No; it was brought up in connection with a discussion pertaining to the stores system in which the statement was made that already an approach had been made to the company.

The CHAIRMAN: Are there any other questions?

Mr. McELWEE: If I understand you right, Mr. Weil, that according to your information these gentlemen who came to Mr. Jacoby in New York did not disclose their identity.

A. That is my understanding; at least not to me, and Mr. Jacoby did not know who they were.

Q. They just walked in and just up and told him that they could deliver five-sixths of the liquor business in Pennsylvania.

A. Oh, I don't know whether they gave him names at the time, and he didn't remember what their names were or any of those details. I do know that he previously stated that he did not know who the parties were.

THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Weil, before we adjourn this meeting, copies of the transcript of the testimony will be available to you. Are you going to be in Harrisburg tomorrow?

A. Mr. WEIL, Sr. I don't know.

THE CHAIRMAN: What we are anxious to get from you by tomorrow is the name of this Philadelphia representative.

Mr. WEIL. As I said, if I am not here I will send it to you by mail.

THE CHAIRMAN. Will you send it to us by messenger or by telephone?

Mr. HUTTON: We would like to get through with this matter as quickly as possible.

Mr. WEIL, Sr. If Mr. Jacoby is in town, I will get it and send it right over to you. Shall I address it to the Chairman?

THE CHAIRMAN: If you have no objections, you may address it to the Chairman. Further, pardon me, I would like to ask the committee to stay in session as Mr. Jacoby is on his way. The Seargeant-at-Arms has reached Mr. Jacoby.

A. LEO WEIL, Sr. recalled by the Chairman.

Mr. WEIL, Sr., I call your attention to a piece of your testimony I forgot to read, page 104: Mr. Wilson said to you: "would it be possible, Mr. Weil, for you to give us the names of the people who approached your clients in order to save the expense and trouble of a legislative investigation?" and your answer: "it would be possible, but we don't propose to do it at this time." In view of your testimony today, may I ask you to explain your answer of yesterday, wherein you told Mr. Wilson that it would be possible for you to give us the names, but that you were not going to do it at that time.

A. For the simple reason that at that time, I supposed, Mr. Jacoby had the names. Afterwards I found that he didn't—that is all.

Q. So that your answer was predicated upon the fact that you thought Mr. Jacoby had the names.

A. Yes; I thought he had the names or could get them at any time. I took it for granted that he had the names. I was very much surprised when I found otherwise. The truth of the matter, if you will permit an explanation—I don't care whether it goes on the record or not: when these two men called on Mr. Jacoby, Mr. Jacoby, practically kicked them out of the office. That's what it amounts to.

Mr. WILSON. What is this office in New York?

A. It is the Schenley Products Company.

Q. Do they run a distinct office of their own?

A. Oh, yes. Your see, they own the Joseph H. Finch Company and the Sam Thompson distillery and three or four others, and this is the office of the Schenley Products Company and these constituent companies.

HAROLD JACOBY, having beend uly sworn was examined and testified as follows:

THE CHAIRMAN: What is your full name?

A. Harold Jacoby.

Q. And your residence?

A. 451 West End Avenue, New York.

THE CHAIRMAN: For the benefit of the newspaper men, we will stop at ten minutes to seven. That will give us about ten minutes.

Q. Mr. Jacoby, it has been testified by Mr. Weil, Sr., that you conveyed directly or indirectly through Mr. Rosensteel, the president of your company or an officer thereof, certain information with reference to two men having contacted you personally, and who made the statement to you that upon the payment of a certain amount of money, they would be able to give your company, five-sixths of the state's liquor business. Were you so contacted?

A. I was contacted, but I am sorry to state that I think Mr. Weil, has misstated or rather incorrectly stated on part.

Q. Will you just tell us who contacted you?

A. I don't know their names, sir.

Q. Personally, were you contacted.

A. Yes.

Q. When were you contacted?

A. I think it was something less than three weeks ago.

Q. And where?

A. In my office.

Q. Where?

A. New York City

Q. How many men came to see you?
A. Two.
Q. Do you know their names?
A. I don't remember their names. I think I have their names in my office, as I told Mr. Weil, but I am not sure of that.
Q. Do you have a secretary?
A. Yes.
Q. What is her name?
A. My secretary's name?
Q. A man or a woman.?
A. A lady.
Q. Her name?
A. Miss Augustine.
Q. Her full name?
A. Belle Augustine, I think, Belle Augustine.
Q. And she is still in your employ?
A. Yes.
Q. And under your system, would it have been necessary for these gentlemen to have given their names to your stenographer to see you.
A. They usually do.
Q. Do you know whether the card was given to you.
A. Yes; they presented a card.
Q. Did they present one card or two cards?
A. One card with two names on it.
Q. Was that card a printed card or were their names written on the card, do you recollect?
A. I don't remember that.
Q. Do you know what the description of those men was? Had you ever seen them before?
A. No.
Q. Can you give us a description of either or both of these men?
A. One of them was a man that I should say weighed at least two hundred pounds, quite a large man. The other one was an ordinary sized man. That is the best description I could give.
Q. With respect to the man who weighed two hundred pounds, was he stout or thin?
A. He was stout.
Q. Was he tall or short?
A. Well, he was rather tall.
Q. Was he light or dark?
A. To the best of my recollection—I am not so sure I remember that.
Q. Did he have a mustache or not?
A. I don't think he did, I see many people—I couldn't picture these men.
Q. No, but I am trying to get your best recollection. Do you recall whether he was bald-headed or had hair?
A. No; I don't think he was bald-headed.
Q. Do you remember any definite marks on his face or on his hands, that would be a means of identification?
A. I think I would know him if I saw him.
Q. Do you recall any particular marks of identification?
A. No sir.
Q. And you have given us the best description that you know?
A. Yes.
Q. How about his age, how old was he?
A. I think this man was about fifty.
Q. Did he state his connection with any company?
A. No.
Q. Any group or company or organization, or association?
A. None whatsoever.
Q. The other man, was he tall or short?
A. He was a middle sized man.
Q. Was he thin or stout?
A. Average sized, I suppose he would weigh about one hundred sixty pounds.
Q. Do you recall any distinguishing marks on this man?
A. I don't.
Q. Did they appear to be Americans or foreigners?
A. They were Americans.
Q. Did you ask them their names?
A. I had their card.
Q. Do you know where that card is now?
A. I think I have it—I am not sure.
Q. Have you made any effort since yesterday to ascertain whether the card is still in your office?
A. I did not.
Q. May we ask you so to do?
A. Yes.
Q. And if you have that card, will you produce it before this Committee?
A. I will be very glad to.
Q. Will you tell us now the conversation that took place between you—was any one else present at the conversation?
A. No.
Q. Now, what was the conversation between you and the other two men?
A. They walked in. Our office is, or our business is to sell whiskey at wholesale, you no doubt know.
Q. Pardon me, you have a private office?
A. Yes; and we give a distributorship or an exclusive distributorship rights on certain of our brands. These two men came in, and they stated that they were from Philadelphia, and they told me who they were; that they were prepared to go in the whiskey, and they would like to get the distribution of our brands for the state of Pennsylvania, but I told them that the state of Pennsylvania was a very large territory, and it took quite an organization to cover it. They said, "no, I don't think it is going to take a very large organization to cover it, because the state of Pennsylvania is going to have state controlled liquor stores." I told them "that's news to me; possibly they knew" but if such was the fact I didn't think we could give any distributorship out for the state of Pennsylvania. I will repeat as nearly as I can what they said.
Q. That is all you can do?
A. Well, our connections in the state of Pennsylvania are satisfactory. We have been informed that state liquor stores, state controlled liquor stores will be established in Pennsylvania. We have got our connections there, and if there are to be state stores we are going to be the ones to supply them. If we can get your line—I don't say we will handle all the liquor from you, because that would not look right, but possibly eighty per cent. of it will be your liquor to go in the stores." That about ended the conversation. There were a few more words. I told them that we were not interested at all if the state was going to have their own system. I suggested that we sell them direct any of the drugs.
Q. Was there any conversation about paying a certain amount of money?
A. No; there was not.
Q. Was there anything indicative that they were to receive any bribes of any kind or to pay or to be paid?
A. No; the only information I could gather from the conversation was that they were able to supply liquor to the control stores.
Q. And all they asked you was for the right to be the Pennsylvania distributors of your company?
A. Correct, sir.
Q. Was it a query, one that would occur in the ordinary course of your business?
A. Well, I wouldn't say that it was ordinary. It was to be a distributorship——
Q. I mean the fact that two persons had walked in to see you, and sought an interview with you, had endeavored to seek an opportunity to be the Pennsylvania distributors of your company, that that of and in itself was nothing unusual?
A. No.
Q. Now, was there anything other than their statement that they thought they could get eighty per cent. of the business for your company? Was there any comment or remarks that led you to believe that they were endeavoring to have you pay them a certain amount of money to engage them?
A. They mentioned some names that didn't mean a thing to me, about so and so or Mr. John Jones or whatever they were.
Q. Do you recall them?
A. I don't.
Mr. WILSON. I don't understand that.
A. In other words, they were connected with Mr. Witkin in Pennsylvania; some man was supposed to be somebody; some man that was supposed to stand for somebody.
Q. Mr. WITKIN. Let us get this record straight. They didn't mention Mr. Witkin?
A. I said, they were supposed to stand for something in Pennsylvania. It didn't mean anything to me.

Q. You don't recall the name now?
A. I do not.
Q. You have no recollection of that name at all? You couldn't write it down?
A. No.
Q. In connection with mentioning that name, did they make any statement to you concerning the payment of any sum of money whatsoever?
A. No sir.
Q. So that there was no information that you gave to Mr. Weil, or Commissioner Rosensteel with respect to any two men at any time coming to you and stating that upon the payment of a certain sum of money they would be able to deliver a certain portion of the state's business?
A. I didn't state that; no.
Q. And you never so stated that either to Mr. Weil, junior or to Mr. Weil, senior?
A. No sir.
Q. And you never stated it to Mr. Rosensteel?
A. No.
Q. And the only statement that you made to Mr. Weil, junior, or Mr. Weil, senior, or Mr. Rosensteel, or any other person was the same statement as nearly as possible the same as you have given to this Committee?
A. I don't think I even gave it as fully. We read in the papers some notices of these State stores or this bill being proposed in Pennsylvania, and that recalled to me this particular visit, "here's two fellows that had a little bit of information sooner than anybody else, and they were ready to start——" to use the phrase that is generally used—"they are starting on graft before the thing starts."
Q. There was no argument between you and those two men?
A. No sir.
Q. And there was nothing that took place between you and those two men that caused you to become highly indignant or highly insulted and to order them out of the place?
A. No sir; I told them that we didn't want to have anything to do with them if they were going to have State Stores.
Q. And I assume that you then said "Good-bye" in the natural way as you do in any interview that takes place.
A. Yes sir.
Q. Did you at any time tell Mr. Weil, Sr., or Mr. Weil, Jr., that you had ordered these men out of your place, had become highly indignant, highly offended by reason of their attitude in asking you for something.
A. I don't know about the highly indignant. I have repeated, as nearly as I can, what I told them, that we were not interested in that kind of business.
Mr. WILSON. How did the interview end?
A. Just as I told you, that we would not be interested in any business like that, if they had controlled stores.
Q. You were present in New York when this was discussed, were you not?
A. It was very likely talked about.
Q. Do you remember about that?
A. Yes.
Q. Who discussed it there besides yourself?
A. I think at a meeting Mr. Rosensteel mentioned it, if I remember correctly. Now, I am not sure that he did.
Q. What did he say?
A. We have always believed—I don't mean by this——
Q. What did Mr. Rosensteel say?
A. Well, I have told you. I say, we have always believed that state controlled liquor stores are very hard to manage.
Q. These orations against State controlled stores will not prevail anything. I have asked you a question real civilly and I would like to have your answer.
A. What was it?
Q. I asked you what he said in New York.
A. I cannot tell——
Q. No, I don't want you to give an oration about state stores. It is not going to get us any place anywhere, because as far as the House is concerned state stores have been very well determined. Now, will you kindly answer my question? What the president of the company, Mr. Rosensteel, stated in your presence?
A. I would hate to try and repeat what he said. To the best of my recollection he spoke about the graft beginning already for government controlled stores; mentioning this very instance that I am telling you.
Q. Just what was said as nearly as you can remember?
A. That is positively as near as I can get it, if you gentlemen want me to tell you what he said.
Q. Just simply answer the question, what he said, by telling what the president of the company said, not what was said at other times, but what he said. What was said last Sunday afternoon.
A. That the graft under state controlled stores was all ready starting, and repeated that men had already been in the office.
Q. What did he say then?
A. —men had already been in the office, claiming that they controlled the situation, and they wanted to buy liquor to supply State controlled stores.
Q. Is that all he said?
A. No sir, he spoke much longer.
Q. What else? What was the rest?
A. The rest was a talk about the history of state controlled liquor stores which you don't want to hear.
Q. The Committee would very much like to have you tell to the best of your recollection, in your own words, what the president of your company said last Sunday?
A. Have I not covered it?
Q. I wish you would be kind enough to cover it again?
A. Among other things he said was that the graft connected with state controlled liquor stores was already started in Pennsylvania. The men had already approached the companies stating that they were able to control the purchases for such stores.
Q. Is that as you recollect it all that he said about this transaction, about these men that came there.
A. I think that he mentioned about one other instance. I don't know whether it refers to this particular state or not.
Q. Let us get his conversation?
A. That's as nearly as I can remember what he said.
Q. What he said; yes?
A. I have just told you several times before, I wasn't very much interested in it.
Q. Did he also mention a transaction that took place in Philadelphia when some representative of your company was approached?
A. I think he did.
Q. What did he say about that?
A. I think he mentioned two occasions, but of course that was hearsay to him.
Q. What did he say about them?
A. That some one in Philadelphia had been approached, that they were able to control the purchases for the state of Pennsylvania.
Q. Will you give us just as closely as you can what he said about the transaction?
A. I am sorry, I would like to give it to you I am trying to give it to you, but I didn't pay enough attention to repeat that conversation.
Q. That is unfortunate, but all you can give us is your recollection?
A. That is all.
Q. Will you give us your best recollection of what he said about the Philadelphia transaction?
A. The same member approached there.
Q. Do you know who was approached there in Philadelphia?
A. I think it was a representative of our company in Philadelphia.
Q. Can you give us the name of that man?
A. I am not positive that that is correct.
Q. Can you give us the name of the man that you think it was in Philadelphia?
A. I think it was a man by the name of Rappaport.

BY THE CHAIRMAN.

Q. He is the representative of your company in Philadelphia?
A. The representative just acts as a salesman. He is the exclusive salesman of our goods.
Q. Do you know where his place of business is in Philadelphia?
A. I can find that out for you. I don't recall the street and number.
Q. Do you know what street it is on?
A. No sir. I have never been in his office.

Q. Do you know how to spell his name?
A. R-A-P-P-O-P-O-R-T, I think. I am not sure that he was the man. I think he was.
Q. I don't like to take too much time, but I would like to know as near as possible what he said about Philadelphia?
A. I have already told you all I know. I would like to tell you everything.
Q. All you can tell us, of course, is what you remember?
A. That's positively it.
Q. What did he say about Philadelphia?
A. I told you everything.
Q. What did he say?
A. That two men had also approached our man in Philadelphia.
Q. Did he say who had approached him?
A. No.
Q. Did he say what they said when he approached this man in Philadelphia?
A. Something about they were able to control the purchase of whiskey in the State of Pennsylvania.
Q. Did he say anything else about what they said?
A. Not that I can recall.
Q. Did he say anything about a telephone call conversation, about a demand that they made in a telephone conversation?
A. No; I said that.
Q. What were the facts in regard to that?
A. Some one had called me up from Philadelphia, and wanted to know when they could come up and see me personally, and I told him I was very busy, and had to know his business. So he said Pennsylvania is going to have liquor controlled stores, and he would like to make arrangements to have an interview with me and I asked him what his connection was with the State of Pennsylvania. "All those things I will tell you when I see you," and I said I wasn't interested.
Q. When was this?
A. Maybe two weeks ago, ten days ago—recently.
Q. Can't you place the call any closer than that?
A. No; I am afraid I can't.
Q. Did the man give you his name?
A. The telephone call came from a man, that I have been trying to remember that name ever since Mr. Weil spoke to me and this came out in the newspapers. The call came on long distance. It came from Philadelphia.
Q. Where were you when you received that call?
A. In my office.
Q. What is the telephone number of your office?
A. Columbus 5-5500 it was at that time. We have moved since that time.
Q. At that time it was the telephone number?
A. Yes.

BY MR. WITKIN.

Q. Where was your office at that time?
A. 1819 Broadway.

BY MR. WILSON.

Q. And that telephone call came to office about when?
A. About ten days or two weeks ago.
Q. About what time of the day was it?
A. About—it was in the morning.
Q. Do you have many telephone calls from Philadelphia?
A. From Philadelphia, I wouldn't say we do, no. At least, I don't have many. I have calls from all over.
Q. Have you given us the substance of what this man said?
A. Yes.
Q. He didn't offer you anything at all over the telephone, did he?
A. No. He said he wanted to see me personally.

BY THE CHAIRMAN.

Q. No one has ever contacted you with respect to any money or any sum of money whatsoever for the purpose of getting you a certain portion of the state business?
A. No sir.
Q. And you have never told any one that they did?
A. No sir.
Q. The Committee wants to beg your pardon for ushering you in so fast, but your name came up, and we understood you were leaving town today, and the Committee thought that they would like to have you here if possible, and that was the reason that the Sergeant at Arms asked you to come here?
A. Entirely all right.

The CHAIRMAN. The committee thanks you for appearing here and testifying.

Mr. WILSON. What connection do you have with the Schenley Distilleries Corporation?
A. You mean the Schenley Products Company.
Q. What connection do you have with the company?
A. I am president.
Q. You are president of the company?
A. Yes sir.
Q. What measures have you taken, as president, to investigate this matter and find out about it?
A. Since I have mentioned it to Mr. Weil, we are attempting now to find these men, as to who they were. We paid no attention to them at the time. I would like to state this as many times as people come in, to make statements about this, that and the other thing.
Q. It made no impression particularly upon you, did it?
A. This particular one?
Q. Yes?
A. Well, when two or three come in—
Q. I don't understand?
A. When there were two or three approachers.
Q. From Philadelphia and the telephone connection?
A. Yes.
Q. On this particular transaction or not?
A. Not the first one, it didn't to me.
Q. It didn't disturb you very much evidently?
A. No sir.

The CHAIRMAN. In other words there was nothing so unusual in any of these conversations that would cause you to take measures or to apprehend and bring to justice these men who came to see you in your office, in your New York Office?

A. When these men come in—we had many men that came in who could deliver anything from the United States down to Canada, but we can't pay very much attention to them, so there wasn't very much attention paid to these two men, but at the time that same report came out about the Pennsylvania situation, then we recalled these transactions.

Q. But there were no measures taken by you to bring these men to justice at that time?
A. No; not before this.
Q. First of all you will try to ascertain the names of these two men?
A. Yes sir.
Q. And second of all you will try to ascertain whether or not the Philadelphia gentleman, is Mr. Rappaport or is it not, and will you convey that information, you need not come here personally, by communicating with the Chairman or any member of this Committee; and third, if you yourself can locate—well, we will make it "effort"—what telephone number that telephone conversation came from in Philadelphia, where it was a person to person call. We would appreciate your getting that information and advising the Committee. Now there is one other question suggested by one of the members of the Committee: do you have any information or any substantive proof to substantiate the statement made by Mr. Weil, senior, that there were certain applications that had been made that upon the payment of certain amounts of money, certain persons could get your company five-sixth of the State business or any portion thereof?
A. I am sorry, Mr. Weil, misunderstood that that was the statement.

Mr. WILSON. Were you present in the House yesterday when these statements were made during the hearing?
A. No sir; unfortunately I had occasion to go out to the telephone to find out what the New York State law is. The question was whether the New York State law was sales law in or out of the State, and I called up New York, so when I came in Mr. Weil was on another subject, and I was not there.
Q. But you think that that is very important, Mr. Jacoby, this information? Time is very important to this Committee?
A. It is to everybody.
Q. It is important to us because the Legislature beyond doubt, a long session it looks like to me,

BY THE CHAIRMAN.

Q. May we ask, Mr. Weil, Sr. and Mr. Weil, Jr., and Mr. Jacoby, that you will endeavor to supply this Committee between now and tomorrow, or as early as possible, with the information requested, and, further, if there are any other person or persons wheresoever situate, with whom by getting in contact whereby we can procure any further light upon the statement made by Mr. Weil, Sr.? The Committee will appreciate it. This Committee wishes to dispose of this matter speedily and properly, and promptly make a report to the House of Representatives, in order that the public may be apprised as to whether or not the charges are based upon proper merit, or whether they are based on mere hearsay or looseness.

(No answer).

BY MR. WILSON.

Q. This was a personal call to you, was it not?

A. I don't know about that. We have a telephone operator there, and she called up that Philadelphia was calling.

PRESENT:

(Members of the Committee as before noted.)

THE CHAIRMAN. Neither the Chairman nor the members of the Committee have received any word from either Mr. Weil, Sr., Mr. Weil, Jr., or Mr. Jacoby with reference to the inquiries that were made of them at yesterday's meeting. With respect to the names of the two men in question, with reference to a visit at the office of Mr. Jacoby, nor did any of these gentlemen supply any member of the Committee with the name of the Philadelphia representative, the Philadelphia agent or representative who was mentioned in connection with these alleged efforts in these proceedings. These gentlemen were requested by the Sergeant-at-Arms, Mr. Visor, to appear before this Committee at this time, but the statement has ben made by Mr. A. Leo Weil, Jr., to the effect that they were actively engaged before the Senate Finance Committee, and therefore, could not appear before this Committee. The Committee, in its desire speedily to ascertain all the facts are in order to assure all of the facts being placed before the Committee, has issued a subpoena and has caused the said subpoena to be served upon each one of these three gentlemen, directing their appearance before this Committee on Monday, the 27th day of November at 5 o'clock P. M., in the House Caucus Room.

The Committee has also decided to write a letter to Mr. Rosensteel requesting his appearance before this Committee at that time.

The CHAIRMAN. At the last hearing of this Committee a letter, dated November 22nd, 1933, was forwarded to Louis Rosensteel, c/o the Schenley Products Company, New York, copy of which letter will be placed in the record.

(The said letter reads as follows:)

November 22, 1933.

Mr. Louis Rosensteel,
20 W. Fortieth Street,
c/o Schenley Products Company,
New York City.

Dear Sir:

Your name has been mentioned by A. Leo Weil, Sr., A. Leo Weil, Jr., and by Harold Jacoby before the Legislative Inquiry Committee with respect to a statement made by A. Leo Weil, Sr., before the Ways and Means Committee at a public hearing held on Monday, November 20, 1933.

The Committee is desirous of procuring any and all information pertaining or relating to the statement made by A. Leo Weil, Sr., as well as to any of the facts connected with the alleged improper approaches of certain persons to the officers of your company with respect to the procurement of certain business for your company.

May we ask that you, in the interests of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and in the interests of justice, voluntarily appear before this Committee on Monday, November 27, 1933, at five o'clock p. m., then and there to give us any and all information that you may have pertaining to the subject of this inquiry.

I herewith inclose a copy of the resolution passed by the House of Representatives, in order that you may be fully apprised as to the nature of the inquiry.

You are a citizen of the State of New York and not subject to our subpoena, but we trust you will see your way clear voluntarily to appear before this Committee.

Yours very truly,
MORTON WITKIN,
Chairman.

The CHAIRMAN. The following reply was received from Mr. Rosensteel:

The Willard Hotel
Washington, D. C.
November 26, 1933.

Honorable Morton Witkin, Chairman,
Ways and Means Committee,
House of Representatives,
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Dear Mr. Chairman:

My office advises me of the receipt of a letter from you requesting me to appear before your Committee on next Monday, November 27th.

I deeply regret that I am unable to comply with your request, owing to the fact that I have for some days past been in Washington and my presence there will be necessary on Monday in connection with the Federal Codes and Marketing Agreements pertaining to our industry. I assure you, however, I would not be able to give you anything further than what has already been given to you by Mr. Jacoby.

If I can be of any assistance to you, I would appreciate it very much if you would let me know at my New York office.

Respectfully,
Louis Rosensteel.

The CHAIRMAN. I take it, members of the Committee, that at this time Mr. Rosensteel, being in New York, outside of the jurisdiction of the State of Pennsylvania, cannot be compelled by subpoena to appear before this Committee, and that further action with reference to Mr. Rosensteel will be taken by this Committee at a future time.

Harold Jacoby was summoned by the Sergeant-at-Arms to appear before this Committee at this hearing at this time. I am in receipt of the following affidavit and telegram from Mr. Jacoby which I shall read:

State of New York }
County of New York } ss.

Harold Jacoby, being duly sworn deposes and says: I have personally made a diligent and thorough search for the names of the individuals who called upon me and for the card to which my testimony referred.. I have, notwithstanding such thorough and diligent search, been unable to find the names of such individuals or such card I can, therefore, add nothing to the testimony I have heretofore given to the Committee of the House of Representatives, before whom I testified. I have testified under oath to all of my knowledge concerning the matter about which the inquiry was made.

I have returned to New York City and am not well. I would find it exceedingly difficult and inconvenient if I were obliged to attend the hearing at Harrisburg scheduled for November 27th, 1933.

I shall be available and will give further testimony if the Committee deems it necessary at any future time it may be designated.

I therefore trust that the necessity of my presence in Harrisburg on November 27, 1933, will be dispensed with.

Harold Jacoby.

Sworn to before me

Harold Jacoby.

THE CHAIRMAN: I am also in receipt of the following letter from Mr. Jacoby:

Schenley Distillers Corporation
20 West 40th Street
New York City

Telephone Columbus 5-5500

November 26th, 1933.

Mr. Morton Witkin,
Chairman Ways and Means Committee,
House of Representatives,
Harrisburg, Penna.
My dear Mr. Chairman:

Since leaving Harrisburg on Wednesday night, it was necessary for me to go to Washington to appear before the A. A. A. Committee, who are now drafting a code for the distillery business, and did not complete my work there until Friday night. I returned to New York Saturday morning and immediately upon my arrival at my office, I began a personal and thorough search to try to find the names of the individuals and the card to which my recent testimony referred, and regret to advise you that I have not been able to find any trace of the card. It will be impossible, therefore, for me to add, in any way, to the testimony I have already given to you and your Committee when last in Harrisburg.

For the past two or three weeks, I have been under a terrific strain, working both day and night and, at the present time, I am not at all well, as you will note from the enclosed affidavit, and have been advised that a trip to Harrisburg would retard my recovery. As I could add nothing to the testimony I have already given and, as a trip to Harrisburg would, under the circumstances, be both difficult and inconvenient, I trust that your Committee will dispense with the necessity of my presence.

If such is not the case, I trust that my appearance may be deferred until such time as I am physically able to make the trip and, should you find it necessary that I appear before you again at a later date, I will certainly do so.

Assuring you of my earnest desire to co-operate with you and your Committee to the utmost of my ability, I am,

Very truly yours,
Harold Jacoby.

THE CHAIRMAN: The question of requiring or not requiring Mr. Jacoby's appearance before this Committee will be taken up at a later time.

May I also advise the Committee that I met Mr. A. Leo Weil, Jr., who together with A. Leo Weil, Sr., was subpoenaed to appear at this meeting, in the lobby of the Penn-Harris Hotel at ten o'clock, Wednesday night, November 22nd. The purpose of subpoening the two Weils was for the purpose of ascertaining the name of the Philadelphia Representative. Mr. A. Leo Weil, Jr., handed me a letter which reads as follows:

Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

The Penn-Harris,
Hon. Morton Witkin,
Chairman Ways and Means Committee
House of Representatives
Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Mr. Witkin:—

The name of the gentleman referred to as "Rappaport" by Mr. Jacoby in Philadelphia, whose full name and address was to be furnished is

Mr. Sam Rappaport,
Keystone Sales Co.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

At the present time it is impossible to secure a more accurate address but no doubt this will suffice.

Very truly yours,
A. Leo Weil, Jr.

I took it upon myself to tell Mr. Weil that if the name was correct and if we were able to locate and subpoena Mr. Rappaport to be here, I believed the Committee would back up my excuse, although these gentlemen had been subpoenaed to appear at this hearing, because that was the only purpose they would not be required to appear.

I may say to the Committee that we immediately located Mr. Rappaport, and Mr. Rappaport was subpoenaed by the Sergeant-at-Arms and Mr. Harry Visor (at the request of the Chairman), who gave an affidavit saying that he was subpoenaed, and I understand that Mr. Rappaport is now with his counsel ready to testify.

I will also enter upon the record a registry receipt card with reference to the letter which was sent to Mr. Rosensteel, the letter having been sent by registered mail, and I ask that the registry card be spread upon the record.

The said registry card reads as follows:

Post Office Department, official business, registered article. No. 7691. Insured parcel. Return to Morton Witkin, House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Return receipt. Received from the Postmaster the registered or insured article, the original number of which appears on the face of this Card.

Schenley.
Millovitz.

Date of Delivery, 11/23, 1933.

It was moved, duly seconded and agreed that the action of the Chairman in the premises be verified or confined by the Committee.

SOL RAPPAPORT, being duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

Mr. WERNICK: I want to say, Mr. Chairman, that the witness told me on Saturday when he was subpoenaed and raised the question of whether, having been lawfully subpoenaed, he was entitled to witness fees and mileage. I think that the Committee should pay him his witness fee and his mileage because he is a poor man. He is working for this company on a commission basis, and has made very little.

(Discussion off the record, at the request of the Chairman).

Mr. WITKIN. What is your business?

A. I have been representing Joseph S. Finch and Company of Philadelphia for quite a number of years.

Q. Do you represent any other company? Distilling Companies?

A. Yes; the Schenley Industrial Alcohol Company.

Q. Any other company?

A. No sir.

Q. Do you represent the Schenley Products Company?

A. Well, the Joseph S. Finch Company is a subsidiary to the Schenley Products Company.

Q. So that you are really the representative of both companies, the Schenley Products Company as well as the Finch Company?

A. Yes sir.

Q. And now Mr. Rappaport, it is has been testified before this Committee that certain information with respect to a bribe or alleged bribe was obtained through the Philadelphia representative of the Finch Company or the Schenley Products Company, and it was further stated that the name of that Philadelphia representative was believed to be Rappaport, and it was subsequently given to us as Sam Rappaport. Was any such offer ever made to you?

A. No sir.

Q. Have you ever been in contact with any person or persons who came to you either directly or indirectly and suggested anything that was improper with the procurement of business to you as a representative of the company that you represent or as an individual?

A. Not to me.

Q. Did you ever make any statement to any member of the Schenley Products Company or any member of the Joseph S. Finch Company that such a situation had arisen with respect to you?

A. No sir.

Q. Did you ever report to A. Leo Weil, Jr. or Mr. A. Leo Weil, Sr., that you had been improperly approached with respect to the procurement of State business?

A. No sir.

Q. Do you have any knowledge whatsoever of any matter that ever arose whereby these gentlemen would have been authorized mentioning your name to such person who was believed to be the person through whom that information was obtained?

A. I don't have such knowledge. The only thing I did for the company, was try and sell merchandise for them.

Q. It was testified at a public hearing before the Ways and Means Committee on Monday, November 20th, by A. Leo Weil, as follows: "We have already had application for the payment of certain amounts so that when you pass your control bill and put it into the hands of State Control Stores, there are parties who said they can control things if we will pay them a certain amount. They will see that we get five-sixths of the business." Do you have any light to throw upon that statement made by A. Leo Weil, Sr.?

A. Not any—

Q. Did anyone ever come to you and offer you any amount of money whatsoever, or anything of value, and suggest to you that if you paid a certain amount of money or anything of value, that they would get, or see to it that your company got five-sixths of the State's business, or any portion of the State's business?

A. No sir.

Q. Did you ever make any such statement to A. Leo Weil, Sr. that such was the case?

A. No sir.

Q. Did you ever make any such statement to A. Leo Weil, Jr. that would lead him to believe that such was the case?

A. I don't know the Weils, neither of them.

Q. Did you ever make a statement to Harold Jacoby who is president, I believe, of the Finch Company, that such a proposition had been made to you?

A. No sir.

Q. Did you ever make such a statement to Louis Rosensteel, president of the Schenley Products Company, or an officer of that company that such a statement had been made to you?

A. No sir.

Q. Was any such statement ever made to you?

A. No sir.

Q. Was there any statement made to you by which you could infer that the persons who were making it intended to offer you a certain amount, and they would see to it that you would get a certain amount of the State business?

A. I tell you, I had an inquiry to use my influence with the Schenley Products Company and the Joseph S. Finch Company for large quantities of liquor for delivery after repeal. That's the only thing I know.

Q. Will you make it clear?

A. I said I had inquiries by different people who wanted me to go to New York and contact the New York Office and purchase large quantities of liquor to be delivered after repeal.

Q. In other words, what you mean is that certain people came to you who wanted to buy through your company large quantities of liquor that they intended to use in the State of Pennsylvania after repeal?

A. Not——yes, I didn't say "in Pennsylvania"—I said to buy large quantities of liquor.

Q. But was there anything said in any of those conversations with respect to the passage of the bill for State Control Liquor Stores or anything about the persons who would be able to ge business for your company from the State of Pennsylvania?

A. There was no mention of that. In fact, there wasn't even talk in the newspapers about it at that time; that all these things took place, these offers took place before election, and we had no knowledge or anything even about this new bill for State ownership.

Q. These inquiries that you referred to were regular inquiries in the course of your business?

A. Regular inquiries in the course of our business.

Q. And they were merely inquiries of yours to purchase large quantities of liquor from your company for legal and proper consumption?

A. Yes sir.

Q. There was nothing irregular about any of these conferences?

A. No sir.

Q. Was there any conversation about your dealing in any illegal transaction during the past six months or year or at any time?

A. No sir.

Q. Have you ever talked to Harold Jacoby about this situation?

A. No.

Q. Did you ever have any conversation with Harold Jacoby wherein there was anything suggested with respect to graft or bribery?

A. No sir.

Q. Did you ever talk with any of the other gentlemen, A. Leo Weil, Jr., A. Leo Weil, Sr., or Louis Rosensteel, with respect to such a proposition?

A. No sir.

Q. In other words, I take it from your answer that nothing has occurred to your knowledge that would in any way reflect upon any person or persons who had ever come to you concerning any proposition dealing with liquor?

A. Right.

Q. When did you last speak to Mr. Jacoby?

A. Mr. Jacoby, I spoke to him the week of October 16th.

Q. Since that time have you had any conversation with him?

A. Last Saturday, I spoke to him.

Q. By telephone?

A. By telephone.

Q. And what did your conversation relate to, without giving us the conversation at this time?

A. I called him on the phone on Saturday afternoon and told him I was subpoenaed, and I wanted to know what it was all about.

Q. And what did he tell you?

A. He told me to tell the truth?

Q. And did you have any conversation with him last Saturday, wherein he said that he had mentioned your name before this Committee as being the source of the information about certain offers or bribes or corruption or graft?

A. No sir. I just asked him—I told him that I was subpoenaed and I wanted to know what it was all about.

Q. Did he tell you what it was all about?

A. He said Weil mentioned my name, unfortunately, and that is all there is to it.

Q. Did he tell you in what respect Mr. Weil mentioned your name?

A. No; I knew that from the newspapers.

Q. Did you have any conversation with Mr. Rosensteel during the past month?

A. I asked for Mr. Rosensteel over the telephone and they said that he wasn't there, and then I asked for Mr. Harold Jacoby and they connected me with him.

Q. Do you know either of the Weils?

A. No sir.

Q. Did you have any conversation with them?

A. No sir.

Q. When was the last time you had any conversation with Louis Rosensteel, either by telephone or otherwise?

A. I had no conversation, except he greeted me and said "hello" to me.

Q. When was that?
A. About three months ago at the New York Office.
Q. And you had no conversation with him with respect to any other matter except a casual "hello" and "good-bye?"
A. That's all.
Q. When was the last time you had any conversation with Mr. Jacoby, beside the telephone conversation you just referred to?
A. The week of October 16th. Monday was the 16th. That week, I spent about three or four days in New York trying to put through a big deal, and it didn't materialize right away.
Q. Did that have anything to do with state liquor stores?
A. None whatsoever, because the buyer——
Q. Let that out. That doesn't have anything to do with this, however.
A. No sir.
Q. Did you ever have any other conversation with Mr. Jacoby in the past three or four months?
A. I don't think so; no.
Q. Now, Mr. Rappaport, do you know or can you tell us or can you throw any light upon the reason that your name was mentioned by these gentlemen before this Legislative Inquiry Committee?
A. Possibly they mixed me up with somebody else?
Q. Do you know of any other person or persons in Philadelphia who represent the Schenley Products Company or the Finch Company?
A. There is one other person.
Q. What is his name?
A. Benjamin Kabeck. He is my partner.
Q. He is in partnership with you?
A. He is in partnership with me.
Q. Did he, to your knowledge, have any conversation with any one, concerning the matters that I have just placed before you?
A. As far as I know, he didn't.
Q. Did you discuss it with him since you were subpoenaed to ascertain whether he did or not?
A. I certainly did.
Q. What was his reply?
A. He didn't know anything about it.
Q. Are there any other representatives in Philadelphia beside your partner or yourself of either the Schenley Products Company or the Finch Company?
A. Well, we have a fellow by the name of Robertson but as far as I know, he knows nothing about it.
Q. What is his full name?
A. Edward C. Robertson.
Q. Where is he located?
A. In the same office.
Q. In your office?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Did you ever have any conversation with him since you were subpoenaed?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Was he able to throw any light upon this subject?
A. No sir.
Q. Do you know, of your own knowledge, whether or not he knows of any proposition that was made to him concerning the payment of money in order to procure certain State business?
A. They told me they weren't approached by anybody.
Q. Do you know of any other representative of either of these two companies in Philadelphia?
A. No; these two companies have no other representatives.

BY MR. WILSON:
Q. Has anybody approached you or your partner or your company, representing that they could control the purchase of liquor in Pennsylvania?
A. No sir; if they were approached, I would know about it, because they would tell me about it.
Q. Yes; I take that to be so. Have you or your associates been approached by anybody who represented that they were able to influence or control the purchase of liquor in Pennsylvania after this repeal?
A. I don't quite understand your question.
Q. I mean this: Did anybody come to you or your associates or your business house and say or represent to you people that they could influence either the State of Pennsylvania or the purchasing agent in the State of Pennsylvania who controlled the sale of liquor, so that you would have a very large part of it.
A. No sir; the only thing I was approached on was by people asking me to get the distribution of the Schenley's whiskies for them in Philadelphia, but there was no talk about Pennsylvania.
Q. That is all right, if anybody came to you, but did anybody come to you and represent or say that they would be influential in deciding what liquor Pennsylvania would buy, or getting you a large share of what was sold in this State?
A. No sir.
Q. Or anything to that effect at all?
A. No sir.
Q. Did anybody come around saying that they had influence, and say that a large part of that liquor that was sold, all your liquor was sold, and give you an advantage in the State at all?
A. No sir.
Q. You or your associates? You would know if it came to your associates?
A. Yes sir.
Q. Did anything happen at all?
A. No sir.
Q. And it has been testified here that you were approached, you or your associates were approached, and this—the Philadelphia representatives of these people were approached and given to understand that under certain circumstances these parties had control, so that they would get a large part of the liquor. Did any such thing happen at all?
A. No sir.
Q. And no basis for these things at all?
A. No sir.

BY THE CHAIRMAN:
Q. And did anybody promise you a position or profit or make you any promise for the purpose of paying you, so that your company would get—did anybody promise you any position or profit for this purpose?
A. I don't get that question.
